COMING, December 4th to 7th—FANNY RICE

CITY AND STATE

Mrs. Jacob Schamel is very sick with pneumonia.

Advertise your holiday goods in THE AMERICAN. It is sure to bring you good returns.

The trial of Morgan, the alleged murderer of Ida Gaskill, is now being conducted before Judge Scott in the criminal court.

Jerome Coulter has applied for a writ of habeas corpus. The application will be argued before Judge Scott at the close of the Morgan trial.

W. N. Whitney, the shoe-man, says business in his line was never better than it has been during the past week. He advertises in THE AMERICAN.

C. R. Davidson, the genial chief clerk in the passenger department of the Burlington, made flying trips to Chicago, Denver and Kansas City last week. He reports excellent prospects for business along the Burlington lines.

Robert Drummond, Jr., who has been book keeper for the Drummond Carriage Company for the past two years, has returned to his old home in Amesbury, Mass. While a resident in this city Mr. Drummond made many friends who will regret his departure.

The Chicago & Northwestern is making things hum with its new trains between Omaha and Chicago. You leave Omaha at 5:45 p. m. and you get to Chicago for breakfast at 8:45 the next morning. Other trains are equally as fast. City ticket office, 1401 Farnam street.

Professor W. Rich, father of Attorney Edson Rich, has just returned from a visit to his old home in Nemaha County. Professor Rich was for many years prominently identified with educational interests in Nebraska, and as an educator in the public schools he has no superior.

Mr. Wm. Schamel, living at 2401 Pierce street, who had been sick a few days with pneumonia, died Thanksgiving morning at the home of his brother, Mr. Jacob Schamel. The deceased was well and favorably known in this city. Mr. Schamel was 40 years 3 months and 28 days old, and had resided in Omaha fifteen years. He was buried Friday afternoon in Prospect Hill Cemetery, from the home of his brother. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. C. W. Savidge.

Mr. B. Holbrook, of the Lobeck Merchandise Company, returned from Blair

Wednesday, where he put in a new heating apparatus. He removed the entire apparatus of the old system, which has required from fifty to sixty tons of coal per year to run it, and Mr. Holbrook's judgment is they will now pass comfortably on twenty-five tons and this will heat every part of the intricate building. The new system is giving the best of satisfaction, and has set the entire town of Blair agog. This system has been in use in Omaha upward of three years, and is considered to be the embodiment of completeness, and parties having buildings to be heated and ventilated will find it to their advantage to confer with this heating and ventilating engineer.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Down in Dixie" will fill a four-night engagement at the Creighton Theatre, opening with the Sunday matinee, December 1. Its appearance here will be a very interesting event. No southern play has been more warmly received wherever seen. The famous pickaninny band will be heard here in the play, the boys not only rendering music but also appearing as jolly plantation darkeys, and doing a very effective zouave drill. "Down in Dixie" is a play possessing many attractive features. It is in turn tender, romantic, exciting, laughable. At all times it is picturesque. Southern life is realistically portrayed. An absorbingly interesting story is told. It is a love-story, of course, but a highly eventful one, abounding with plots and perils, escapes and rescues. Of the many thrilling scenes, one of the most stirring is that of the attempted murder of the young naval lieutenant by the rascally overseer and the blackmailer. They knock him down from behind and place his senseless body in a big cotton compress, then set fire to the warehouse where the compress is, and start the compress working. The descending press is within an inch of him when he is dragged forth to safety by the heroine of the play, who has broken through a window from the office in which she has been imprisoned. There are other incidents equally exciting. The love scenes are charming. The comedy of the piece is very droll. There are an old darkey and his wife, a grumbling old squire, and other characters that are full of natural humor. The scenery is superb.

The redoubtable agnostic and reasoner, Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Bible" at Boyd's Theatre to-morrow (Sunday) night. This is one of the most comprehensive themes which the colonel has ever treated, and it is said to be one of the most interesting. The sale of seats opened at 9 o'clock this morning.

America's bright and charming actress, Effie Ellsler, will be at Boyd's Theatre on Friday and Saturday of next week. The annual visit of Miss Ellsler to the city is a dramatic episode highly valued by our playgoers, for a more conscientious and thorough artist cannot be found on the stage to-day, and her supporting company never retrogrades from the excellent standard of that which has ever constituted her support. At this time Miss Ellsler will be seen in a magnificent production of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," and Alexander Dumas' "Camille." A prominent addition to the company is Mr. John A. Ellsler, who will direct the performances. Mr. Frank Weston will also appear in both bills. "Romeo and Juliet" is included in Miss Ellsler's repertoire. At the matinee beautiful souvenirs will be presented to the ladies.

The famous Original Bostonians will appear at Boyd's Theatre on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with the following repertoire: "Robin Hood," Monday evening and Saturday matinee; "Prince Ananias," Tuesday and Wednesday; "A War-Time Wedding," Thursday. All the old favorites will appear at each performance, and in the presentation of the new operas music lovers are promised some genuine surprises. "Prince Ananias" has found favor with all classes of theatregoers, with its sparkling numbers, and "A War-Time Wedding" reveals the versatile talents of Jessie Bartlett Davis as no other work has done.

Commencing Sunday evening, December 8, and continuing for three nights, the patrons of Boyd's Theatre will have the pleasure of seeing the only Eddle Foy and his excellent company in "Little Robinson Crusoe," which has made such a big hit in Chicago. The cast includes, among others, the clever little soubrette, Miss Alene Carter, late of the Henderson forces, who plays the part of Polly Perkins; Miss Esther Williams, in the part of Ophelia Crusoe; statuesque Adele Farrington as little Robinson Crusoe, who displays all the dash and vim which made Pauline Markham such a favorite in years gone by. Foy is seen in a character which suits him better than anything he has yet done. He plays the part of an amateur pirate, and is ably assisted by Mr. Henry Norman in the part of Tuffenuff, a "real" pirate. James E. Sullivan, who is directing the stage, is constantly at work improving the performance, as well as his part of Hockstein. As in De Poe's book, the parrot, the goat, Friday and the cannibals will be seen. These are especially adapted for the children, and should please the little ones. The engagement lasts for three nights.

Among others in the cast are the celebrated dancer, Mlle. Madeline Morazzo, Adele Verclles, Florence Holbrook, Dot Carter, Robert Corroll, Signor De Filippi, Henry Carter and others.

Elks' Memorial Services.

The annual memorial services of the Elks will occur at Boyd's Theatre on Sunday, December 1, at 2:30 p. m. The service promises to be one of unusual note. Several speakers of national reputation are expected to be present and make short addresses. Omaha Lodge, No. 39, extends a general invitation to the public, especially visiting Elks, to attend. Our Friends.

It has never been the policy of THE AMERICAN to write complimentary notices of the firms advertising in its columns, but it will depart from this time-honored custom and say a word in behalf of Dyalball's Palace of Sweets, which, without doubt, is the best place in the city to buy candies, bonbons, confections and ice cream. Mr. Dyalball has been so long in the business at that same old stand that people consider him a fixture; besides, he has established a reputation for making only the very best fruit-candies, chocolates, butter-scotch, baby-curds, glazed-nuts, chocolate nuggets, cream-wafers; burnt, salted and cream almonds, marsh-mallows and buttercrisps which are on the market to-day. We know, because we have sampled them. But the lines above mentioned are not Mr. Dyalball's specialties. Caramels are his specialties, and his caramels are simply the most delicious things you ever placed in your mouth. Try some of them when down town next time. And don't forget them when laying in your stock for the holidays. The little folks will appreciate them immensely. Out-of-town readers will find it to their advantage to write him for prices.

Robinson-Hanna.

The marriage of Mr. Richard Robinson and Miss Jane Hanna was celebrated at the home of the bride on North Thirty third street, Wednesday evening, Rev. C. H. Young officiating. Mr. Simon Robinson, Jr., acted as groomsmen and Miss Helen Robinson as bridesmaid, and the bride was given away by Mr. Simon Robinson, Sr. Promptly at 10 o'clock the word which made them one was pronounced by Rev. Young, which was a signal for the festivities to begin, and every one was bent on making the most of the occasion, and a more enjoyable evening was never spent at a wedding feast. Music and dancing were kept up till an early hour Thanksgiving morning. Among those present were Messrs. and Madames S. Robinson, Sr., Fobes, Huston, Rutter, Fisher, Cathroe, Madden, Hogarth, Sutherland, Church, McNeil, Maher, J. Robinson, Ford, Cornish; Messrs. William Robinson, Andrew Hutton, Boyle, J. L. Gillow, Hugh Robinson; Misses Lundeen, Laverty, Nora Murphy, Edith Robinson, Maggie Robinson. The presents were numerous and handsome. THE AMERICAN joins with the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them God-speed.

What C. A. Potter Says.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 31, 1895.—The Howard Medicine Company: Gentlemen—I desire to say to all who feel the strength of their manhood slowly slipping away, whose ambition is at its lowest ebb, whose mind is beclouded, and the senses dulled, when you feel dyspeptic, and lose your self-respect, that your blood is out of order, and all you need is some of Howard's Vegetone Blood Powder to tone up your system. It will act almost instantly upon the blood; you will feel the renewed life and vigor coursing through your system; you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as active as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel like a new being. I have not felt so well for five years as I do since taking one package of your Blood Powder, and I feel as strong and active as ever. I weigh 15 pounds more than ever in my life. The change is so marked that it is the subject of comment when meeting my friends. I recommend Howard's Vegetone Blood Powder to be, as I believe, the greatest blood-purifier on earth.
