It shall have original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, eivil cases in which the state shall be a party, mandamus, quo warranto, habeas corpus, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by inw.

Sec. 2: That section four (4) of article six [6], of the constitution of the state of Sebnash, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 4: The judges of the supreme court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large and their terms of office, except as hereinarier provided, shall be for a period of five (5) years.

Section 3: That section five (5) of article six (6) of the constitution of the state of Nebrasha be amended so as to read as follows:

No. 11—November 28, 9 cases.

No. 12—November 28, 9 cases.

The above is copied from the Lincoln Journal of August 30th and is certainly a strong reason why the number of judges of the supreme court should be increased as contemplated by the proposed amendment to the constitution as published in another column. The work of the supreme court is increasing all the time and it is between one and two the time and it is between one and two to the constitution."
