As we are by nature subject to many diseases, the only way to guard against all stampedes on our health is to make a study of our own physical self.

If a peculiar pain attacks you, try to locate its origin and discover which organ of the body is sick and in need of attention.

If the kidneys are at fault—and in almost every case in the failing of our health they are—look well to their restoration to health and strength.

They are the great filters of our body, and consequently, the purity of the blood is entirely dependent on their cleansing powers.

If the kidneys are not in a perfectly clean and healthy condition, the blood becomes impregnated with impurities and a decay of the kidneys soon takes place. If your desire to relieve yourself of water increases, and you find it necessary to arise many times during sleeping hours, your kidneys are sick. As they reach a more unhealthy stage, a scalding and irritation takes place as the water flows, and pain or dull ache in the back makes you miserable. If the water, when allowed to remain undisturbed for twenty-four hours, forms a settling or sediment, you are in the grasp of most serious kidney or bladder disorder.

If neglected now the disease advances until the face looks pale or sallow, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, the feet swell, and sometimes the heart acts badly.

There is no more serious menace to health and strength than any derangement of the kidneys.

Swamp-Root is the great discovery of Dr. Kilmer, the eminent physician and specialist, and will be found just what is needed in cases of kidney and bladder disorders and Uric Acid troubles due to weak kidneys, such as catarrh of the bladder, gravel, rheumatism and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney disease.

It corrects inability to hold water and promptly overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and to get up many times during the night.

The mild and extraordinary effect of this great remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures, and is sold by druggists in fifty cent and one dollar bottles.

So universally successful is Swamp-Root in quickly curing even the most distressing cases, that may prove its wonderful merits you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to write for a sample bottle and to kindly mention The Omaha American when sending their address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

PINGREE'S PLAN.

much easier asked than answered, but all national reformers can answer in their own minds, and they can also give an expression of their intentions in the future.

I am not anxious which class of reformers shall be first in taking the preliminary steps to organize the proposed union party of national reform, but I am anxious with many thousands of others that all might begin at once to lay their plans and to put them into execution which will eventuate in an early formation and successful triumph of the united reform forces in the near future. Neither am I anxious that the plan of reform that I have so imperfectly presented should be followed as the best that can be devised, but I am exceedingly anxious that this or a better plan should be speedily adopted and executed by wise leaders with all possible dispatch, so as to be ready for the next fall elections and to secure a national triumph of the union party in 1900. And let all national reformers and all lovers of home and country say Amen.

A WORD TO POLITICAL REFORMERS.

I wish to now address myself to three classes of political reformers, the anti-Romanists, the anti-saloons and the anti-monopolists, each of which are very sanguine as to the superior importance of its principles and in the belief that it should triumph first in national politics. But neither branch of these reforms is represented by a political party that has the power of itself alone to accomplish the much desired object at present at least. And during all the time in which these reforms have been in existence, the papal power in politics, the licensed saloon and monopoly have been increasing in strength and power in the nation; therefore, it does seem to me that you as reformers must see by this time the necessity of a change in your plan of political operations in order to successfully antagonize and overcome the national evils referred to.

Notice now the different classes of reformers and their work. The anti-saloons are represented largely by the Anti-Saloon League which is a non-partisan organization gathering its supporters from nearly all political parties and from the churches, the main object of which is to elect to office the best anti-saloon men from any party and thereby to work and vote against licensed saloons. This league is very popular in the churches, especially in the Methodist Episcopal Church, being recognized by its general conference and having an organization in nearly all the annual conferences, commanding a large following of good citizens both of the church and ministry. And the Prohibition and Liberty parties are all right on the anti-saloon issue and are doing their best in that direction.

The anti-Romanist reform has also a very large following, extending probably into the millions. It is a non-partisan organization, receiving its support from citizens of all political parties, delivering fearlessly its patriotic principles everywhere and electing to office as many as possible through the old parties. And the anti-monopolists are found in many places and are non-partisan in their work with the exception of those represented by the Liberty party, which is both anti-monopoly and anti-saloon in politics.

The foregoing references to the different classes of reformers and their work, show very clearly under what disadvantages you, my dear reformers, are laboring when contending against a well united three-fold enemy in national politics, the licensed saloon system, the papal power and monopoly. I do not see how you can help knowing the weakness of your present position as reformers, if you will take the matter into serious consideration, especially when you come to realize that you have been working and voting for only one branch of reform, while the three great branches of national evils now under consideration are so linked together and inseparable that they must stand or fall together.

Now then, I come to the point where I urge you, my brothers, in these reforms to come together. I would not doubt your intelligence nor honesty, nor would I appear dictatorial, but I would in the fullness of my soul urge, entreat and beseech you for your own sake, for your country's sake and for God's sake, to come together as reformers, to understand the nature and destructive influence of these great national evils alluded to and come to the rescue with a united reform ballot, making these three reform issues your combined and united political party issue at the polls.

Right here is a difficulty in the minds of some of these reformers. The anti-saloon leagues say that they are opposed to making their reform a political party issue. Yes; but if you have reason to believe that in voting with the allied reformers you could soon put an end to the whole saloon business you would, I verily believe unite with it in a body on the first call. But you say that the drink question is your dominant issue. Very well, no matter for that, but at the same time you believe that it is not right for the pope to rule this country, nor for monopolists to oppress the laboring man, therefore, you would cheerfully vote the united ticket.

You A. P. A.'s or patriotic Americans and your friends say that the papal question is your dominant issue in politics. All right, have it so; but you believe that the licensed saloon system is wrong and a curse to the country, and also that monopoly in business is oppressive and wrong, therefore I think you would favor a united reform ballot. And you anti-monopolists will say also that your dominant issue is the money question and equality between labor and capital. Nobody will object to that, for you have a perfect right to do so, but at the same time you would cheerfully give your vote on a united reform ticket against papal rule and the licensed saloon. Hence, all these reformers, while they retain their own preferences as to what they consider their respective dominant issue in politics, they must of course pledge themselves upon their word and honor that they will honestly and cheerfully cast their ballot against the allied forces of national evils under consideration, which are now arrayed against good government and even the very life of the Republic.

At this juncture of political affairs in this country to which the different classes of reformers are supposed to have arrived by mutual correspondence, personal consultation and local conferences, let a national convention be called in the summer of the present year (1898) for the purpose of organizing a great National Union party with a suitable platform of principles, embodying the great reform issues against political papacy, licensed saloon system and monopoly. With such a Union party, well organized and wisely conducted, put in operation in time for the fall elections of the present year, there could be no reasonable doubt but it will sweep the country in the next presidential election in 1900. Shall we have such a Union party and win by the ballot, or shall we refuse to unite as reformers; lose our golden opportunity and suffer the sad results of our folly?

SHARPENED SWORDS.

BY H. W. BOWMAN.

Popes are Policy men.
Priests grow rich by fraud.
Opposing Rome is a proof of principle.

There can be no real love for America when the pope is the ruler.

All papists are bigoted no matter how liberal they may make out to be.

Rome makes it a religious duty to oppose the public schools.

Rome finds slander a better weapon than a bowie knife.

Those who would lead men to oppose Rome must look up her record.

It takes patriotism to stand out against papal tyranny.

One of Rome's best hiding places is behind a pile of money.

Take up any of your great world problems today and you will find the pope has his finger in the pie.

There isn't much patriotism in the heart of the man who aids Rome in gaining power in this country.

The best remedy for national apathy is to let Rome introduce some of her old methods of persecution.

The papal praising college professor is one of the pope's best workers in this country.

It is much easier to be contented with party pandering to Romanism than to steadfastly oppose it.

A narrow headed bigot is the pope's idea of a first class man. Thinkers always give the pope's trouble.

Where the public school sows one grain of patriotism the parochial sows ten tare seeds of treason.

The man who lives only for himself is always opposed to reform measures.

When a man has a heart big enough to love all mankind without respect to creed, he is too good for the pope.

The politician who is always on the hunt for votes instead of feeling the patriotic pulse will never fight political corruption.

No man is living up to his political duties who fails to oppose the enemies of national peace, purity and prosperity.

The man who praises Martin Luther and courts Gibbons or Ireland is a huge humbug.

Some preachers never think it is worth while to be a true Protestant in the pulpit.

It is the Protestantism which fights Rome's errors against which the devil buris his investives the hardest.

Keep yourself well posted on Rome's latest movements and you can help check her fatal progress.
