"The wrong pew."

Oats for sale at the lumber yard.
Mr. Asa Davis is preparing to build a house on his homestead.

Sioux county school warrants bought at the Bank of Harrison.

Mike Bruck has taken a claim two miles north-east of town.

Some of our readers wonder "how are the two broncho riders in War Bonnet?"

Mr. Barker proved up on his pre-emption and received his final receipt last week.

Con. Lindeman has taken a claim in the valley close to the mouth of Sowell's canyon.

Geo. Whitney is going to Ft. Robinson Monday to bid on the building of some new barns.

It is rumored that Mr. H. M. Warneke has sold his general merchandise store to W. R. Smith & Son.

Miss Shattuck, who is visiting with Miss Emma Weir, spent Sunday and Monday in Crawford.

We are informed that Walter Wooduff lost two saddles, a hat and other periodicals last Friday night.

Mr. A. H. Shafer, of Rushville, son of our worthy Dr. Shafer, was here several days recently and planted five acres of trees on his claim south of town.

The Lusk Herald has assumed the proportions of a five column quarto and contains in the first issue of that size a nice write-up of the country. It is a good paper.

Mr. Richard Corcoran expects to start for Easton, Minnesota, next Monday. He called yesterday and ordered that the JOURNAL should seek him weekly and left the necessary lucre.

We have this week added to the JOURNAL outfit $150 worth of type and material, among which is a power job press—the only one in the county—and are now prepared to do all kinds of job printing. Anything from a fine visiting card to a half sheet poster is now within the capabilities of this office.

Thos. Reidy started out to locate a gentleman yesterday morning and the buggy upset a short distance south of town quite suddenly. The broncho returned shortly with a part of the harness and Tom and his companion soon followed. The buggy was considerably broken but otherwise no injury was done.

Read the "ad" of "the wrong pew."

Mr. Winfred T. Moore, from Ansley, Nebraska, arrived here last week and has located two miles south-east of town. He returned to Ansley Monday and will return here soon accompanied by four other families and several car loads of stock and implements. Thos. Reidy did the locating and Mr. Moore is well pleased with the land shown him.

Four cars of stock and emigrant stuff arrived here last Friday from Cummings county, this state. Three belonged to Mr. Henry Gulke and his four sons and one to Mr. Wm. Schultz. Mr. Schultz has been here before but his family and goods arrived Friday. Mr. Gulke has several head of cattle and horses that are fine, well graded animals. The JOURNAL extends to the new comers a hearty welcome.

Have you seen "the wrong pew?"

At the literary entertainment last evening was witnessed a larger crowd than on any previous occasion. The exercises were somewhat curtailed by the absence of a part of the participants but the vacancies were partly filled by volunteers. One of the most interesting items in the program was the questions and answers by Mrs. C. C. Jameson. The dialogue by four of the gentlemen was well rendered and created much merriment. The song, "Old Grimes is dead" by Detha and Georgie Bartell and Kearny Post took the house by storm as did also the recitation by Elmer Smith. After several other meritorious selections the evening's entertainment concluded by a short address from Mrs. Bassett in her usual earnest and forcible manner.

Always open—"the wrong pew"

OUR RAMBLER.

A Few Things he Sees Hears and Comprehends.

In talking recently with a patron of the town who lives about 20 miles from here, he informed Rambler that the worst piece of road he had to travel was the main street of Harrison where the rocks and stones lie in such profusion.

First impressions are not always lasting ones but are frequently acted upon. If a person is well and favorably impressed with a town at first sight, it may go a long way toward determining their actions for many future years, so we advise the citizens to be awake and alert at all times in trying to improve the looks of the town by improving the looks of each particular part thereof. If each one will only do a little the aggregate will amount to considerable.

Rambler is sorry to be forced to admit that the much talked of improvements for the roads through the canyons has only been a useless lot of wind expenditure so far, with no apparent prospect of anything more substantial being done. During the coming wet weather this spring many places will be very dangerous if not entirely impassable. Is the Board of Trade or the town going to do anything on this subject?

"The wrong pew" is here now.

War Bonnet Warblings.

Charlie Brooks wants to see you about heading your cattle the coming summer.

Little Jimmy Farnam is building a little house on his little claim.

Phil McVay proved up on his claim lately and shaking the gumbo from his feet he hit the trail for Iowa where he thinks he has a more lucrative job than holding down a claim, at tilling the soil on his father-in-law's farm.

Wilber Shepherd is a rustler, the only thing he doesn't seem to be successful in rustling is a house keeper.

A couple of couple wound up the dance on the 22nd by an "all walk around" in the snow on their way home. We could scarcely tell from our remote point of observation, whether the girls were taking advantage of the soft fleecy snow for a carpet to give a gymnastic performance, or whether the boys were scaring the horses for a little race, or the horses were playing circus with the whole outfit.

We are informed that the entertainment was instigated by a broken lame string. The young ladies furnished the music "viva voce", on a high key, while the boys played heavy part—they fell heavily over the dash board into the snow. Bob, gathered up the fragments while Ned, exercised his pedal extremities in a spin around the hill, down by the creek and up by the garden after his team. Luckily no one was hurt.

WARBLER.

WAR BONNET NO. 2.

School closed in district No. 15 last Thursday. Miss Robinson will be greatly missed by the people in the valley.

Warbler made a mistake; it was not John Thornton that chopped the wood for the school house. It was Johnny Anderson.

Miss Mabel Robinson was the guest of Miss Starnard the latter part of last week.

Every one remarked on the excellent lyceum Wednesday evening. The missing of the two preceding meetings seemed to give them new life and energy for their work. Several new members were added to the society.

The dance at Mr. Slattery's last Friday evening was well attended, there being about thirty-five persons present. They all passed a very enjoyable evening, John Thornton being present.

Pat Dunn thinks he will try to find some consolation in New Mexico.

Miss Ida Starnard spent Sunday with Miss Robinson on the divide.

Don't you think it is about time for Sour Disposition and Ex-County Official to lay down the battle ax?

Some of the young people had quite an accident on the way home from the dance on the 22nd. We would advise the young men to see to their ham-strings and whiffletrees before starting in the future.

FIREFLY.

Grand Ball on the 18th.

Oats for sale at the lumber yard.
We acknowledge our indebtedness to Mr. Slingerland for a copy (No. 21) of the Bodarc Record.

Mr. John A. Pratt, of Antelope, respectfully announces that a dance will be given at his place on the 18th of March.

The Commissioners and County Surveyor were engaged in laying out a new road from the valley to the ridge the first part of this week.

Remember the lecture entitled Prison Life and Escape, by Major Scamahorn. This lecture is not visionary by any means; as the Major relates actual experiences of horrible prison life and hair-breadth escapes.

Try "the wrong pew" once in a while

D. H. GRISWOLD.

A car load of emigrant stuff arrived from Washburn, Illinois, last Saturday. It was the property of a family by the name of Hurceler consisting of the mother and three sons. Sioux county is surely going to boom.

Notice in another column the advertisement of the new firm of Conley, Reidy & Pollard. Mr. Conley has only been here a few months but has already proven to be of the "right stuff". He is an able attorney and a friend and champion of the people and their rights. Mr. Reidy is well known in the county and his friends with one accord testify to his integrity and that implicit confidence may be placed in him. He will attend to locating new comers and soliciting farm loans. Mr. Pollard will probably not be here for some months yet but the firm will put in a full set of abstract books upon his arrival.

Call and see "the wrong pew."

Monroe Creek &c.

Who can beat this?—March weather.

"Let us have peace" and Canada.

Mr. ——— Sherrel raised a big, new log house yesterday. He came to stay.

E. A. Andrews received a run of surprise dancers last Monday night.

The people of Squaw creek are building a new school-house and will start school as soon as the house is completed.

Geo. W. Tool has been teaching his sheep the use of tobacco. Oh, for a hundred more such Tools with each a hundred sheep!

Immigrants still keep dropping into the valley.

Whose house burned down last Monday night? Nobody's, but a huge pile of pitch pine burned up upon a high bluff just north of B. F. Thomas' house.

Hurrah for the first hundred years of the United States! Hurrah for the next thousand to come.

Farmers are beginning to sow wheat and the ground is in splendid condition.
