The following are the declarations of principles adopted by the National Council of the A. P. A. at Des Moines.

"Loyalty to true Americanism, which knows neither birth, place, race, creed, nor party, is the first requirement for membership in the American Protective Association.

"The American Protective Association is not a political party, and does not continue to the control of the control

"The American Protective Association is not a political party, and does not control the political affiliations of its members; but it teaches them to be intensely active in the discharge of their political duties in or out of party lines, because it believes that all problems confronting our people will be bound solid by a consetsatious discharge of the duties of catternship by every individual.

"While tolerant of all creeds, it holds that subjection and support to any political power not controlled by American catterns, and which claims equal if not greater sovereignty than the government of the United States, is irreconcilable with American citizenship. It is, therefore opposed to the holding of offices in state or national government by any subject or supporter of such ecclesiastical power.

state or national government by any subject or supporter of such ecclesiastical power.

"We uphold the constitution of the United States of America and no portion of it more than its guarantee of religious liberty, but we hold this religious liberty to be guaranteed to the individual, and not to mean that under its protection any un-American ecclesiastical power can claim any absolute control over the education of children, growing up under the stars and stripes.

"We consider the non-sectarian free public school the bulwark of American institutions, the best place for the education of American children. To keep them such, we protest against the employment of subjects, of any un-American ecclesiastical power as officers or teachers of our public schools.

"We condemn the support out of the public treasury by direct appropriation or by contract of any sectarian school, reformatory or other institution not owned and controlled by public authority.

"Believing that exemption from taxation is equivalent to a grant of public funds, we demand that no real or personal property be exempt from taxation, the title to which is not vested in the national or state governments, or in any of their sub-divisions.

funds, we demand that no real or personal property be exempt from taxation, the title to which is not vested in the national or state go; eraments, or in any of their sub-divisions.

"We protest against the enlistment in the United States army, navy, or the militia of any state, of any person not an actual citizen of the United States.

"We demand for the protection of our citizen laborers the prohibition of the importation of pauper labor, and the restriction of all immigration to persons who cannot show their ability and honest intention to become self-supporting American citizens.

"We demand the change of the natural-thorizing the naturalization of minors, without a previous declaration of intention, and by providing that no alien shall be naturalized or permitted to vote in any state in the union who cannot speak the language of the land, and who cannot prove seven years' consecutive residence in this country from the date of his declaration of intention.

"We protest against the gross negligence and laxity with which the judiciary of our land administer the present naturalization laws, and against the practice of naturalizing aliens at the expense of committees or candidates as the most prolific source of the present naturalization of American citizenship to the basest uses.

"We demand that hospitals, asylums, reformatories, or other institutions in which people are under restraint, be at all times subject to public inspection, whether they are maintained by the public or by private corporations or individuals.

"We demand that all national or state legislation affecting financial, commeruals.

"We demand that all national or state legislation affecting financial, commer-cial or industrial interests be general in character and in no instance in favor of any one section of the country, or any one class of the people."

CANNON LAW.

1. The constitutions of princes are not superior, but subordinate to ecclesiastical constitutions.

2. The laws of the emperor cannot dissolve the ecclesiastical or cannon laws.

3. It is not lawful for an emperor to exact anything opposed to the apostolic rules.

exact anything opposed to the apostolic rules.

4. It is not lawful for kings to usurp the things that belong to priests.

5. No custom of anyone can thwart the statutes of the popes.

6. Let no resistance be offered to the apostolic (cannon) precepts, but let them be salutiferiously fulfilled.

7. The yoke imposed by the holy see is to be borne, though it appear intolerable and insupportable.

8. The Pontiff can neither be loosed nor bound by the secular power.

9. That the Pontiff was called God by the pious Prince Constantine, and that as God he cannot be judged as man.

10. That as God he is far above the reach of all human law and judgment.

11. That all laws contrary to the canons and decrees of the Roman prelates are of no force.

12. That all of the ordinances of the Pope are unhesitatingly to be obeyed.

13. We ought not even to speak to one whom the Pope has ex-communicated.

14. Priests are fathers and masters, even of princes.

15. The civil law is derived from man, but the ecclesiastical or canon law is derived directly from God, by which the Pontiff can, in connection with his prelates, make constitutions for the whole Christian world, in matters spiritual, concerning the salvation of souls, and the right government of the church; and if necessary judge and dispose of all the temporal goods of all Christians.

16. A heretic, holding or teaching false doctrine concerning the sacraments, is excommunicated and degraded, and handed over to the seculiar court.

17. Secular princes unwilling to swear to defend the church against heretics are excommunicated, and they are laid under an interdict.

18. The goods of hertics are to be confiscated and applied to the church.

24. We do not esteem those homicides to whom it may have happened in their zeal for their mother church against the excommunicated, to kill some of them. 25. The Catholic princes are bound, both by civil and common law, not to receive or tolerate heretics, and much more are not to permit their rites, or other exercise of their religion, or rather, their false sect, but are most solemnly bound everywhere, to repel and expel them.

26. The following temporal punishments are to be enforced on heretics: ist — Infamy, and the consequent disqualifications for all civil acts. 2nd—Intestability, as well active as passive (that is, they can neither make nor will inherit what is left to them by others). 3rd—Loss of parental power over children. 4th—Loss of parental power over children. 4th—Loss of dowry, and other privileges granted to women. 5th—Confiscation of all goods. 6th—That vassals and slaves and others are from all, even sworn obligations due to their lord, or another. 7th—Capital corporal punishment, especially death, and perpetual imprisonment.

THE FENIAN'S OATH.

"I swear by almighty God, by all in heaven and earth, by the holy prayerbook of my holy church, by the biessed Virgin Mary mother of God, by her tears and wallings, by the holy apostles St. Peter and Paul, by the giorious apostle of Ireland—St. Patrick—by the biessed and holy church of all ages, by the holy national martyrs, to fight upon the Irish soil, to fight for the independence of Ireland—to light until I die, wading in the red gore of the Sassenach (Protestant) for the glorious cause of nationality; to fight until not a single vestige, track or footstep, is left to tell that the holy soil of Ireland was ever trodden by the Sassenach tyrants and murderers; and, moreover, when the Protestant robbers and brutes in Ireland shall be murdered and driven into the sea like the swine our Lord Jesus Christ caused to be drowned, then we shall embark for, and take England, and root out every vestige of the accursed blood of the heretic adulterer, Henry VIII., and possess ourselves of the beasts who have so long kept our island of saints—Old Ireland—in the chains of bondage, driven us from her shores, exiles into foreign lands. I will wade in the blood of Orangemen and heretics (Protestants) who do not join us and become ourselves.

Scotland too, having given aid and succort to the beast, we shall live in her gore. We shall not give up until we have restored our holy faith all over the British Isles.

To all of this I sincerely and conscient

In confirmation of which I hereby dedicate my life, my soul and all corporal powers, and with this dagger which I now receive, I will subscribe my name, written in my blood, in testimony thereof; and should I prove false or weaken in my determination, may my brethern and fellow soldiers of the militia of the pope cut off my hands and my feet, and my throat from ear to ear, my belly opened and sulphur burned therein, with all the
