rhey Call Bryan a Judas who Sold His Party for Silver and Ought to Hang Himself.

The great Cleveland-cuckcoo convention got together at the Funke opera house in Lincoln on the Fifth, a little late it is true, but the postmasters, revenue collectors, meat inspectors, mar chals, deputy marshals, U.S. attorneys, land officers-all of them got there. The "offensive partanship" order had been privately revoked and as transportation, hotels and brass bands had been provided for by the railroads and banks there was no reason why they should not be there. What excuse could any one of them render to the great Stuffed "Profit" of the bond syndicate ring for not being there? Manifestly there was none at all. They came as paid hirelings of the administration, did just as all the cuck coos do, executed the orders of his obesiety and slunk back home to await the curses of the American people,

When the convention met prayer was dispensed with and Euclid Martin called the convention to order. The call was read and a list of counties.

R. F. Bibb of Gage and C. M. Hubner of Otoe were nominated for chairman and secretary. The chairman came forward and proceeded to make a speech. He was awful grateful. The trained clackers threw in plenty of applause, especially when "honest money" was mentioned, but when he said that the democratic party was against all legislation which made the rich richer and the poor poorer there was a laugh. When he said that the Omaha convention was a 16 to 1 affair-sixteen populists to one democrat they went mad with yells.

He called Bryan a vagrant calf and said when sucking time came he would as usual, the workingmen assembling be back again. Some one yelled, "pie in the city park and listening to speeches counter," and there was an uproar.
