CITY AND STATE

The John L. Webster Republican club had another good meeting Thursday select state officers will be held in Lincoln July 1st.

The Willow Springs Distillery has left the trust and will hereafter be operated by an independent compay.

Daniel Morn has sued his wife for a divorce. Reason: She was lavishing her affections upon one Ed. Jackson.

The ladies of St. Agnes Roman Catholic Church, of South Omaha, gave a supper for the benefit of their church Wednesday evening.

The Honest Money Democratic State convention met, Wednerday, at Beatrice and chose Tobias Castor, W. A. and two lesser lights as delegates to the Chicago convention.

E. Gilmore has been appointed state weighmaster by the board of transportation. He will be located in Omaha. The selection is a good one, and reflects great credit upon the board.

Many Omaha citizens were heavy losers by the second fire in Cripple Creek, which occurred Wednesday and resulted in the destruction of the rest of the business portion of the town.

Rev. W. P. Murray will deliver i lecture Sunday evening, May 3, at 8 o'clock, at Hanscom Park M. E. Church, corner 29th and Woolworth avenue. Subject: "Freemasonry." Everybody invited.

The Steetzel Stove Co. are having a run on Dangler's New Gasoline Stoves. The "Gem" is a great invention, and been using right and left and are buying the "Gem."

The American voter should not forget the regular meeting of the Central Republican Club next Thursday evening in Washington Hall. A number of candidates for congress and for state speak from an American standpoint.

The John M. Thurston Young Men's Republican club had a very lively meeting at its rooms in the Patterson block Wednesday evening. It was discussing the Crawford System of voting for candidates for a nomination. The discussion will be continued next Wednesday evening.

Prof. W. F. Jamieson, one of Colorado's brilliant orators, will deliver one nostic's position in a most forcible manof his best and most popular lectures, Farnam Streets, under the auspices of the Omaha Philosophical Society. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Tickets 25 cents; ladies free.

Next Friday night the arrangement committee of the Northwestern Scandinavian Singer's Association will give a grand concert in Creighton Theatre. The proceeds from this concert will be used to defray the necessary expenses in arranging for the accommodation and entertainment of the 1,000 singers who will be here in uniform, to attend the Northwestern Scandinavian Singers' Association. Our citizens should help them by patronizing their concert liberally.

Mr. R. H. Walker, one of the bestknown citizens of Omaha, died at his home in this city on Saturday, April 25, 1896, of Bright's disease. He had been failing ih health for two years, growing weaker every day, but never found it necessary to go to bed until the Thursday before his death. The funeral occurred Monday, and was under the direction of the Masonic order. The G. A. R. attended in a body, and witnessed the interment at Prospect Hill. Mr. Walker leaves a wife and one son to mourn his demise, who will have the sympathy of a large number of our citizens.

News comes to us from St. Joseph Mo., that our old friend, Dr. G. A. Fiegenbaum, one of the charter members and the first vice-President of A. P. A. Council No. 5, of Omaha, died in that city on April 27th, after operation to provide an external opening by which to introduce food into the stomach-the resophagus having been constricted and finally entirely closed by causes which baffled all medical science to ascertain or relieve until the post mortem examination revealed the presence of two malignant fibraid tumors, one at each extremity of the asophagus, which had grown so as to close it entirely and were not accessible to an operation and no treatment could have relieved him. Death resulted in 24 hours after. He leaves a wife and two children. Friend Fiegenbaum was well and favorably known in this city, having practiced medicine here a number of years. He enlisted early in the American movement and was ardent in its support to the time of his death. The burial casket was draped in the patriotic colors he loved so well. -among them a large handsome flag presented by him to his favorite nephew on the day the latter attained his majority. He was a man, and a patriot. Peace to his ashes.

AMUSEMENTS.

Clay Clement is announced for a return engagement at the Creighton for two nights, commencing Tuesday, May 5th. He will again appear in his great character creation of the Baron Hohenstauffen in "The New Dominion." Mr. Clement modestly calls his clever comedy "a character study in four acts." The scenes of the play are laid in Vir-The Republican State convention to ginia, and it tells a wholesome love story in a charming manner. The comedy element is supplied chiefly by the Baron's struggle with the English language, and here Mr. Clement literally obeys the command and holds up the mirror to nature, giving us in his characterization of the Baron a portrayal of the real German. A matinee will be given Wednesday.

Scharwenka, the great Polish planist will give one of his wonderful concerts at Boyd's Theatre on Monday evening sext, presenting a program of much excellence. Among the higher class of musicians Scharwenka is known as much for his musical works as for his people are disposing of what they have ability as an artist, and in fact his fame in the direction of a creator in the nusic world has preceded him here. Many people from out of town have purchased tickets for the Scharwenka concert, and the indications are that he will appear before a crowded house on Monday night. The sale of seats opened offices are expected to be present and this morning at 9 o'clock, the prices ranging from twenty-five cents to one

The renowned orator, agnostic and logician, Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, will deliver his latest lecture, entitled "The Foundations of Faith," at Boyd's Theatre on Tuesday evening next. The eastern press have pronounced this the greatest effort that the Colonel has yet given to the public. It defines the agner, and is one of his most eloquent ad-"Is the New Testament Friendly to the dresses. The sale of seats for the Inon Sunday evening, May 3, at gersoll lecture will open at 9 o'clock it, in Patterson hall, 17th and Monday morning, and the prices for seats will be $1 each on the first floor, and fifty and seventy-five cents for the balcony.

> One of the greatest fun makers that pays Omaha annual visits, is Peter F. Daily, and for three days commencing Sunday, May 10th, he, and a company of unusually clever people will present the new comedy, "The Night Clerk," at Boyd's Theatre.

Mme. Hortense Rhea will play her annual engagement at Boyd's Theatre on May 17, 18 and 19, presenting a new state play. Mme. Rhea has had a most successful season.

M. B. Curtis presents the new "Sam" of Posen" at Boyd's Theatre next week.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

To Seth K. Humphrey and William Campbell, doing business as William Campbell & Company, non-resident defendants:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 25th day of April. 1896, Elizabeth H. Abbott, plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Douglas county, Nebraska, against you, impleaded with Albert M. Clark, Frank Colley, C. E. Redwell, first real name unknows, and Alfred Conner, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose three certain real estate mortgages executed on the 2th day of May, 1892, by Albert M. Clark, to secure the payment of his three certain promissory notes of even date therewith, upon the following described property situate in Douglas county, Nebraska, to-wit:

The first of said mortgages being upon a tract or parcel of land described as follows: Beginning at a point sixty-seven (67) feet south of the northeast corner of lot four (4) in block ten (10), West Omaha, an addition to the city of Omaha, as surveyed platted and recorded, thence west eighty-five (85) feet, thence south sixty (60) feet, thence east eighty-five (85) feet, thence north sixty (60) feet to the place of beginning. Said mortgage was given to secure the payment of his said promissory note of even date therewith for the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($250.00) due and payable May 1, 1897. There is now due and payable May 1, 1897. There is now due and payable on said note the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($250.00) due and payable was 1, 1897. There is now due and payable was given to secure payment of his promissory note of even date therewith for the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($250.00) due to the place of beginning, which mortgage was given to secure payment of his promissory note of even date therewith for the sum of twenty-six hundred dollars ($250.00). That there is now due and payable ($250.00). That there is now due and payable feet to the place of beginning, which mortgage was given to secure payment of his promissory note of even date therewith for the sum of twenty-six hundred dollars ($2000.00). That there is now due and payable thereon the sum of twenty-six hundred dollars ($2000.00). With interest at ten (10) per cent per annum from May 1, 1895. The third of said mortgages was upon property described as follows: Bezinning at the southwest corner of said lot four (a) in block ten (10) in said West Omaha Addition, thence north one hundred twenty (120) feet, thence east eighty (80) feet, thence south one hundred twenty (120) feet thence east eighty (80) feet to the place of beginning, which mortgage was given to secure the payment of his promissory note of even date therewith for

the sum of three thousand dollars ($3.000.00).
That there is now due and payable thereon
the sum of three thousand dollars ($3.000.00), with interest thereon at ten (10) per cent per annum from the lst day of May, 1895, for which several sums with interest at ten (10) per cent from May I, 1895, plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendants pay the same,
and that in default of such payment said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due. That each of said mortgages were afterwards sold, assigned and delivered to the plaintiff, who is now the owner and holder thereof.

You are further notified that on the 9th day of June, 1895. I will apple to the paid to the plaintiff, who is now the owner and holder thereof.

You are further notified that on the 9th day of June, 1896, I will apply to the said court for the appointment of a Receiver, to collect the reats and profits arising from said property during the pendency of said suit, upon the grounds that each of said tracts or parcels of land is insufficient to pay the mortgage debt, that the same is being wasted, and that the parties who are personally liable for the payment of said several sums are each of them insolvent.

I propose the name of Bryce Crawford for such Receiver, and offer as sureties for him the names or W. H. Russell and O. C. Olsen, and also offer them as sureties for myself. I will support such application by the affi-davits of M. J. Kennard, W. H. Russell, G. H. Payne, H. H. Harder, W. H. Gates and George N. Hicks.

You are required to answer said petition

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 8th day of June, 1896. Dated at Omaha, Nebraska, this 25th day of April, 1896.

Read the following convinctestimonial from two prominent Omaha Citizens: prominent Omaha Citizens:

Judge Isaac S. Hascall and R. F. Williams have this to say. We consider Dr. C. Gee Wo of 519 North 16th St.. Omaha, Nob., one of the best physicians in the city for the following reasons: Four years ago our daughter became very nervous and at times sick and unable to control herself. We doctored with and consulted nine of the leading physicians of this city, but she gradually grew worse, until on the 7th of October, 1896, she was at tacked with spasms. She was unconclous and delirious for weeks following the attack, and at a consultation of physicians they agreed that she could not get well. We then employed Dr. C. Gee Wo, and the patient began to improve at once, and in a remarkably short time was up. She is feeling better than she has for a long time. She is improving every day and bids fair to get entirely well.

I then called in Dr. C. Gee Wo, and in less than 24 hours they were out of danger. He slso cured myself of Lagripp and general debility, and my wife of inflammation of the cowels and female weakness, from which she had suffered many years. I can't thank him enough for what he has done in my family.
