If you will read the whole book of Daniel you will find the general discription of the beasts tailies with the description of the beast in R. valstion, and leaves no room to doubt that he who would think to change God's law the action of the dragon.

Many of you may continue to observe Sunday as the Sabbath, but from today the responsibility of choosing between the traditions of men and the commandments of God rests wholly with each individual who reads this article. I President, M. Cambon and Secretary have done my duty. If you continue to disobey God's law, and permit yourself to be deceived by the traditions of men into following after the beast you will have to take the consequences.

We have shown that the beast of Revelation is the Roman Catholic church, referred to as the mother of hariots and as Babylon the Great with whom the nations of the earth have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornications. It is this Babylon the Great which has set up Sunday the first day of the we k as the Sabbath, and as nearly all the other churches sprang from her it is but natural they should inherit some of her errors.

John said he heard a voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues." Will you listen to that appeal from God and come out of Baby-You are in her if you follow her traditions and disobey God's command ments, whether you are enrolled as a member of her communion or not.

Our Terms of Peace Have Been Technically Agreed To.

The Enemy's Questions Considered No. core and Proper by the Administration -M. Cambon Realises That There is No Forther Chance for Happing.

Washington, Aug. b. The United States government is now waiting to hear again from Spain, and this time it is expected the answer will be final | cards while traveling at the rate of 50 would be the same p wer that John The President has firmly declined the car attain to great authority through carnest appeal of the French ambassa dor to modify America's demanda, except in slight and comparatively unimportant respects. There is no doubt that the peace negotiations are progressing to the entire satisfaction of the President and the members of the

> The conference yesterday afternoon at the White house, in which the Day participated, was devoted almost entirely to a discussion of details which are regarded by the President shows that the Jesuits were the cause as unimportant, and hence the requests of the French ambassador, for the most part, will be acceded to. One of these was that the commission to be appointed to settle the terms of peace shall meet outside of the United States and preferably in The Madrid government France. through M. Cambon, propounded a number of questions as to the time when Spain would be expected to evac uate Cuba and the territory to be ceded to the United States, and as to what provision would be made by the of the Spanish subjects. M. Cambon at home. was informed upon all of these points presumably to his satisfaction.

NOT QUITE CLEAR TO SPAIN.

There is one point, however, which the Spanish authorities, judging from their communication to their representative here, fail to fully comprehend, and Secretary Day's call upon the am. mail. Do not delay. bassador last night was for the purpose, principally, of making perfectly clear this one point, which was that evacuation of Cuba, Rico and one of the Ladrone islands to be selected by the United States and the permanent cession to this government of all these islands except Cuba, was made a condition precedent to all peace negotiations, and that not until these terms had been fully complied with would this government consent to entertain any peace propositions whatever.

It was midnight before the conces sions of the President regarding the meeting place of the peace commissioners were communicated to the Madrid authorities, so that allowing for the difference in time it was impossible for an answer to be received this morning. However, it is announced that the delay will not be long, probably at most not that the answer, when it comes, acceptance of the terms as they now stand. There does not seem to be oceasion for further prolonged consideration in Madrid before making this reply, inasmuch as the propositions that confront the Spanish cabinet are practically the same as those with which they dealt at the prolonged meetings last Sunday and Monday.

The French embassador was not disappointed at the result of his meeting with the President. He realized that the Spanish plea for an abatement of the conditions would be useless so far as they touched the vital points of the demand. But the ambassador felt that it was his duty, regardless of his personal convictions, to lay the plea of the Spanish government before the President and that is what yesterday's meeting amounted to. Something has been said about an effort upon the part of the Spanish government to secure some guarantee from the government that the lives and property of Spanish citizens in conquered territory shall be cared for. The idea of the administration is that no such pledge or guarantee is necessary. Assuming Every fact is an antidote for some sovereignty over conquered territory and exercising it either through civil administration, as will be the case with Porto Rico in the end, or through military governorship, as will be the case in Cuba for an indefinite time, the United States assumes a strict obligation to protect the lives, interests and property of all citizens of all neutral nations, and it must be remembered that when a treaty of peace is signed the citizens of Spain, now enemies, will fall in that category.
