 A Court of Justice
 Found.

Before Judge Kinkaid on a writ of Habeas Corpus.

IMMEDIATELY RELEASED!
 AND THE COUNTY FOOTS THE BILL AMOUNTING TO $100 OR MORE.

As noted in our last issue of Oct. 4, Mr. Walker and the editor of this paper were under arrest for malicious libel.

The following morning on being arraigned the parties waived examination and were bound over to the District Court and their bonds fixed at $1,000—a certified bond being required. On Saturday the necessary security was given and they were released.

Monday, just before noon, Walker and Patterson were again arrested on a similar charge, sworn out by Mr. Satterlee, but covering another issue (the last one of the paper, wherein a libel was supposed to exist. To this charge a plea of "not guilty" was also entered and by request of defendants the case was continued until the next day in order that their attorney, Mr. W. W. Wood of Rushville, could have time to reach here.
 Mr. Wood failed to arrive the next day and examination was waived and the parties were again placed in custody until a certified bond of $1000 could be given. Proceedings were immediately commenced to recur a hearing before the district Judge on a writ of Habeas corpus.
 This was easily secured by attorney Wood and on Wednesday of this week the sheriff started with his "charges" for O'Neil arriving before the Judge in chambers on Thursday at 11 o'clock.
 No one appearing for the prosecution the Judge did just what he said the character of the case demanded he should do and that was to release Walker and Patterson. Thus ends a farce that has cost the county some $100 and there is still standing another case of the same kind that will probably cost the county more than that before it is finished.

We know our patrons will exonerate us from any blame for their not receiving the Journal last week when they know that our business relations with heriff Pfost were such that we were not allowed to work on the paper and no printer could be gotten within a reasonable distance from here and so we could not get one.

There is a great riling and agitation among the once peaceful pools of Sioux county, and bludgeons and libel suits are flying in the air. Geo. Walker was slugged by some thug on a dark night, evidently with murderous intent. Walker charged Editor Satterlee, of the rival paper, with the act, and Satterlee has both Walker and Editor Patterson arrested for libel. The immaculate County Judge Hunter put them in heavy bonds, and they are now lodged in jail.
 At this distance it seems as though Editor Satterlee, having a paper of his own, had as heavy weapons as his rivals, and might have been satisfied without resorting to libel suits.

The pompous person who left here for O'Neil one day this week must have lost he fear a court of JUSTICE?

Little Cottonwood.

Fear Journal.—We are glad to see you continue to enlighten us as to what purpose, and whether a legal one or not, the peoples money has been used.

We are glad to see commissioner Klein's statement, and we think it an honest one. He does not claim he was out of pocket the amount he drew a warrant for, nor could one reasonably expect him to take a warrant for the actual expenses of the trip, as our county warrants are not worth their face value. If he had been appointed and commissioned for that purpose, none could have looked on the bill. Let us give D. his dues; his race is almost run.
 We opposed him when he was candidate, but he has not done so bad as we expected, that we feel grateful toward him.

We think the head work will prove a kind of boomerang.

The Democratic caucus in Cotton wood precinct was well attended, and considerable interest manifested, but under it all a close observer could see a set determination to vote for good men regardless of party.

There is to be a debate on the tariff issue between two of Cottonwood's most brilliant young men at the Unionvilschool house on Saturday the 13th inst.

The republican nominee for County commissioner has not a single advocate in this valley that we have heard of.

We hear of the wrongs that have been imposed upon the Journal, and are sorry you for a moment had to submit to them; but be of good cheer—right is mighty and will prevail.

ANTELOPE VALLEY ITEMS.

Oct. 8th, 1888.

Heavy frost Friday and Saturday nights, the first that has visited Antelope.

Mr. S. K. Store is home from the mill on a short vacation. Gave the writer a pleasant call yesterday.

We are anxiously waiting for the Democratic convention next Saturday to see what will come out of it.

Mr. Gerlach, Mr. Nuto and others made a trip to Harrison last week on business. It is reported some of our county officers look pale swillpale or light complexioned. In our opinion there are several twopenny olds in office in Sioux county. We controll our vote but we find the most of people think as we do and will vote with us or us with them.
 Slabs or no slabs—Is it a fact and the Hon. County Judge has so decided that the county records are slanderous toward the men who made them—too bad, too bad. Make a new record gentlemen, excuse me if I use terms unbecoming and the Hon. Judge was given satisfactory bonds; what a surprise ha. ha, we can only laugh, although we are sorry to see any one in trouble. As to comments on the above we cannot do it justice.

Mr. Jewett of White River was prospecting last week in view of moving his sawmill in Warbonnet canyon. we think he would make a success.

Let the good angels come: So let the Journal come. We would feel like it was not money thrown away if it cost us $5 a year.

We are frequently reminded of the German who was visiting this country, and in writing back to his fellow countrymen as to the American people he said "Und da go around svindloing de peoples, und da call dot business.

For fear of taking up too much valuable space we close.

Respectfully,
 WEDD WRESTLER.

CLARE ITEMS.

Everything is on the boom.

Potatoes are still booming.

Wish we had a boomerang so that we could go out of doors after dark.

What we want is tax reform.

Our new telegraph operator at the H.
 & S. B. R. station is making fast progress and no doubt will be the most competent operator on this branch.

Who is to be our next County Superintendant or is this to be kept quiet, or?

George O'Kane is at home again. Geo. where is your road petition?

Mr. A. Orton took a load of wheat to Hall Bros. mill at Crawford, Monday.

Mr. Brady says that he has raised 1000 bushels of corn this year and in Sioux county, too.

Mr. Joe Morris brought a fine drove of mares recently from Dakota.

Ed. Lockwood has about completed his residence and will soon furnish it.
 He expects a visit from his Grand-mother this winter.

A wedding is reported in the near future and we will miss the light in the window on Bear creek.

We understand that Mr. Smith has located at Harrison. Yes, Mr. Smith all the land on the divide is taken.

A fire was set maliciously by some party who wished to do his neighbor an injury and that party had better keep low or there might be some trouble if this is repeated.

Slabs are in good demand at the old mill in Hat creek canyon since no one is caring for them. We wonder if those getting slabs itemize their bills.

It might be a good plan to make some new precincts for the "ring." Why would not Whistle creek and Andrews be appropriate?

Clare expects to have water works if the water bond will carry as well as the court house bonds.

Mr. James Daniels met with quite a severe accident the other day by the upsetting of a load of hay, but is able to be around again.

She said she wished Clarence would come back.

Let the granger vote be united and elect the man regardless of the party.
 Do not vote for a man who does not want the office but simply allows his name to be used as a candidate so that the "ring" can put in their man. Why is it that the Democratic convention is at such a late date? Is it because they are well aware that it is unnecessary to make a canvas this fall? We will see you later. So long.

W. E. Sawyau.
