AMUSEMENTS.

"Human Hearts" will be at the Oreighton Thursday, Friday and Satarday evenings of next week.

Sam T. Jack's Extravaganza com-The dancing and acrobatic feats being particularly well done.

"Mexico" is the attraction at the evenings, while Wednesday will wit ness two productions of "Friends." Both plays are under the management of Mr. Arthur C. Aiston-a sufficient guarantee that they are first class in Town. every particular.

"The Cotton King," by all odds the very best attraction which has aptists capable of giving them the right sort of interpretation. "A Contented Woman" will be seen here next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and

The attractions at that popular playnouse, Boyd's theater, for the remainder of the month of October, after the ergagement of "A Contented Woman," will be as follows: Steve Brodie, the renowned bridge jumper, in the up todate New York melodrama, "On the Bowery;" David Henderson's big American Extraveganza company in in "The Globe Trotter." November and December contain several big sur prises for the patrons of the Boyd's.

"Rush City," the ratting farce-com ely, which opens a three nights' engagement at Boyd's theater on to-morrow (Sunday) evening, was written by Gus Heege, who will be favorably re n embered for his Swedish dialect play 'Yon Yonson" John J. Rush is a land boomer, "Rush City" is the boom town. The events are manipulated by the former to exalt the latter in a way funny and extravagant. There is a rain maker, who wanders about experimenting, and just when Rush and "Rush City" have the fates of the plot against them, a cyclone is worked in and the denouement is satisfactorily worked out. The work, altogether treating of American features and personages achieves excellent results in offering, plenty of merriment. "Rush City" is more than mus'cal farce. As done by the enter prising Davis and Koogh management, t is a spectacular production as well. realistic cyclone scene. This is a wonderful result of stage engineering.

The above blank, when returned properly of the form of this scason, was on the beards there the first of this week. There have been a number of plays which were really excellent produced in the Creighton this year, but not one pleased the audience so thoroughly as did "The Cotton King."

"Too Much Johnson" was the attraction at Boyd's this week, and it was an attraction. Mr. Wm. Gillette's rendition of his part was faulties, as were also the roles of Misses Maud Haslam and Kate Meek. Probably no other play, has drawn a bester house, or a more appreciative audience. The applause and the laughter were much mere pronounced than usual, and attested the appreciation of the audience.
