Miss Christena Marking is very sick at the home of her parents Jacob Marking in the valley.

Herman Kroening and sister, Mrs. Frank Simons, left town for the valley Monday afternoon.

Mr. James Wilson, one of the employees of Mr. Murphey's brick yard, started Monday for eastern Dakota.

The Venerable John Tucker, of White River, one of Sioux county's earliest settlers, came to Harrison Monday.

The unborn child without a head is now born and has a head well balanced. How do you like the "rat sheet?"

Every body turn out to the services at Mrs. Bassett's rooms Wednesday evening also at the hall Sunday morning.

Born, on the evening of Sunday September 16th, to Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shultz a son. Mother and child doing well.

The demand for the JOURNAL last week was greater than the supply, and many who ought to have received a sample copy did not.

Mrs. Loutzenheiser has moved into her new house and store room, just north of the bank, and is preparing a fine display of millinery goods.

The petition circulating in the county calling for an election to revive the heard law in Sioux county is being generally signed by the people.

Mr. C. A. Paxton came to the city Wednesday and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. Paxton paid a subscription for the JOURNAL and wishes us well.

Mr. L. E. Beldon is moving his carpenter shop from its present location to Mr. Hart's blacksmith shop and will open a wagon shop in connection.

Mr. John Marsteller, our own John, came back from a two months visit with friends in Pennsylvania. John brings his brother with him. Welcome both.

Miss Ida Stannard of Nora Springs Ia., arrived in Harrison Thursday. She is a sister to Mrs. T. O. Williams, and will remain some time, perhaps take a claim.

Mrs. L. M. Riley has taken a claim about a mile and a half northwest of town, which was secured on a contest, and she began living thereon last Saturday.

Mr. Andrew Jackson Babcock and Theo. Trimbur left Tuesday for the Bad Lands of Dakota. We hope that the gentlemen may not be lost and safely return.

Mrs. Bassett was kindly remembered recently by Mrs. T. Bay, F. M. Smith and F. Simons by being presented with a bouquet of real flowers cultivated by each of the ladies, who have the appreciation and thanks of the former.

Mr. Herman Konrath of Montrose, had the bad misfortune to lose three valuable head of cows by getting into the cornfield and eating green corn. Three more head are dangerously ill and liable to die from the same cause.

The bucket in the town well got fast Monday morning and the combined strength of fifteen men with a long lever was unable to pull it loose. Vote ionis gentlemen and get an apparatus that will do the work and give satisfaction.

Mr. H. T. Conley, of Creston county, a graduate of the State University, and an attorney of considerable ability, was in the county several days this week and made a critical examination of its resources. He is well satisfied with the future prospects of our county, and has decided to locate at Harrison. He will be back about the first of November.

The arrival of Mr. Smith's on Monday evening and Mr. Hester's on Tuesday was something of a surprise to their friends here for they were not expected for several weeks, as noted in our last issue. The cause is explained by the fact that they shipped by rail from the Missouri river to Chadron and drove from there here. The outfit consists of Mr. and Mrs. Smith and four sons, Frank, Charlie, Fred and Elmer; and two daughters, Ida and Ada. Mr. Hester and wife and three daughters, Ida, Louie and Claudie, and two sons, Virgil and Noran. Mr. George Olinger also accompanies them. The older ones will all probably take claims near here. They have ten head of horses, among which is two fine stallions belonging to Mr. Smith. The JOURNAL extends a hearty welcome to the new comers.

NOTICE.

All accounts of the Buffalo Gap Lumber Company, made prior to August 15, will be put in an attorney's hands for collection if not settled by cash or note by October 1st.

G. GUTHRIE, Manager.

Not Second Class Matter.

The Postmaster at Harrison refuses to admit the JOURNAL as second class matter, and also refuses to give his reasons for not doing so. Can our readers give any?

LITTLE COTTONWOOD.

The simple copy of the JOURNAL at hand, and I am well pleased with it. I think a journal that is independent is more reliable than a party paper; and in giving the resources of Sioux county you cannot give it greater praise than it deserves, as never in the history of Nebraska has a section of country risen from obscurity to the rank of a rich and productive country in so short a time as has Sioux county. Three years ago there was not a bushel of wheat sown in the country, to-day we are shipping wheat to Chicago, while our corn crop is excellent. It is not probable that any of it will go east as we are on the western edge of the corn belt country, and Wyoming and the Black Hills will be our market for corn.

Stock is in the best of condition and from the amount of lay and millet put in stack, will in all probability, be kept fat for the January market.

There is two saw mills running in the valley and lumber is plentiful and cheap, and the farmers are taking advantage of the situation and are putting up good buildings, the greater portion of which is for grain and stock.

There is a petition being circulated in this precinct for the renewal of the heard law to be submitted at the next annual election.

We have heard Mr. Walker—now we should like to hear the other side of the question and then we could draw our own conclusions.

Our road supervisor has been unable to put the roads in good condition on account of lack of material for bridges, but such work as could be done has greatly shortened the route to Crawford.

School commenced in district No. 3, on the 17th inst. There is some 35 or 40 scholars in this district.

Threshing has all been done in the valley. The new-wheat makes an excellent grade of flour.

Content and happiness prevails in each new home. W. M. P.

WE WOULD LIKE

—To have frost delayed until the corn is ripe.

—To see local news more plenty.

—A larger attendance at Mrs. Bassett's class on Sunday and on Wednesday evenings.

—To know why the P. M. refused the JOURNAL as second class matter.

—To know where all the cattle come from and go to that are shipped over this road each week.

—To see that road worked that Mr. Barker has surveyed down the canyon.

—To know of a better alto singer than the young lady who attends the singings.

—To hear of a more gentlemanly deputy P. M. than Mr. Cox.

—To have immigrant settlers arrive faster, though it could hardly be possible.

—To know of a better town to trade in than Harrison.

—To see a building pushed more rapidly to completion than our court house.

—To know why Thos. Reily sometimes starts out south and sometimes east but always comes in from the north.

—A few more correspondents as good as the ones we have.

—To know what about Henry's arm.

—To know whose fault it is that so many of our good looking population are bachelors.

Joking Justice Jones.

Who is that accomplished reporter the Republican has captured? Is must be the young man who lost all points of the compass, covered himself with the shadow of a cloud and waited seven hours for daylight to pilot him out of the canyon. The price of his rose must be high when he will tread on so many thorns to capture it. Jones don't worry; the christian opinion is, that when you get your new survey finished by starting home at an early hour you will prevent a rehearsal of your past misfortune. S.
