Wm. Christensen was in Harrison last Tuesday.

Great Bargain in cloaks at Ranch Supply House.

A fine assortment of cloaks at cost at Ranch Supply House.

Mr. Asa Davis has moved to town in order to be closer to his field of labor, the school.

Mr. Theodore Pickenbrock, of Squaw creek, called on the JOURNAL for the first time, this week.

Marion Pfost is residing at home on his claim near Bodare and practicing the bachelor act.

Dave Bartlett received a telegram last week announcing the serious illness of a sister at Burlington, Iowa, and left for that place the same day.

No services at the school house Sunday afternoon, but everybody is invited to be present Sunday evening as this occasion will probably close this branch of work in Harrison for the present.

The ladies of Harrison will give another of their unique entertainments at the Church on the night of Saturday, January 20th. There will be music, also mush and milk provided for all who wish. Proceeds go to the Church fund.

Mr. Walter Schultz arrived last week from Cummings county, bringing a car load consisting of nine head of cattle, span of mules, farming implements and furniture. Mr. Schultz is a brother to John F. Schultz and has a claim in the valley. His family will follow soon.

Mr. John W. Blunt called upon us one day last week. Mr. Blunt and his mother have only been here a few weeks but expect to take land soon, as they are well pleased with the country. A brother and cousin of Mr. Blunt's, of Cummings county, are expected here soon.

Fred L. Morrison, our jeweler, will leave in a few days for Harrison, Neb., to spend a few days in that flourishing town tinkering watches and jewelry repairing. We can assure the Harrisonites that Fred can master the most difficult job and do it in good shape. He has given complete satisfaction while here.—Lusk Herald.

Mr. Morrison is now here and located in C. H. Andrews & Co's drug store.

The question discussed at the debate on Monroe creek, Jan. 9th was: "Resolved that man has more love for money than for women." It was decided in favor of the negative. What else could be expected in a bachelor neighborhood? The next subject is "woman suffrage" and will undoubtedly go the same way. That's right boys; nothing will go further toward inducing the eastern belles to come here than to first declare your love for them and secondly show them the numerous privileges you wish to have them enjoy.

In view of our continued fine weather, the following from the Rock Springs Independent, sounds rather strange to the people of eastern central Wyoming:

We rarely have had such continuous cold weather as we have had for the past ten days. The temperature has gone as low as 35 degrees below and has seldom been much above zero. The majority of the house water pipes have been frozen up and Bill Nevin has done a rushing business with his water wagon while the demand for coal don't begin to be met though five teams are kept running.—Lusk Herald.

For the benefit of the JOURNAL, the Herald refers it and its kickers for the statement regarding the matter of the Coffee Bros. expenditures to the Messrs Coffee themselves from whom we had the statement direct * * —Herald.

That's another and we refer to Mr. Bull Coffee with whom we had a conversation regarding the matter, and also to the stores and places in town where the purchases have been made. Coffee Bros. have spent a large amount of money here, for which the town and people are very thankful, but why does the Herald take such eager pleasure in magnifying it? Truthfully it is large enough. Try a dose of the genuine truth once Mr. Herald and see how it will cut.

Montrose to the Front.

Last Sunday week, at the Montrose store, Joe Powell and Conrad Hettich got into an altercation from which Hettich came out second best. It seems that Hettich had told Powell several days before that he (Hettich) had been to Harrison and paid a note at the Bank of Harrison owned by Powell, whereupon Powell proceeded to Harrison to get the money but found that it had not been paid. The following Sunday the two men met at Montrose and without ceremony Powell proceeded to knock the conglomerated stuffing out of Hettich which he did in an effective and workmanlike manner. Mr. Hettich was considerably but not seriously hurt. Powell was arrested and brought before the county court and fined ten dollars and costs amounting to something over forty dollars, which he paid. Powell immediately swore out warrants for Hettich, Wassenberger and Jacob Marking for selling liquor without license, and they came into court Saturday and as the case was beyond the jurisdiction of the county court, by their attorney Geo. Walker, waived examination expecting to be bound over to the District Court, but the allwise Judge was sure the Statutes allowed him jurisdiction and proceeded to fine each of the parties one hundred dollars, the cost aggregating nearly two hundred.

Glen Items.

Miss Hunt has engaged to teach the next term of school in Mr. Howard's district.

Pete Staff and Wm. Reeder are at work on their claims. Bill still thinks of getting that widow.

S. W. Kemp and Ed. Sandy are hauling cord wood from Deep creek to Ft. Robinson.

W. J. Milor and family were visiting on White river last Sunday.

C. H. Rigdon started for Omaha a few days ago.

Mr. Jewet's saw mill has been moved to Spring creek.

No Mr. Pine Top we don't control the White river men, neither did we claim to and our brains are about three feet higher up than yours. If you will take some of your own advice and use some of that cooling water of consideration to soak your head in, maybe you would be able to get some of the RAUM out of it and be able to wear a common sized hat hereafter.

MELUNCE.

Literary Social

The next literary social meets on Wednesday evening the 23rd. The subject for discussion is: resolved, that the electoral college be abolished and the president and vice president be elected by a direct vote of the people. Affirmative—C. F. Slingerland and M. J. O'Connell. Negative—G. Guthrie and W. E. Patterson.

A Correction.

ED. JOURNAL:—Now that the Republican professes to have changed proprietors, and you have assumed ownership of the JOURNAL, I respectfully ask permission to publish the fact that I did not write or cause to be written, any of those articles published in the JOURNAL and reflecting on the character of certain local politicians. I believe it is due to me, as a citizen who has ever extended gentlemanly and respectful courtesy to everybody, that my neighbors should understand fully that the newspaper attacks which have been made on me, were entirely without cause or provocation and remain without reply or retort on my part.

Boggy Items.

Snow came at last.
Road petitions are on the fly.

We need a bridge on Boggy. There is a hard water one now.

Mr. Connelan has sold his claim to Mat Riley for eighty-five dollars.

B. Corcoran has his house roof on and will have it ready for a cook soon.

Minhart crosses the prairie toward the ranch.

Mr. Price has petitioned for the Bodare P. O.

What has become of the crazy man that was on Boggy?
