

PITTSBURG IRISHMEN ANGRY.

Hot Denunciation of the Convention Recently Held in Chicago. PITTSBURG, Oct. 8.—Fifty Irishmen met to-night to hear the report of the Pittsburgh delegates to the recent national convention of Irishmen at Chicago. Joseph Howley presided. Delegate Humphrey Lynch, the only one of the delegates from Pittsburgh admitted to the convention, announced the gathering for refusing entrance to Delegate Dr. Paul M. Shoeny and his companion. Dr. Shoeny then addressed the meeting, saying the Chicago convention was entirely unrepresentative of the masses of Irish in this country. Three hundred delegates had been admitted from Chicago and were falsely accredited as representatives of various states. He said the Pittsburgh delegates had been refused a hearing by order of Mr. Lyman. Those who ran the convention, he continued, deceived the public by claiming the presence of prominent Chicagoans who never set foot in the hall. Instead, he said there were present truck drivers and ward heelers, who were given the cards of business men. Dr. Shoeny said telegrams and cablegrams read before the convention were largely spurious. The Pittsburghers were excluded because they would have exposed the trickery. The whole convention Dr. Shoeny declared to have been a farce and the movement it inaugurated a farce. The meeting wound up with the adoption of resolutions denouncing the Chicago convention as unrepresentative and its decisions impracticable. The leaders of the movement, the resolutions said, were in it for their financial and political advantage.

A. P. A. CARRIES NASHVILLE.

Democrats Lack Organization and Meet With Defeat.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 10.—Nashville was the scene to-day of one of the hottest municipal elections in its history. The A. P. A. had a superb organization in every ward, while in a number of wards the Democrats were deficient in this respect. The A. P. A. has been laying plans all summer for this election, and the Democratic workers could not budger their members from their allegiance to the order. There was a big falling off in the vote in a number of strong Democratic wards; nevertheless over 8,000 votes were cast out of a total registration of over 14,000. It is conceded on all sides that the A. P. A. ticket has been elected. McCarthy's majority for mayor will be about 800, while the councilman ticket will have majorities of from 600 to 1,200. The A. P. A. is largely composed of Democrats who are dissatisfied with the management of city, county and state affairs, and who were determined to overthrow the present regime, which they are pleased to dominate "the ring." The proposition for the city to subscribe $100,000 to the centennial exposition was carried by a vote of nearly twenty to one. There was an incipient riot in the Ninth ward to-night. The A. P. A.'s reserved their strength until the last hour this afternoon, voting nearly 2,000 the last hour. Owing to the intense excitement the big up-town saloons are all closed to-night.

IGNORANT AS TO HIS PARENTS.

Peculiar Story of a Boy Sent From Chicago to Port Huron.

PORT HURON, Mich., Oct. 11.—Albert Shaw, a 7-year-old boy, without friends or relatives in this city, arrived here yesterday alone. He says he was put on the train at Chicago by Sister Fisa, who gave him a half-fare ticket to this city and a luncheon. He cannot remember his parents, but was told he would meet his mother when he arrived here. The lad is bright-looking and refined. The police think there is some mystery connected with the case; that he was placed in a convent when a babe and cannot recall his parents. It is evident the boy has been a member of a Roman Catholic school, for he said that before he came here one of the boys took his scapular. He could not, however, describe either the school or Sister Fisa.

Why I Cut Loose From the Roman Church.

I was brought up a Roman, and lived up to the doctrine of the Roman church until I came west, then I did not get to church very often, for it was in the country and we did not have church but once a month; I had been here two years when I married, but I did not marry a Catholic, neither was I married by the priest. After I had been married three months I came to the little city where I now live. I went to the Catholic church four times in ten years, but a great many times to other churches. When my oldest child was five years old I sent her to the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath school, and I had no trouble with any priest until last fall. One day there was a rap at the door. I answered it; there stood a well-dressed man about 30 years of age. I should think it did not take me more than a minute to tell that it was the priest. I asked him to sit down. He did so, and then asked me the following questions: "I suppose you know who I am?"

The licentious criminality of the Priest of Rome, Father Wagner, will emphasize the declaration that from the confessional to the street-corner is but a step.

"Yes, sir, I do; I believe you are the Catholic priest." "Yes. Do you know what I am here for?" "No, I do not." "Well, I heard that you were once a Catholic and I came to see you, and try to have you come to church and do your duty as every Catholic should." "Well, it has been twelve years since I have been to confession, or have done my duty as a Catholic. It will be hard work, after so long a time, to begin now."

"Is your husband a Catholic?" "No, sir." "Have you any children?" "Yes sir, we have two." "How old are they?" "The oldest one is eight and the other one year old." "Have they been baptized?" "No, sir." "Why not?" "I can give no other reason than that I have been careless and did not think anything about it."

"Do you know that you are living a life of sin and your children are illegitimate?" "My marriage is called legal anywhere in the United States and cannot see why you say that." "Then he said: "No marriage is lawful except those contracted by the church, and I want you to talk with your husband he remarried, and come to church as you ought to."

I spoke to my husband about it and he refused. In about two weeks the priest called again. I was not feeling well, and I did not feel very good natured. The conversation was pretty much the same as the one had during his previous call. He said he was going to see the bishop and would get a dispensation from him for me, so that I could once more lead a better life. Then he told me to take my child out of the Sabbath school she was attending, and send her over to his church, "and the baby," said he, "you can bring her over any time and have her baptized; there is no excuse for you not to bring her over."

"Well," said I, "how about the older one?" "We'll think about it and will let you know." "No, sir," said I, "you cannot baptize one of my children and not the other. One is just as good as the other." Then he left. The next time he called was about the middle of the winter. He had been to see the bishop and was armed with the dispensation and asked: "Will you answer yes to the following question?" "That depends upon what the question is." "Well," said he: "Do you take (name in full) as your lawful husband?" "Yes, sir." He signed the paper and gave it to me and asked me to do the same. He had asked my husband to be remarried by him, but he had said: "No. Once is enough. I had not seen any need of it." "Well, if you comply with my wishes, your wife can once more be a member of the only true church."

At that time my husband was not at home. How very strange that he had the power to make my marriage legal, if it had been illegal without the presence of Mr. —

Now that is one way of picking up the lost sheep, and I do not think that the priest can pull the wool over my eyes any more. This is a free country, and if he calls again I am afraid that he will hear something that will not please him. Think of it one minute: a minister of the gospel, if you can call him such, going to a house and insulting people as that priest did me. Do you think he reads the Scripture and has ever read these words? "He that is without sin among you let him first cast a stone at her."

What C. A. Potter Says. OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 31, 1895.—The Howard Medicine Company: Gentlemen—I desire to say to all who feel the strength of their manhood slowly slipping away, whose ambition is at its lowest ebb, whose mind is beclouded, and the senses dulled, when you feel desyncetic, and lose your self-respect, that your blood is out of order, and all you need is some of Howard's Vegetone Blood Powder to tone up your system. It will act almost instantly upon the blood; you will feel the renewed life and vigor coursing through your system; you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as active as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel like a new being. I have not felt so well for five years as I do since taking one package of your Blood Powder, and I feel as strong and active as ever. I weigh 150 pounds more than ever in my life. The change is so marked that it is the subject of comment when meeting my friends. I recommend Howard's Vegetone Blood Powder to be, as I believe, the greatest blood-purifier on earth.
