The A. P. A. Principles With the Canon Law and Several Oaths of the Roman Catholic Church, and Then Judge for Yourself Which Have the True Spirit of Americanism in Them, the A. P. A. Principles or the Diabolical Obligations Taken by Rome's Minions.

A. P. A. Principles.

The following are the declarations of prinsigles adopted by the National Council of ion A. P. A. at DesMoines:

"Loyalty to true Americanism, which

"The American Protective Association is at party lines, because it believes that all other. bound solid by a conscientious discharge of ment the duties of citizenship by every individual

"While tolerant of all creeds, it holds that subjection and support to any political power ex-communicate him who grants liberty of set controlled by American chizens, and conscience. which claims equal if not greater sovereignty than the government of the United States, is breconcilable with American citizenship. It ia, therefore, opposed to the holding of offices in state or national government by any subfeet or supporter of such ecclesiastical

*We uphold the constitution of the United States of America, and no portion of it more than its guarantee of religious liberty, but we "wid this religious liberty to be guaranwere to the individual, and not to mean that under its protection any un-American ecclestartical power can claim any absolute conwol over the education of children, growing up under the stars and stripes.

We consider the non-sectarian free public school the bulwark of Americas institutions, the best place for the education of American shildren. To keep them such, we protest against the employment of subjects of any vn-American ecclesiastical power as officers teachers of our public schools

"We condemn the support out of the pubhe treasury by direct appropriation or by contract of any sectarian school, reform story or other institution not owned and controlled by public authority.

"Belleving that exemption from taxation is equivalent to a grant of public funds, we demand that no real or personal property be exempt from taxation, the title to which is not vested in the national or state governments, or in any of their sub-divisions.

"We protest against the enlistment in the United States army, navy, or the militia of any state, of any person not an actual citizen of the United States.

"We demand for the protection of our citison laborers the prohibition of the Importa-Mon of pauper labor, and the restriction of all immigration to persons who cannot show heir ability and honest intention to become alf-supporting Ameri an citizens.

"We demand the change of the naturalizaiden laws by a repeal of the act authorizing the naturalization of minors, without a previous declaration of intention, and by providing that no alien shall be naturalized or permitted to vote in any state in the union who cannot speak the language of the land. and who cannot prove seven years' consecu-Mys residence in this country from the date of his declaration of his intention.

"We protest against the gross negligene and laxity with which the judiciary of our lend administer the present naturalization laws, and against the practice of naturalizing allens at the expense of committees or sandidates as the mo.: prolific source of the present prostitution of American citizenship

We demand that all hospitals, asylums. seformatories, or other institutions in which people are under restraint, be at all times embject to public inspection, whe ther they are maintained by the public or h private corporations or individuals.

"We demand that all national tr state legislation affecting financial, comm relai or mdustrial interests be general in ci aracter and in no instance in favor of any one sec-Mon of the country, or any one class of the Oath of the Clan-na-Gael.

The following is the oath taken by the members of that famous Romish Catholic society:

"I (name in full) do solemnly swear in the resence of Almighty God, that I will labor while life is left in me to establish and de fend a republican form of government in Ireland; that I will keep secret the names and everything connected with the Irish brotherhood from all not entitled to know such secrets; that I will obey and comply with the constitution and laws of the same that I will preserve the funds of this order for the cause of Irish revolution alone as specified in the constitution; that I will promote and foster sentiments of unio brot) erly love, nationality, among all I take this obligation without any mental reservation, holding the same forever binding upon me, and that any violation thereof, or desertion of my duty to the brotherhood is infamous, and merits the verest punishment, so help me God."

This oath the candidate is abjured to keep at the hazzard of his life. It was printed in the Chicago Inter Ocean and was sworn to be correct at the Cronin trial. It was reported by said paper November 17, 1894. Priests and bishops act as chaplains for this holy (?) order.
