Saturday Evening from

For the past few days we have been getting in a large stock of goods from New York City. At the present time we have a complete stock of goods in every department. We have bought our goods at a very low price. We made one purchase in New York of about $20,000. We have bought our goods about 40 per cent below wholesale prices.

We were lucky enough to have spot cash, as during these hard times merchants with ready cash can buy goods at their own price in New York City. This week we are giving the greatest bargains ever heard of in Lincoln. Our goods are all new. Everything marked in plain figures. Come and visit the great bargain house of Lincoln. You are welcome whether you buy or not.

COR. 10th And P Sts | SAMUELS BROS.

OLD STAND BOSTON STORE, Lincoln, Neb.

THIS AND THAT.

For Sale or Trade—Anything in the shop for votes for Sam Low, for district clerk. Terms to suit customer. For further particulars inquire at republican machine headquarters at Capital bar.

G. W. Berge, populist candidate for county judge, has challenged S. T. Cochran, the republican nominee, to a series of joint debates upon the political issues of the day, both local and general, such discussions to take place at such times and places and to be governed by such rules as may be agreed upon. Should Cochran engage in this contest, after the smoke clears away he will very much resemble the parrot after his bout with the monkey.

Health Officer Rohde reports forty-two deaths in Lincoln during August. Among the causes of death are these two significant words Marasmus, 3. If you look in a dictionary you will find that word defined as a wasting away without apparent disease. That is the lingo of the doctors. It means starvation. This is the era of the gold standard.

Reports received from one of our solicitors who attended the Hickman fair, look very blue for John Trompen's candidacy for sheriff. It is said that when Sam Low went down to the fair last week, prominent republicans there notified him that if he wanted any votes in that propinquity he must cut the society of Trompen, as everybody down there was for Fred Miller. This being the case all over the county no wonder Sam Low is anxious to make trades. Poor Sammy; he is not in it with Baker.

John Trompen has been in town this week shaking hands and being gayed by the gang he thinks are his friends and giving him their support. John realizes that he cannot be elected sheriff, especially with the gang trading him off, and has about given up the race. That's right, John; keep your money and don't be a sucker. The boys are sticking a knife into you.

From sheer desperation over the waning prospects of Sam Low the machine gang of the boodlers are offering to trade anything in the shop for Low votes. They even went so far as to get J. P. Hildebrand on the rump ticket for district clerk, with the vain hope that he could cart some votes over to their camp. Pull their leg, "Hilde," before it is "everlastingly too late." They will never put up after election, when Baker gets through with them.

The young men's republican club held an informal "inebriation" at the Lindell a few evenings since. Conspicuous among the causes for jollification was the manner in which the "young men" had captured the party of appropriations, and the turning down of such battle-scarred veterans as Gran Ensign, Ed Sizer, Mr. Burr, et al.

The wave of prosperity which was promised by John Sherman to flow over this country "within ten days" after the repeal of the Sherman act, is tardy in making its appearance. Lincoln is a city fair to look upon and is as prosperous as any in the west, but last week mortgages were foreclosed upon one whole addition, nearly 400 parties being served with notices in a day. Another day this week the Kimball hotel and the Windsor stables were sold at sheriff sale. "Sound money" was paid for them, and that balances all other evils.

Cotner university is one of the best denominational colleges in the west. It opened its doors to its large clientele of patrons last Tuesday. The boys and girls will receive not only a scientific, but a christian training there.

The business men of the city of Lincoln should thoroughly investigate the question of authority of Lord Russell to issue his edict to prevent them from selling goods to lawful purchasers, and Mr. Russell can write it down that any injury done individuals by his manipulations will be held in strict remembrance by the injured parties.

Take the INDEPENDENT until January 1 for 25 cents.

PRACTICAL POLITICS.

Chairman Taubeneck has written a letter to Col. Norton of the Sentinel in which he talks practical politics. He says:

"Let us look the situation that confronts us square in the face. We need at least 4,000,000 more votes to elect a president and congress in 1896. This is a cold fact. Ask yourself, Colonel where do they come from: You know we must have them. Are they to come from those who believe in "Scientific Money?" No. From the Socialists? No. From those who believe in the nationalization of all monopolies? No. From those who believe in the land question? No. All these questions combined will not add more than 300,000 new recruits to our ranks. Where then must we look for the necessary 4,000,000 votes? There is but one place, Colonel, and that is the silver republicans and silver democrats, who at the present time are making the fight for free coinage inside the old parties, and are going to be whipped."

He adds: "Don't say that I favor banks of issue, because I am opposed to the idea of abandoning our silver plank. No one has a better record than mine, for demanding that all the paper money needed in addition to gold and silver shall be issued by the government and made a full legal tender."

The State Journal says Taubeneck has abandoned the free coinage of silver. The State Journal is the old reliable.

IF THEY ONLY WOULD.

If the populists of this country would quit throwing their money away on opposition papers, and give their patronage to the papers which are fighting their own battles, we would soon be able to establish daily papers in every state of the union, and the people party would sweep the country in 1896. Keep on feeding democratic and republican editors with your dollars, while you feed us on political essays and letters of advice, and in a little while we will be where our enemies want us.

We'll be dead.—Tom Watson.

They are Getting Together.

Platte county leads off with one of the most sensible ideas yet developed. The free silver element of all three parties have agreed to combine on that one principle, and put up a ticket in which each party is represented by one or more free silver candidates. Party is sacrificed on the altar of principle. Platte county is to be congratulated.—Genoa Banner.

Now is the time to subscribe. Twenty-five cents till January 1.

THE REASON WHY.

No words can exaggerate the importance of a sufficient volume of standard money to maintain stability of general prices, because upon stability depends the prosperity and happiness of the human race. It is of no consequence of what material standard money is made.

I do not advocate silver, because free coinage of silver is the only remedy that might be devised, but I advocate it because it is the only remedy within reach. The world is educated to believe that the precious metals are money, and before they could be educated to believe that any other material was money the gold combination, which is growing more colossal every day by reason of the enhancing purchasing power of money, would have the chains of slavery so thoroughly riveted that the human race could not break them for centuries. In other words, as the question is now presented, it is silver or slavery.—Senator Wm. M. Stewart.
