Bagged a Horse Thief. The first of the week Sheriff Reidy got a description of a man who was wanted in Dawes county, to answer to the charge of horse stealing. His name was George Benham, and he had been tried in the district court of Dawes county last year for stealing cattle and the jury disagreed and he had been released on bail. Recently he and a companion were discovered stealing goods at a farm house, but fled on horseback and when followed they drew revolvers on their pursuers. A man by the name of Mo-another man followed them to the 33 ranch in this county where Benham had them being the ones missed by McMillan, and they also took the saddle, bedding, rifle, etc., that Benham had brought of C. F. Coffee's, with him, but they did not care to tackle the man. Word was sent to Sheriff Reidy, and also the information that the morning the sheriff spied his man at Hoyt's livery barn and proceeded to arrest him. He kept him until about the middle of the afternoon when the deputy sheriff of Dawes county arrived and took
