—Tr. E. C. Koons, dentist will be in Harrison on December 2nd and 3rd to attend to any business in his professional line that may come to him.

PAY UP—All indebted to the Buffalo Gap Lumber Company must call and settle by the 1st of December, either by cash or secured note. Don't postpone this matter.

—Mrs. B. F. Thomas has given up the restaurant and moved back to her home north of town. The restaurant is now conducted by John Corbin, who took possession last Saturday.

—A number from this place expect to go to Montrose to attend the ball to-morrow evening and be present at the barbecue on the following day. The prospects are that a big time will be had.

—Remember THE JOURNAL clubs with almost any paper in the United States and when you want anything in the line of papers or periodicals call and see us and we can save you some money.

—In another column appears a new advertisement of Geo. H. Tupper. He has added flour, feed and groceries to his stock and will be pleased to sell you such goods besides all kinds of fresh and salt meats.

—Lost—Between Carl Knott's residence and Harrison, on Friday, Nov. 15th, on the main traveled road, my prescription filing papers. Finder will please return to THE JOURNAL OFFICE.

JOHN THOMAS.

—Bert Dew was elected county surveyor of Sioux county, Nebraska. He will fill the office well, and when Sioux county people know him they will learn that he has qualities fitting him for a much better office than surveyor.—Greenfield, (a.) Transcript.

—It is frequently remarked that the dog ordinance appears to be a dead letter in Harrison. There are a great number of useless dogs running at large in town and if the ordinance was enforced it would either put quite a sum of money in the treasury or greatly reduce the number of dogs in the place.

—The new time card went into effect on the Elkhorn last Sunday but no change in time occurred at this place. The additional train service expected did not materialize so the people along this line have no better accommodations than before. It is to be hoped that it will not be long until we will have passenger service.

—An entertainment will be given at the M. E. church on Saturday evening, Nov. 23, by Miss Mary E. Harter. This lady is a graduate of the Iowa college for the blind and the program will consist of musical and literary selections. There is no one but would be benefited by the entertainment and none should fail to attend. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents.

—On last Friday R. Wilson arrived from the east bringing with him his family and a car-load of stock, household goods and farm implements. He is occupying the house belonging to Conrad Lindeman in the north-west part of town until he can erect a house of his own on the land he intends to convert into a farm. He brought some good stock with him, which helps to give a good appearance to the stock of the county.

—A large cistern is being put in by the town near the well so that a much greater supply of water can be kept on hand. By putting it near the well a great deal of strain is saved on the pump and it will also be more convenient for those who haul water and also for the people who get their supply from the reservoir at the crossing of Main and Second streets. The village board did a wise thing in locating the new reservoir where they did.

—M. R. McDowell has rented the barber shop and is ready to take care of all work in that line.

—We are informed that a little child of Thomas Holly died last Saturday, but did not lean the particulars.

—The ladies' aid society met yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. J. Simmons. Among the matters discussed was some action relative to a Christmas tree and entertainment. The society will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. H. T. Conley, at which time a full attendance is desired, for it is expected to make arrangements at that time for the Christmas tree. It is earnestly requested that all the ladies be present.

—In another column appears a list of the names selected by the commissioners from which will be drawn the twenty-four men to serve as petit jurors at the district court. It was expected that district court would convene on December 11th, but we are informed that Judge Kinkaid will again adjourn the term of court, but to what date is not known. There are no new cases since the former adjournment and it can just as well be postponed for some time to come as not. It is quite likely that official notice of the change of date for holding the term will be sent out in the near future.

—On last Saturday the bell for the school house was placed in position and the children are called to school by the ringing of the bell. The school house being located near the M. E. Church, and that institution not yet being provided with a bell, the school bell is used for calling the people together for church purposes. This makes it much more pleasant as it causes all to feel that Harrison is progressing and it will not be long until other indications of prosperity will be added. Schools and churches go far to induce people to locate in a place and we hope to see Sioux county keep fully to the front in these matters.

—It is quite a surprise to the many new settlers to see snow and ice disappear before the northwest winds here as most of the people are used to seeing the mercury fall when the wind comes from that direction. Nebraska is justly proud of the fine climate which prevails all over the state, but this locality is more favored than the greater portion of the commonwealth. In addition to that, fuel is cheaper than in any other part of the state and that is a big item to a poor man. In the eastern part of the state it is hard to get any fuel except high-priced coal, while here the farmer can go and get wood for the trouble of hauling it and coal can be purchased at $3.50 to $4 per ton which is cheap enough.

—Preparations are making for a grand ball at the court house on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 28th. The purchaser of each ticket will be given a chance in a raffle for a horse. Supper will be served at the Northwestern hotel. Tickets admitting a gentleman and lady to supper $1, and with each supper ticket purchased will be given a chance in another raffle for a second horse. Those getting up the dance say they wish to give the people a good evening's amusement and will do all in their power to make it pleasant for all who attend. The good time enjoyed at the ball last Friday evening proves that good times can be had here at dances and a large attendance is looked for on Thanksgiving night.

—The ball at the court house on last Friday evening was a most enjoyable affair. There was a good attendance and everyone present appeared to enjoy themselves immensely. The court room makes an excellent place for dances and the ceiling and walls make the music sound nicely. There was one thing noticeable and that was that although the ball was given in honor of the result of the recent election there was nothing to make it the least unpleasant to those who had been supporters of the fusion ticket, and a number of the most earnest workers for the defeated ticket were present and had as good a time as any one. It was demonstrated on that evening that Harrison and vicinity can have as nice dancing parties as any place and those attending are as orderly and genteel as those who go to dances in other settled localities. This indicates that Sioux county is being settled by a very desirable class of people to live among and when you write to your friends to come out here tell them we have just as good society here as they have at home. Another thing is deserving of mention and that is that excellent music is rendered by Messrs. Bartlett, Blunt, Brown, Galpin, McRea and Patterson, and that adds greatly to the pleasure of the dancing parties.

—The first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held here last Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder Webster was present and a good interest was shown. The organization is in a prosperous condition and a bright future appears to be assured for it.

—There is a good deal of talk among the young people of the town and vicinity about organizing a dancing club and having social dances frequently during the winter. A club could be organized and a dance held once a week, lasting not later than twelve o'clock, at a small expense to each member and breaking up at that hour it would not exhaust the participants so that they would not be unable to attend to their duties the following day and as a place to spend an evening it could not be excelled. We hope the talk will be put into effect in the near future.

—A reception was tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Lusk at the M. E. church on last evening. A goodly number were in attendance and a pleasant time enjoyed by all. The people did not forget that a well-filled larder would go far toward making a minister and his family contented, so a good supply of edibles were taken as a donation to the family. Both the pastor and his lady express themselves as well pleased with Harrison and the people they have met here and they have no doubt they will like to live here, and the people are all highly pleased with the new-comers and will do all in their power to make it pleasant for them.

—With new buildings being erected and new business enterprises starting up and new people coming here to live the prospects for general prosperity are excellent. It is almost certain that the next few months will bring great numbers of people to Sioux county to secure homes while there is government land to be had, for there is not much good land in Nebraska outside of Sioux county yet open to settlement and those who secure pre-emptions or homestead in Nebraska must get here early or they will find that the opportunity has past. Tell your friends in the east that if they desire to get land in Sioux county for living upon it they must not delay but get out here as soon as possible.
