Coon Rapids, Ia., June 21 .- Editor AMERICAN: - With this I enclose a copy of an anonymous letter received by W. Bean of this place, a Son of Veteran, an A. P. A. and a member of the O U. A. M. At his request I send the copy to you to make a note of. I would have preferred sending the original letter instead of the copy, but he was afraid it would get lost. I also send you a copy of the Coon Rapids Enterprise containing an article which I have marked and which I will explain. The Rev. McCaffrey, in the commencement of war urged his people to not take up arms against their "Sister country, but instead to take up arms against the United States," telling them this from the pulpit two Sundays in succession, which caused a rupture in the Catholic church at this place, some of the members cursing the priest for his treachery, and which roused the indignation of our American citizens until it began to look somewhat threatening for the priest, hence the little article printed in the Enterprise. But let me say very few swallowed the pill but are watching with distrust all actions of the priest and his ilk, and, should he become too active, have a remedy ready to cool his patriotism for
