

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL

J. L. SIMMONS, Proprietor.

HARRISON, NEBRASKA

Who Will Take Swift's Place? WASHINGTON, March 13.—The sudden death of John F. Swift, minister to Japan, will tend to cut short the president's outing.

Shot Himself. SIOUX CITY, Ia., March 13.—F. A. Gale of Canton, S. D., committed suicide yesterday afternoon at the Commercial hotel by shooting himself in the temple.

Had Been Murdered. TOTTENVILLE, L. I., March 13.—The body of a middle aged man was washed ashore near Elliott's wharf. The wrists and elbows were tied behind him with a stout cord.

Married Again. CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., March 13.—Rev. James G. Campbell, pastor of the Methodist church at West Lafayette, and Miss Flora Darter, of this city, were married yesterday afternoon.

Could Not Stand Disgrace. VIRGINIA, NEV., March 13.—Bella Prausch, a fifteen-year-old girl, was suspended from school for thirty days for misbehavior.

She Was a Good Shot. COMPTON, TEXAS, March 13.—Mrs. John Dunn shot and killed a Mexican three miles from here. She claims that he burglarized her family residence last night, and after she had tracked him half a mile she came upon his camp.

Teacher.—"The Great Salt Lake in Utah is so extremely salty that no fish can live in it."

Small Boy (Incredulously).—"Can't you make it?"

PALMER ELECTED.

The Most Exciting Scenes Ever Witnessed on a Representative Floor.

The House Filled at 10:20 and in Less than an Hour was Packed Full.

MANY LADIES PRESENT

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 12.—The caucus of republican senators and representatives adjourned without taking action on yesterday's course, and at 11:30 the republican steering committee met to adopt the course of action.

General Palmer is 75 years old, but has all the physical vigor of a strong man of 50. He has been closely identified with Illinois politics for forty years.

Arrival of the Remains of Senator Hearst. SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—The special train conveying the remains of Senator Hearst arrived from Washington yesterday.

Lynched to a Tree. MILAN, TENN., March 11.—Last Wednesday night a mob dragged Henry Sanders, aged 20, from his bed and lynched him to a tree, near his house, for an assault committed on Miss Angie Belton, aged 16, last Christmas.

Charged With Murder. NEWCASTLE, PA., March 11.—Mrs. Eider, a handsome young woman 22 years of age, was arrested at the depot yesterday on her arrival from Pittsburgh, on the charge of the murder of her step-mother, Mrs. Levi Eichman, in Wampun, Pa., July, 1880.

Married for Money. On the promenade: Flora Lightly—Who was that gentleman who bowed as he passed you? Laura Flightly—He? Why, I declare. It looks like Augustus.

Charge for Suicide. Meek Stranger—"Can you change a $30 bill?" Clothing Dealer (snappishly)—"No, I can't change no twenty-dollar bill."

Have Declined the Case. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—The interstate commerce commission in an opinion by the commissioner Morrison decided the case of Cox Bros. & Co. against the Lehigh Valley road.

Foreshadow a Renewal of Hostilities. COLUMBIA, S. C., March 14.—The state has received a letter from its private correspondence at Aspidia, dated February 12, which foreshadow an early renewal of hostilities in the Samoan islands.

A Terrible Storm. LONDON, March 11.—The worst snow storm of the season is sweeping over the United Kingdom, the wind blowing at a fearful velocity, driving the snow around in drifts two and three feet deep.

There was an extraordinary spectacle on the strand when the theaters were turned out. The very few cabs that were about the Jarrys, who faced the storm, turned up their noses at anything under quadruple fares.

It is said he has been promised a knighthood on the coming queen's birthday to satisfy him. Should he desert with his following it would surely bring the downfall of the government.

New York, March 11.—Both cabins of the ferry boat J. W. Waterbury, of the Houston street line, were crowded when it started from its Williamsburg slip at 8:20 o'clock yesterday morning.

On Thursday afternoon while R. E. Martin was adjusting a belt in the Crew & Martin roller mills at Ponca, a belt from behind caught him by the coat and twisted him over the shaft, flinging him into the floor in a gentle manner.

A Business Man's and Farmers' association has been organized at Valparaiso. Rev. John Scherer has left Crete to take charge of a new church at Avoca, Ia.

The firm of Ferguson & Eddy, flour and feed dealers of Norfolk, has failed with liabilities $1,000 and assets $600. Malicious persons broke the glass and badly damaged the casings of the windows on the new residence of Rev. Mr. Jacobus of Delta.

Mrs. Regina Durr, an early settler in Otoe county, died recently at the home of her daughter near Nebraska City, aged seventy-two.

An effort is being made to establish a camp of Sons of Veterans at Blue Springs. There are forty young men there eligible for membership.

James Craig, an inmate of the incurable insane asylum at Hastings, died recently and his remains were sent to Elgin for burial. Craig had been an inmate of the state institution for thirteen years.

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS.

Beitrand had a coal famine last week. Work on the new creamery at Friend is being rapidly pushed.

Schuyler Jones, and old settler of Saine county, died recently.

A Rebekah lodge is to be organized at Friend with fifty members.

The Colfax county fair will be held September 28 and October 1 and 2.

F. J. Hale of Battle Creek recently shipped three carloads of horses to North Carolina.

William H. West a live stock dealer of Cairo, died at Grand Island of heart disease.

The Champlin board of trade is considering a proposition to secure a cheese factory and creamery.

L. E. Fenner, twenty years of age, has been appointed superintendent of schools of Dawson county in place of Prof. Blanchard, resigned.

William Scribner, who perished in the flood at Tipton, Cal., was formerly a resident of Loup City and was a son-in-law of Mrs. L. A. Rossetter.

The other evening a woman stepped up to the desk of the Pacific Hotel at Norfolk and inquired if one J. A. Meadows was stopping there.

S. H. Barnes, of Superior leased the City hotel and White Elephant livery barn at Fairmont.

W. H. Briggs, a victim of the disastrous Deadwood wreck, is in Plattsmouth recovering from his bruises.

Mrs. O. P. Sullenger of Ponca, has received the general agency for the L. P. Miller & Co. publishing house of Chicago, and will henceforth travel in the interest of that company.

Miss Wallace and Charley Lane, two young fellows who a year ago were sent to the penitentiary for breaking open a freight car for the purpose of stealing some whisky, arrived home Wednesday evening, having served out their time.

Orin Barber, of Pender, lost one of his great toes Saturday. He had climbed up on a corn sheller, when his foot slipped and caught in a cogwheel, nearly cutting off his big toe.

On Tuesday afternoon while R. E. Martin was adjusting a belt in the Crew & Martin roller mills at Ponca, a belt from behind caught him by the coat and twisted him over the shaft, flinging him into the floor in a gentle manner.

A Business Man's and Farmers' association has been organized at Valparaiso. Rev. John Scherer has left Crete to take charge of a new church at Avoca, Ia.

The firm of Ferguson & Eddy, flour and feed dealers of Norfolk, has failed with liabilities $1,000 and assets $600. Malicious persons broke the glass and badly damaged the casings of the windows on the new residence of Rev. Mr. Jacobus of Delta.

Mrs. Regina Durr, an early settler in Otoe county, died recently at the home of her daughter near Nebraska City, aged seventy-two.

An effort is being made to establish a camp of Sons of Veterans at Blue Springs. There are forty young men there eligible for membership.

James Craig, an inmate of the incurable insane asylum at Hastings, died recently and his remains were sent to Elgin for burial. Craig had been an inmate of the state institution for thirteen years.

The horses stolen from Farmer Gilmore of Custer county were found by the sheriff the other day in the possession of Thomas Catlin who had traded for them. The thieves, two young men, have not been discovered.

Dan Porter, the escaped murderer, who committed suicide the other day near Fairmont, Mo., to avoid recapture, was to have been hung at Quincy, Ill., March 20. His victim was Edwin D. Smith, at one time a resident of Nebraska City.

Small boy—"Can't you make it?"

Merchant—"Apprehend on your lady's Dummer."—Beats most phenomenal one of, gave me such a hot glow it yet, it express East."

Visiting Aunt—"Theater last evening." Sweet Girl—"Yes, Soffello, the young saw here the last ones with the lovely some eyes and gave the one who."

Visiting Aunt—"tragedy in a comedy." Sweet Girl—"Theater."—Street & Smith.

Anxious Mother—"parlor door last evening." Niecefello's face, yours."

Lovely Daughter—"so near sighted." Good News."

Mrs. Mervill—"word in the Eagle." Ponsoby?

Ponsoby (promptly)—Miss Mervill, know? Tell me, the difficult to pronounce Ponsoby—When Harper's Bazar.

Cochran—"I see this umbrella into to you?"

Gilroy—"Which umbrella?" Cochran—"The one I see."

Farmer Peastr—"did you learn at school?" Son—"I learned it thing."

Farmer Peastr—"get some milk to have a bout." Man.

Waiter (hoping for sometimes)—"genuine sah."

Broker—"Buy C. C. Waiter (doleful)—& Smith's Good News."

"Here's a pretty wish it," said the man.

"Your kindness and grace, ma'am," said Watkins, "but I can't wear this silk dress."

When Colonel New proposed a toast arose and said: "God bless her! With all her still."

New York Herald a tumult there was great day!

Cynicus—"I don't see a sensation. People and say, "Wonder what is about?"

Express Gazette—"ship this bread by you to make the change. Agent—That make your bread but I make my bread."