JOURNAL acknowledges the receipt of a large wall map with the names of Senator Paddock. It is a kind of a map this office needed.
The map was on Monday evening passed pleasantly. The attendance was large, but that did not prevent them from being present enjoying them-

John R. Story received a pension on which he will draw $12 per month in July, 1890. That amount will be paid out in his old age very soon.

W. C. Russell had a steer killed last week and placed the matter in the hands of Attorney Conley for collection. A few days ago he received the amount claimed by him in payment for the animal.

In another column we re-publish the letter of D. W. Woody to the State Journal. Our readers can judge for themselves of the truth of the statements contained therein and decide for or not it was written in the interest of Sioux county.

There was no snow fell Tuesday night and so that no mail train arrived from St. Paul from Tuesday morning until Friday evening. The engineers say the amount of snow that has fallen since the Elkhorn line has been through this country.

Judging from the remarks in the last issue of the Herald, the adjournment of the district court made two individuals happy. One of them was Coker, because he was tried and acquitted and the other the double-primary worker who admittedly was a gang member, because he was not tried. Record evidence will be taken.

There remains but two cases on the docket of the district court of Sioux county. One is the state vs. Raymond or McNab, the man who escaped from jail over a year ago and has not been found since, on the charge of horse-stealing, and the other is the case of the state vs. George Englebrecht, charged with assault with intent to kill. All the cases against the Shays and Mason are on the docket.

The Woody letters which have appeared in the State Journal have evidently got in their work, for a colony of Germans is being organized at Lincoln with a view to coming to Sioux county to locate.

Notice is hereby given that I will examine all persons who may desire to offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the primary schools of this county, at my home in Hat Creek precinct, on the 7th day of March, 1891.

A. SOUTHWORTH,
County Supt.

The winter has been severe in Montana as well as other places. Frank Russell, who went with Ed Remsburg from this county, went from their home to the postoffice, twenty miles distant.
On the return trip he lost his way and wandered around for a long time and finally reached home but was severely frozen.

The Nebraska Security Co., is this week sending out thousands of letters, circulars and lists of land for sale in Sioux county to farmers in the east.
Letters of inquiry are being received in great numbers, individuals and colonies are asking about Sioux county, and the indications are that a heavier immigration will come into Sioux county this year than ever before.

The Harrison correspondent of the Omaha Bee sent in a report of the Coker trial and entirely omitted the name of County Attorney Conley therein, although all the other attorneys in the case were mentioned. It is evident that the correspondent of the Bee does not like Mr. Conley, but it indicates a pretty narrow minded way of doing business when pretending to give news that omissions are made. If the Bee desires the support of the people of this locality it should get a correspondent who will not let his personal prejudice overshadow his statements.

For four weeks the ground has been covered with snow and the snow has a hard crust on top. The result is that stock which has to depend on the standing grass for a living are sking out an existence and not all are able to do that.
Losses are reported by various parties, and it is also stated that although the cattle were fat when the bad weather began they are rapidly becoming weakened. The experience of this winter will prove to stockgrowers that it is necessary to provide feed and shelter for such times in order to avoid serious loss.

Ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, has been named by President Harrison as the successor to the late Secretary Windom.
The selection gives very general satisfaction. The new secretary has demonstrated the fact that he is possessed of a great deal of ability.

The Pacific Short Line has passed into the hands of the Great Northern and will be pushed west from O'Neill as rapidly as possible, not only to Ogden but to the Pacific coast. That means a great deal for the south part of Sioux county, and in fact to the entire county for it will cause that part of the county to settle rapidly and greatly increase the wealth.

The tide of westward immigration is beginning unusually early this year.
Three special trains loaded with farmers, their families, stock and implements, left one locality in Illinois last week. Two of the trains stopped in Iowa and the other came to Northern Nebraska. Over 200 people were in the two parties. It is generally conceded that Northern Nebraska will receive the greatest number of settlers of any portion of the state during 1891.

The Herald evidently does not like to have its pet theories knocked out by the courts and in mentioning the decision of Judge Kinkaid insinuatingly remarks that "It is, therefore only necessary for the legislature to make signs." That paper has taken it upon itself to argue points of law at various times in the past and the arguments have always been from the standpoint taken by the gang, and if any person or court took exceptions to line of argument, the mud-batteries of the Herald were at once trained upon him. The gang is apparently a little timid about attacking the decision of Judge Kinkaid, through their organ, so they simply insinuate, but the records of the court are enforced just the same.

THE JOURNAL is informed that ere the sun rises and sets many times James E.
Boyd will take his hat, vacate the executive office at the capital and go home and John M. Thayer will still be governor of Nebraska. The people of the state in general will be glad when that takes place. The usurpation of the office by Boyd when it was evident that he had no right to it has made many people want to see him ousted. In the matter of defending the interests of the state which he had taken an oath to do, John M.
Thayer called down a torrent of abuse from a certain class which was not in keeping with the facts and circumstances, and when Gen. Thayer again takes his seat as governor, he will have occasion to feel even prouder than at any former time.

As to a Continuance.

The Herald in its last issue attempted to make out that George Englebrecht who had given bonds to answer to the charge of assault with intent to kill, is not under obligations to appear under the bond now on file for the reason that a new bond was not demanded. The following is a copy of the affidavit for continuance:

In the District Court of Sioux County, Nebraska.

State of Nebraska vs.
George Englebrecht.

George Englebrecht defendant herein being first duly sworn deposes and says that he cannot be ready for trial at the present term of this court, for want of the testimony of one William Lenox a material witness for defendant, which he has been unable to procure. That the information in this case was filed in said court on the 17th day of February 1891, the defendant has given his recognizance to appear before this court the first day of this term in obedience to which said defendant is now in this court.

Affiant further states that he has written to the above named William Lenox his witness promised to do, having agreed to be here at this time. Affiant further states that the said William Lenox resides in Saint Joseph, Buchanan county and state of Missouri.
Affiant further states that he expects to proof by said William Lenox that the assault complaint of as having been made by this defendant, was not made by this defendant but that in truth and in fact was made by the complainant herein. Affiant further states upon oath that he knows of no other witness by whom he can proof these facts and without said evidence he cannot safely proceed to trial, further affiant says that GEORGE ENGLEBRECHT, Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 18th day of February, A. D. 1891.
CONRAD LINDEMAN,
Clerk District Court.

The law in such cases is that a bond holds good until released in open court, or the case finally disposed of. It will, without doubt be to the interest of the men who are on the bond of Mr. Englebrecht to see that he is present when the district court convenes.

knowledge and belief.

CHARLES E. VERITY,

me this 27th day of February, 1891.

H. T. CONLEY,
Notary Public.

There has been a good deal of talk about a new judicial district being formed out of Sheridan, Dawes, Box Butte and Sioux counties. The best information to be had on the subject is to the effect that no such district will be formed. If any change is made it will most likely be that an additional judge will be provided for the 12th district. If Boyd has the appointing power at that time it is likely that A. W. Crites ex-receiver at the land office will be named for the place, but we hope ere that time that Boyd will be out and then a republican will be in the line of appointment. Two men in the western part of the district have been favorably spoken of in that connection, Hon.
A. Bartow, of Chadron, and Hon. W. W.
Wood, of Rushville. The former has stated that he did not aspire to the position so that it is more than likely that Mr. Wood will be the man, should the legislature make such provision.

Experience proves that nothing else so surely destroys scrofula as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
