A Map Free.

The Journal has made arrangements to offer an inducement to members of clubs. Any person who subscribes for our four new subscribers for a year in advance we will send them one of Rand, McNally & Co's.

sectional maps of Nebraska. The map is a small, cheap affair, but is of the highest quality, on heavy paper, mounted in a neat cover. It is the latest map issued, and is correct to date of June 1, 1889, and is correct as to show all the new counties, and railroads. Now is the time to order one of these maps FREE. The price of these maps is $2.00, and we will order it for them. A sample of the map can be seen at this office.

Order your neighbors and get them to subscribe for THE JOURNAL, and assist you to obtain a map. All subscribers in clubs will receive our premium paper, the Sioux Farm News, without extra charge.

Fresh brown and white bread, cakes, and cookies at the restaurant.

Warn & Brooks, the west side butchers, are among our advertisers this week.

They invite all to come and see them.

J. M. Daniels brought us a sample of molasses and also one of sugar cane which he had made people feel at all encouraged with Sioux county. When the land is subdued good crops will follow.

On last Saturday afternoon Sam

Smith, formerly of this place, shot a man the name of Fred Bishop at Alliance.

The wounded man died the day following. Smith is under arrest awaiting the result of the coroner's inquest.

Steam trains are running at almost the same time of the day and night of late.

The number of cattle are being sent to the market at present, and yet we are informed that the shipment this season will be much smaller than formerly.

The contract was let on last Monday for the new residence of L. J. Simmons.

Conley, Reidy & Pollard have plenty of money to loan on improved farms at the most reasonable rates of any firm in Sioux county.

If you procure a loan of Conley, Reidy & Pollard you can pay it off and procure a larger loan next year without additional cost.

Candidates for county offices are canvassing the town and county to get solid with the politicians, and Rosa & Thompson are selling 14 pounds of evaporated apples for $1.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. R. Maine, who has been sick for some time. The parents have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

The public school opened last Monday with Asa Davis as principal. The attendance was not large but many more will probably be added to the roll in a short time. There is some talk that an additional teacher will be needed, but none will be employed for the present at least.

Ed. A. Weir entertained a number of his bachelor friends last Thursday evening. Of course Mr. Weir depended on his mother and sister for assistance, but the repast was served in the bachelor quarters of the young gentleman. A pleasant time is reported by those who were present.

In our columns this week appears the advertisement of the City Restaurant. This is under the management of Henry Snyder, and all who wish board by the day or week, or if you are in town and want a good dinner, give him a call.

He is located one door north of the blacksmith shop on Main street.

The entertainment given by the ladies at the church on last Friday evening was well attended and the program was highly enjoyed by all. There is no question but such entertainments can be made both interesting and instructive and we hope the attempt will be repeated in the near future.

Send the names of your friends in the East who wish to visit you, or who are seeking new locations, to J. R. Buchanan, Gen'l Passenger Agent of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley R.

R. Co., Omaha, Neb., that he may send them information relative to the "One-Fare Harvest Excursions," which occur

September 16th and 24th, and Oct. 8th.

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners last week a good deal of business was done. A large number of bills were acted on, many being allowed, but we did not call until it was too late to get the proceeds in full for this issue. A plan submitted by D.

Klein for a bridge in White River predict was accepted and bids will be advertised for. Bids will also be called for to complete road No. 33, the road partially made by M. J. Carroll. In the White River precinct saloon cases Handy & Stetson filed a bond which was satisfactory and the clerk was directed to issue license upon the presentation of a voucher showing that the $500 license fee had been paid to the county treasurer. So far no license money has been paid in and we are informed that the saloons are running without license, the proprietors preferring to take their chances on being prosecuted. The Montrose bridge was accepted and warrants ordered issued.
