—By taking advantage of our new clubbing offer you can get a large amount of good reading for a small amount of cash.

—The proceeds of the social given by the ladies on the evening of the 30th ult., are to aid the W. C. T. U. work, instead of the Bible school.

—If you want to buy a carpet, remember we can save some money for you. Come and see us. Ranch Supply House.

—About the last of August, E. A. Weir will retire from the firm, so everybody owing us either a note or account will please arrange for a satisfactory settlement at once.

—The attention of the village board is called to the fact that the large cistern which was dug last fall near the engine house, has been caving a good deal and unless protected the foundation of the engine house will be damaged.

—Don't forget that the Bible school meets at 10 o'clock every Sabbath morning. Subject for Aug. 10th, "The Rich Man and Lazarus." Luke XVI-19-31.

—Arrangements are being made for a gospel temperance meeting on next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Good music and an interesting program will be prepared. All are invited to attend.

—As soon as the repairs on the church were completed S. H. Jones, agent for the Phoenix Insurance company, of Hartford, in which the building was insured, sent the bill to headquarters and the amount was promptly remitted. It speaks well for the company.

—It has been suggested that a good thing for state fair purposes would be a small log house, surrounded with native pine trees would be attractive and cost little but labor. The plan of making an exhibit is being favorably received and if a little effort is made a grand success can be made of it.

—It is reported that in Kansas, from Concordia west to the state line, there is nothing at all green, the continued drouth and hot winds having used up all kinds of vegetation. People will find that Sioux county is a pretty good place to live in after all.

—Among the earliest settlers on Indian creek were D. F. Mack and Egan Cowlishaw. They were in Harrison the first of the week and in their conversation stated that while the result of their labors this year would be little or nothing in the crop line on account of the rain not coming at the right season, still they were not discouraged. A large number of the settlers have gone into the hills and on the railroad extensions to find employment, but few of them are leaving the county for good. A smaller per cent of the actual settlers have left Sioux county than have left almost any of the other counties during early settlement. The fact that fuel can be had for nothing in Sioux county and lumber be got much cheaper than in any other part of the state, assists the settlers a great deal.

—Fall and winter clothing samples are now on tap at Beach Supply House.

—Rev. Wm. Wilson will preach in the church at Harrison on Sunday, August 24th. All are invited to be present and hear him.

—There seems to be quite a demand for hands just at present, the rush of the farmers with harvest and haying furnishes employment for all who desire it.

—The democrats of the first congressional district of Nebraska passed a resolution in opposition to the federal election bill. Such actions are unaccountable.

—A game of ball was played on Tuesday afternoon between the married men and single men and resulted in a victory for the former. A great deal of fun was had by all.

—Rev. Wm. Wilson arrived from Illinois a few days ago and is getting a house up on his land southwest of town. He is a brother of Robert Wilson, one of our substantial farmers near Harrison.

—Rev. I. F. Lusk will preach at his regular appointments in the valley next Sabbath morning and afternoon. This will be his last service at these places during this conference year.

—Rev. N. E. Gardner, of Hemingford, will lecture on temperance, at the church on next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. All are invited to be present and hear him.

—Now is a good time to write to your friends in the east who are paying high rent for land, urging them to come west and get some land of their own. The short crops in many localities will make it necessary for many of them to seek a new location and Sioux county ought to get her share of the emigration.

—Kempster, the New York murderer, has exhausted every means of delay allowed by law and it is probable that before the readers of THE JOURNAL receive this paper he will have been executed by electricity. He has been ably defended, as the companies interested in the electric currents did not want their appliances used.

—In another column, appears the proclamations of the governor submitting the three constitutional amendments proposed at the last session of the legislature. The Journal will in the near future, publish laws as they now stand, wherein changes are proposed so that our readers may compare them. The proclamations will be published each week until election, as the law provides that they shall be published for three months, prior to election, in each county in the state.

—A few days ago George Bowen was on his way to his pasture early in the morning, when he saw what he thought were his neighbor's pigs running towards his cornfield. He called his dog and started to drive them off, but soon found they were not pigs but coons, and there were fifteen or twenty of them in the bunch. That is a pretty good coon story but J. M. Daniels is our authority for it. The boys of that neighborhood are planning to capture the animals.

—John Gibson who was arrested a few days ago and taken to Cherry county on charge of horse-stealing was taken to the penitentiary on last Monday to serve out a sentence passed on him by Judge Kincaid. A man by the name of Obright was also sentenced at the same time. When a man commits a crime, punishment usually overtakes him. If a person wants to live long and enjoy his liberty, the safest way is to act according to law.

—The result of the examination by the commissioners of insanity, of Charles Dixon, the would-be suicide, resulted in his being adjudged insane and the report of the physician with an application for admission was sent to the authorities of the insane hospital at Norfolk. On Monday the necessary papers were received and that evening Sheriff Reidy left with Dixon for Norfolk. It is hoped that under proper medical treatment the young man's mind will be fully restored in a short time, so that he will be able to again take his place among men.

—A. R. Kennedy feels highly gratified over his crop prospects. He came here last fall and this is his first crop in Sioux county. He has some wheat which is estimated will yield thirty bushels or over per acre, and his oats and flax are fine. In addition to these he has an excellent garden, and taken altogether makes a good showing for the first year a man has been in a new country. If crops were as good all over the county as they are here on the table land it would be highly pleasing, but even as it is it is no worse than it is in much of the older settled portions of this, as well as other states, besides the land in the east has cost the owners a good deal of money while the farmers of Sioux county should count nothing except the seed and labor expended.

Resolution.

The following resolution was passed at the teachers institute:
RESOLVED, That we, the teachers of Sioux county, extend our hearty thanks to Professors Leach and Harlan also to Supt. Southworth for the interest manifested in this the Second Annual Institute of Sioux County.

—On last Saturday a sheaf of wheat was brought to our office from the farm of A. R. Kennedy and it is good evidence to encourage anyone. There is no question but what the soil of Sioux county contains excellent producing qualities. The fact of its being too dry this season in some parts of the county is no argument against the county. That has been the case in a large portion of the state, as of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and the Dakotas. Sioux county has as good a prospect for the future as any of the newly settled sections of country, and far better than a number of the new counties of this state.

At the republican congressional convention of the second district at Hastings on July 30th, Hon. N. V. Harlan, of York, was nominated on the first ballot to succeed Congressman Laws. In this it is again demonstrated that the anti-monopoly element of the party is on top. Mr. Harlan has long been known as being strongly in favor of justice to the people and his home county is one of the strongest anti-monopoly republican counties in the state. In the house of representatives of which Mr. Harlan was speaker four years ago, he made a record as a man of integrity and brains. He will be elected, without doubt, and the second district will have an able representative in congress.

The Lincoln Call, the most radical anti-monopoly republican paper in the state, expresses itself as being entirely satisfied with the platform adopted at the republican state convention and asserts that if the candidates who accepted a nomination at the hands of the convention after the platform was adopted, live up to the pledges thus made, it is all that could be asked. The anti-monopoly element in the state convention held the winning hand and they will see to it that the men elected by them do keep their pledges. If the platform is acceptable to the Call, it is safe to predict that it will prove acceptable to the anti-monopoly republicans all over the state.

The Shah of Persia

Though advanced in years, his hair of raven hue. Gray hairs are strictly prohibited in his dominions, and hence the large shipments to that country of Ayer's Hair Vigor, by the use of which the Shah's subjects save not only their hair but their heads. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores the natural color of the hair. It should be on every toilet-table.

"Some time ago my hair began to fade and to fall out so badly that I thought I should be bald; but the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has restored the original color and made my hair strong, abundant, and healthy. It does not fall out any more."—Addie Slaughter, 222 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

"My hair (which had partly turned gray) was restored to its youthful color and beauty by the use of a few bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor. I shall continue to use it, as there is no better dressing for the hair."—Galeo Gapp, Georgiana, Ala.

Our Candidates.

The republican nominees for the offices of county commissioner and county attorney are before the people and it is right that the voters should know something of the men for whom they are asked to cast their ballots. The following is a short sketch of the men nominated by the republican county convention on July 19, 1890:

ELI J. WILCOX

the republican candidate for county commissioner for the first district was born in Medina county, Ohio, in 1834. In 1855 he settled in Iowa and engaged in farming. In 1890 he crossed the plains to Pike's Peak in search of gold, and continued that search until July, 1861, when he enlisted in Company B, 1st Colorado Infantry, and was engaged in the campaign against the Texas rangers in the wilds of New Mexico, and in guarding the United States mails from depredations by the Indians. He served four years and four months in the army. In 1896 Mr. Wilcox came to Sioux county and engaged in farming and stock raising and still continues in that business. He is well known to many of the people of Sioux county and all know him to be a straightforward, honest and honorable man. His election to the office of county commissioner would insure to the taxpayers of Sioux county an honest and economical administration of the public affairs and the voters of the county will be looking to their interests by electing him by a good majority.

H. T. CONLEY

the republican candidate for county attorney, was born in Washington county, New York, July 4, 1860. In 1885 he removed with his parents to Illinois, where he remained until the fall of 1873, when he removed to Seward county, Neb. He spent some years on the farm and as a clerk, while attending the high school at Seward, after which he attended the state university at Lincoln, teaching school a portion of the time to obtain money to complete his education. At the close of a three years' course at the university, he read law with Noval Brothers, of Seward, and Brown & Ryan Brothers, of Lincoln. He was admitted to the bar in 1886, before Judge T. E. ... the supreme court, after which he located at Ansley, Custer county, where he practiced law for two years. In the fall of 1888 he came to Sioux county and engaged in the practice of his profession and has ever been outspoken for right and justice to the people. The writer has been personally acquainted with Mr. Conley since boyhood and has ever found him to be a young man of excellent principles and high integrity. He is a close student of the law and is eminently fitted for the position for which he has been nominated. The people of Sioux county will find him, as they have found him in the past, true to every trust reposed in him, and if elected he will give his best efforts to the duties of his office.

More About Him.

Below we republish additional comments on H. T. Conley, the republican nominee for county attorney, made by those who know him:

"Hugh T. Conley, a former Seward boy, has been nominated for county attorney by the republicans of Sioux county, and the Blade, together with his many friends in Seward county will be glad of his election. Mr. Conley is an energetic, and wide-awake young man, who educated himself entirely by his own exertions, and is a man of the strictest integrity, being thoroughly honorable in all his dealings, public as well as private. If the people of Sioux county want an attorney who will attend strictly and honorably to their business, they will elect Hugh Conley."—Seward Blade.

"We understand that Mr. Hugh Conley, formerly of this place, but now of Harrison, Neb., has been nominated by the republicans of Sioux county for the office of county attorney. Hugh's many friends in Ansley will be glad to hear of this honor conferred upon him, which is no more than his ability as a citizen attorney, and his popularity as a citizen justly merits. The republicans of Sioux county are to be congratulated upon their wise selection, and the Chronicle takes pleasure in endorsing Hugh for the office."—Ansley Chronicle.

Delinquent Tax Notice.

The county clerk is preparing a new tax list for the county treasurer and the old must be turned back to him. It is important that the old list be cleared up and those owing taxes will find it to their interest to call and pay their taxes before the list is returned to the county clerk, and thereby save costs.
M. GAYHART,
County Treasurer.
