Answering Prayers.

The story is told that a man in Ripey, O., one morning at family prayers prayed for a good neighbor in great destitution. After prayer the boy said to him; "Papa, give me your pocket book, and I will go over to Mr. Smith's "We have taken this principle for a and answer your prayer myself." The basis: That the Catholic religion with story does not say whether the father complied, but the chances are that he did not. He probably was an earnest prayer, but a poor worker, and believed in letting God do the whole thing Himself.
