Washington, D. C., Aug. 9 .- President McKinley: Dear Sir .- How long will it take you to comprehend Span ish Roman Catholic character? Some thought the blowing up of the Maine with the instantaneous and most disbolical murder of some bundreds of brave but unsuspecting American seamen would open your understanding so wide that you would not be likely to be imposed upon again for a whole year but we have been mistaken. The archbishop of Manila begs the pope to intercede and try to save the church property and the lives of the Spaniards and Spanish priests, monks and holy nuns from destruction by the terrible Aguisaldo and his insurgents. The pope refers his request to you President McKinley and you immediately send a dispatch to Gen. Merritt to give the desired protection. The Spaniards are grateful, as usual, for your kindness, and not ten days elapse before they make an exhibition of their gratitude by a tremendous assault upon Gen. Merrit's heroic little army of Ameri cans resulting in the death of nine of our brother citizens, and forty-five more wounded, some of whom will lie down PLAIN HOME TALK, by Dr. E.
