—Ned Andrews leaves this afternoon with a Streeter palace stock car loaded with horses which he will take to New York to sell. This is a long way to ship horses and a good price will have to be realized to pay expenses. It is to be hoped that the venture will prove profitable.

—Joseph Powell and Miss Jane Hunt were united in marriage by Rev. G. J. Powell, at Chadron, on Monday evening, March 10th. The friends of the young people extend congratulations.
—We are informed that a car of grain is to arrive in Harrison over the Elkhorn road about the 15th inst.

freight, on condition that the farmers to whom it is shipped give proof that it is for their own use and not to be sold. This is an excellent thing for the farmers and others will be apt to follow suit.
—R. Wilson has already got a good deal of seed in the ground and is pushing his spring work as rapidly as possible. He expects to put in a crop of about one hundred acres, seventy-five acres of which will be sown to flax. That is a pretty good acreage for a farmer to put in who only came to Sioux county last fall.
—Last Saturday the town was full of farmers and our merchants report an excellent trade. Active preparations are being made to go to farming in good earnest. The people feel confident that an excellent crop will reward their labors and will go at the work of putting the seed into the ground with high hopes.
—The first of last week E. B. Price started for the east on business. He had some matters to look after in Chadron and in hastening to the train after dark he fell into the excavation for a turntable, sustaining quite severe injuries. He was able to return home on Saturday and will be able to attend to business again in a few days.
—A number of our friends have expressed their intention to bring us some wood on subscription. We would suggest that it would be a good thing to bring it in the near future, as winter will soon be past and then we will not need it so badly, and also our friends will be busy so that they cannot find time to attend to it as easily as now.
—The "hard times" ball on last Monday evening was largely attended and a grand time had. There were a number of excellent representations of hard times among the dancers which created a vast amount of merriment. The prize to the lady was awarded to Miss Ida Smith, and the gentleman's prize was carried off by W. T. Brown, of Vorhees, Wyo. The dancing was kept up until a late hour and all pronounce it one of the most enjoyable dances ever held in Harrison. It is likely that other dances will be given in the near future.
—On last Tuesday a part of assessors of the county met at the office of the county clerk as provided by law. Only nine were present, and according to the statute the office of assessor in the precincts not represented can be declared vacant, and others appointed to fill the vacancies, but what will be done in the matter is not known. At the meeting a number of questions regarding values were taken up and it is to be hoped that the assessment of 1890 will be satisfactory. It is to be regretted that all the assessors elected were not present so that a uniform basis of assessment could have been agreed upon.

—FOR SALE—A poll-Angus bull, coming two years old. Inquire of,
G. W. HARRIS.
—The Bank of Harrison has recently put in a new punch for marking drafts. It is of the latest pattern and fixes a draft so that it would be hard to alter.
—The contest on what is known as the Cook claims northeast of town has been settled by C. R. Wells purchasing C. E. Verity's interest in that tract. Mr. Wells has also secured the claim occupied by H. Merrifield, which gives him a half section of land near town. It will not be long until this will become a valuable piece of property and will prove an excellent investment.
—T. O. Williams has completed a well for Wm. E. Moore and is now engaged in putting one down for A. E. Ramsey. The well makers are kept busy and many farms are being improved by securing a water supply. Wind mills will be the next in order. When a wind mill is to be seen on every quarter section of land the appearance of the country will be vastly improved.
—The boys are preparing to give a minstrel entertainment on the evening of April 3d. There is plenty of talent here and an evening of fun may be expected. At the close of the performance a dance will occur, and thus all will have an opportunity to enjoy themselves. The orchestra is practicing some fine music for the occasion, which will add greatly to the pleasure of the evening. None should fail to attend. For particulars see programs.

—It is reported that work on the old wells in Wyoming will be resumed in the near future and pushed vigorously until the fact is established that that portion of the country is to be a valuable one or not. A good deal of money has been spent in test wells, but none have been sunk deep enough to prove what they are really worth. We hope the prospectors will be rewarded by striking it rich. Nothing would be more beneficial to this section of the country than the development of the coal, oil and mining regions of the territory west of us.
—The only school in Sioux county will have an exhibit at the state teachers association is that of Montrose district. The teacher, B. B. Smith, has a good deal of pains to get it into shape and those who saw it say that it is deserving of credit. This a starter in that line and it is to be hoped that other teachers of the county will follow the example and have a showing prepared for the meeting of the association next year. The children of Sioux county are just as intelligent as those of any other locality, and all that is necessary is a little encouragement and direction on the part of the teachers.
—The question of roads as mentioned in the last issue of THE JOURNAL has caused a number of farmers to investigate the location of roads. It is found that some that were supposed to be laid out county roads are not laid out at all, and the result is that farmers in various neighborhoods are getting up petitions for consent roads so as to get the matter in shape and get the roads laid out for the benefit of themselves as well as well as others. A good road along a farm will be a benefit greater than the value of the land occupied by the road. THE JOURNAL would urge that care be exercised by the farmers in getting roads located so that they lead to some point connecting with another road so that stub roads can be avoided. If the favorable action in the matter of roads is continued it will not be long until enough county roads will be laid out to accommodate the greater part of the people and after the main roads are established they can easily be supplemented where necessary at a very little cost. Good roads help to build up a country and thus is every property owner benefitted thereby.

—The is some complaint being made about stock being allowed to run at large. On account of the scarcity of feed stock of all kinds have been permitted to wander at their own sweet will and no objections have been made, but as spring approaches and the farmers begin to get their land ready and grain put into the ground they do not like to have cattle tramping paths across it nor getting at the grain they have taken to the field to sow, and as a result they begin to express the wish that stock owners take care of their animals. The crops of Sioux county are too valuable and of too much importance to the present and future of the county to permit their being destroyed by stock. The farmers need all they can raise, and as the statute provides that stock shall be kept off the crops, the people should begin to take care of their stock and then there will be no occasion for any difficulty. The people have been very lenient during the fall and winter by allowing their neighbors stock to run at large and in many cases annoy them, and now that the season of the year has come that damage will be done, it is but right and proper that the stock be taken care of by the owners.
