

Catholic Organ's Views.

The Tablet, the recognized organ of the influential Roman Catholics, says: "There is danger lest in the natural resentment caused by the manner of President Cleveland's message we may overlook the sentiment and line of reasoning beneath, which so warmly recommend it to the ears of the American people. The Americans have seen how another continent has been parcelled out, how the doctrine of the Hinterland has been pressed, and how certain it is that all of the Old World's quarrels, rivalries, and frontier disputes will soon be reproduced upon the soil of Africa. The Monroe doctrine may not be a part of any code or international law, but it is a part of the settled policy of the United States, and that is within all the knowledge of the world." The Tablet expresses deep regret that Lord Salisbury and the Earl of Kimberly, when the latter was secretary of state for foreign affairs, refused to submit the whole Venezuelan question to arbitration. "It is irrelevant," the Tablet says, "to contend that our right to the territory within the Schomburg line is too clear for dispute, since the fact remains that it is disputed and has been disputed for years." Referring to the efforts of President Cleveland and Venezuela to secure the good offices of Pope Leo XIII. and the pope's willingness to act in the capacity of arbitrator, the Tablet says: "The decision of such an arbitrator would have been gladly accepted as final by Venezuela, while our own government, if they had the instinct of statesmen, would have welcomed an honorable and dignified way out of a difficulty which now threatens us with the most hideous calamity which can possibly befall either branch of the race."

Manitoba's Educational Question.

Local autonomy, as we understand the term on this side of the line, does not exist in Canada. If a state prefers a non-sectarian system, it has no recourse except in a long-drawn wrangle, the disturbance of the educational public peace, and rebellion against the Dominion government. The Manitoba government, in the current conflict with the Dominion, proposes to appeal to the people at an election next month, but even if the election results in a triumph for Premier Greenway, the Dominion, by virtue of its own medieval principles, is bound to coerce the Manitobans and force upon them the most obnoxious phase of interference by the church with the state. Judging from the spirit and temper of the Manitoba people, they are not likely to be blinded or misled by these obtrusive medieval guides. The Dominion government proposes to undertake this extraordinary course of coercion in behalf of a beggarly minority of the people who represent the most unprogressive element in the Dominion. The probability is that the Dominion government will find itself confronting a stone wall. If it attempts coercion to please the little Frenchmen of Quebec, it is doubtful if Ontario will be a very active promoter of the retroactive process. There is something else to be consulted besides the prejudices and caprices of the Quebec Frenchmen. The Manitobans want a modern educational system in vogue, and they believe if anybody wants religious instruction in his daily curriculum he should pay for it outside the public-school system. If it isn't worth paying for, it isn't worth putting on the curriculum. The election next month should be so decisive and overwhelming that the intention of the Manitobans should not be mistaken. Then we shall see if the Dominion government has the "sand" to draw the sword.—Minneapolis Journal.

House Committees.

Speaker Reed sent to the United States Congress last Saturday the full list of committees—two of the most important chairmanships of which come to New England, viz., Dingley, ways and means, and Walker, banking and currency. Morse is made chairman on liquor traffic; Boutelle, of Maine, on naval affairs. The committee on immigration and naturalization is composed of six Republicans and four Democrats, none of whom are well known. Romanists are on the following committees: Tarsney, on ways and means; Fitzgerald and Crowley, on marine and fisheries; Connolly, on judiciary; Mahoney and Murphy, on postoffices; Maguire, on elections; Tarsney, on military affairs; Noonan, on interstate commerce; Murphy, on agriculture; Flynn, on Indian affairs; Mahone, Hurley and Fitzgerald, on war claims; Flynn, on public lands; Murphy, on territories; and a few others on the smaller committees—but not one of them, we believe, has a chairmanship.—Boston Citizen.

An Ex-Policeman in Trouble.

Not being contented with calling Mrs. Flora Baxter, a widow living at 419 Cherry street, Kansas City, an A. P. A., it is asserted that ex-Patrolman Michael McMinamin, recently discharged from the police force for drunkenness, pitched meat bones and other missiles through the window of her abode. It is further claimed that the ex-officer called Mrs. Baxter other names and disturbed her peace and tranquillity with threats. The transaction was partially aired in police court yesterday, and at McMinamin's request the hearing was continued for a few days to give him a chance to produce witnesses. Judge Jones warned McMinamin not to make any overtures to the woman regarding a compromise of the case.—Exchange.
