The postal authorities are getting after the papers which publish advertisementof lotteries and are making it extremly lateresting for the publishers. The lottery people will find out that Uncle Sam is not to be triffed with, and has taken the lottery quastion up to be settled.

The entire republican state ticket is gaining strength every day and will rebeive a bandsome majority on Nov. 4th. The canvass being made is a vigorous boe. The fact of L. D. Richards being at the head of the ticket is proving a tower of strength and with Tom Majors and the rest of the ticket is very acceptable to the voters of the state. The republican farmers are beginning to realize in earnest that a vote for the alliance candidate is half a vote for the democrat candidate and they do not propose to be hoodwinked by any such game.

Republican farmers in this senatorial and representative district do not have to look outside of their own party to find men to vote for who are representatives of their class. Wallace Wilson, the republican candidate for state senator, is an active practical farmer and one of the leading members af the Lawes county ale. E. L. Heath settled on a quarter ection of raw land near Rushville when he first came th this part of the state and he has continued to live there ever since and in that time he has converted that piece of land into a fine farm and he has

At the request of L. O. Hull, THE JOURNAL, last week, made the announce ment that an independent rally would be held at the court house on Friday evening and that H. G. Stewart was expected. Mr. Stewart did not arrive bere until Saturday morning and informed us that he did not expect to be here on Friday evening, in fact could not, as he had other engagements which rendered his being here out of the question. For time Mr. Hull has been posing as a great friend of the farmer and the way in which that meeting was called looked as if Mr. Stewart's name was used to get a crowd for Mr. Hull to talk to.

Because THE JOURNAL stated some at Columbus, the Marsland Tribune says nee no far as the as to the papers that have done likewise we would refer the Tribune to the Grand ad Independent, Broken Bow Leader, buy Chronicle, and others that reong the limited numof papers that come to our table many more there are will be found

The gang organ makes a great how over the report made by THE JOURNAL last week of the action of C. E. Holmes at the congressional convention at Colpaper is fighting Dorsey, and it adds umbus, and says this paper lied, for Mr. at it is the only paper in the district Holmes did accept the proxy as third delegate from Sioux county and went inknows. The Journal is not to the convention with Messrs. Davis and Dorsey, it simply stated some Hough. Mr. Holmes went to the con vention under promise that he would make a light for the seats against the delegates of the fusion-gang and on his return he gave the information to THE JOURNAL that he did not know that any recommendation to admit him had been drows. Those papers have some to made and that he did not participate in the convention. If Mr Holmes did as the Herald says he did he not only played traitor to his friends but falsifled the re port of his action in the matter. When it came to the senatorial and representa tive conventions, Mr. Holmes did go it with the gang outfit so there is evidently a "rigger in the woodpile" some where. As the matter stands there i a lie out somewhere and the skunk be longs to the Herald and C. E. Holmes ed they can skin it between them. ir.
