ORANGE PRINCIPLES.

On behalf of the Loval Orange Lodge of the United States of America, and with a view of correcting the false impression that enemies are endeavoring to convey to the minds of men who are unacquainted with Orange principles, are these few statements

The Loyal Orange Institution is a brother bood and sisterhood, bound by three ties-Justice, Truth and Righteousness. It has no hidden aims

It is Fraternal and Benevolent-assisting and protecting members while living and their widows and orphans when they are removed by death.

It upholds the right of private judgmentthe untrammelled freedom of opinion; be-lieves the public schools are an essential safeguard of the state, and should be kept free from ecclesiastical or sectarian contro and that persons disloyal to the government -who hold a mental allegiance to the pope of Rome-should be rigorously excluded from teaching therein.

It believes primary allegiance is due to the government which protects the lives. liberties and properties of its citizens, and that ecclesiastical authority should not under any circumstances, be permitted to meddle in the affairs of state, and that coercion of a citizen in the exercise of his or her right of franchise, under the guise of religtous or spiritual authority should be punished as a crime against the state.

That it is the duty of every citisen to defend the lawfully constituted authority and institutions of our country against corrupt and inimical influences, as well as against armed assailants, to the end that our glorious freedom be protected and transmitted unimpaired to posterity.

It encourages habits of frugality and in dustry among its members, and is proud to boast that Orangemen seldom become a public charge or accept pauper bread.

It believes in the restriction of immigra tions "d the extension of time for the naturalign on of citizens, and that the public and shall be held for actual American citizens who become settlers.

The Loyal Orange Institution of the United States of America has certain requirements for membership:

That a man shall be an actual American citizen, having complied with the laws of the United States with regard to naturalization. and without a mental reservation. That the applicant shall be a Protestant, and also that his parents and wife shall be Protestants. That he shall be thrifty and successful in his business; honorable and truthful in his dealings with his fellowman, and shall be knows as a law-abiding citizen. That he will endeavor to give his children or anychildren under his charge at least a good common school education, being careful to avoid all popish doctrines, and That he shall be in sound health at the

It makes no difference where a man was born, so long as he meets the foregoin requirements

These are the qualifications required every applicant to the order, and we do not think that any patriotic American order can offer a better array of principles and teach
