

Mrs. Grimwood Arrives. CALCUTTA, May 1.—Mrs. Grimwood wife of the late political agent at Manipur, who was murdered with Commissioner Quinton and others, has arrived here and says the whole disaster was due to the rashness of Quinton in refusing to listen to the sensible advice given him in regard to negotiations with the native chief. He endeavored to entrap the assassin (brother of the deposed maharajah), with the intention of placing him under arrest, but the assassin, learning of this, not only failed to appear but planned a trap in which the British were caught. Mrs. Grimwood's story has caused severe reflections to be cast upon the manner in which the entire Manipur incident has been handled from the time the maharajah was deposed down to the apparently delay in pushing forward the British forces.

A Pan-American University. GALVESTON, May 1.—Articles of incorporation have been forwarded to the secretary of state of the "Pan-American Education Promoting Association." Its aims are to promote and establish and solicit aid for a Pan-American university upon the coast of Mexico, where the languages, habits, customs and trades of the American republics may be learned, thereby promoting mutual interests and extending the acquaintance of the commerce of American people. The incorporators are: J. L. Hampton and George Briggs, Ohio; ex-Governor Evans, Colorado; O. M. Sherman, Kansas; Prof. O. H. Cooper, Junge W. B. Lockhart, Hon. Walter Gresham, Hon. F. S. Dana and Hon. R. L. Fulton, Texas.

A Negro Licked the Drummer. DIX MOINES, May 1.—[See Special]—An exciting encounter took place in a room in the Kirkwood house yesterday morning in which blood flowed freely. The combat was between Noah Piper, a traveling man representing a book publishing house of Chicago, and a colored porter named Ray. The quarrel arose over the presence of a pretty white girl in the traveling man's room whom the colored man claimed as his "property." The traveling man got the worst of the encounter, and all three were landed in jail under fines imposed by the police court. The white man is said to come of a good family and has a family. A charge of lewdness has been filed against him and the girl, which in this state is a penitentiary offense.

Don't Want Strangers. FORT CUSTER, MONT., May 1.—Plenty Cause, Crow chief, with about one thousand Indians, came to Fort Custer and talked with General Brisben about the proposition to lease the lands to cattlemen for grazing purposes. They have cattle of their own, he said, and did not want strangers on the reservation. Several firms had 50,000 head of cattle grazing on their lands and they were enough. No more must come. The Indians appeared angry. General Brisben said he would notify the great father of what they said.

Was Warned to Get. WASHINGTON, May 1.—In regard to the instructions issued some time ago by the commissioner of Indian affairs, ordering the removal of intruders from the Chickasaw Nation, it was stated at the Indian bureau that these 6,000 people never had a shadow of title or claim to the land they occupy since early as July, 1890, were warned to leave the territory before the following November. Those who remained have done so as their removal will certainly be insisted upon.

Suspect of the Ripper. LONDON, April 30.—[See Special]—It is reported that the unknown man who committed suicide at Wimbledon some three weeks ago, by shooting himself has been identified as "Jack the Ripper." One of the means of the alleged identification was the finding in the pockets of the dead man's clothes papers identical with that of which the various "Ripper" warnings have been written.

Wheat Shipments. GALVESTON, TEX., May 1.—The tide of wheat shipments to the seaboard has turned and is flowing to Galveston. A train of eighteen loaded cars of wheat arrived here from Sumner county, Kansas, every car being fully decorated. It was sidetracked and the citizens of Galveston will visit the train and hold a general celebration over the arrival of the first full train load of wheat to this port. Another train enroute is expected to arrive soon.

He was in town one day last week and exhibited letters to us showing conclusively that he is one of the heirs to the vast fortune in New York known as the Trinity church property. This tract of land was leased in 1792 by the great grandfather, named Winslow, for the term of ninety-nine years. It is now about to revert to the heirs, of whom there are twenty, and as the property is said to be valued at $200,000,000 this will give Frank about $10,000,000 in his own right.

The finding of some notes in the possession of a Lincoln prostitute signed by Joe Hutchinson and given to his father to pay for a farm has resulted in the old man Hutchinson being landed in jail at Wahoo. When young Joe found where his notes were he was very indignant and proceeded to raise the wind a little, and in retaliation the old man got up on his ear and threatened to shoot his son, Joe, as soon as he could lay eyes on him. The other day he left Ashland for his son's home near Memphis with blood in his eye and a revolver in his pocket. As soon as he left some one telegraphed to Memphis to send a man post haste to Joe Hutchinson and tell him to come to Ashland by another route and thus evade trouble. Joe did as requested, and when he reached Ashland he swore out a complaint, and when his father returned he was promptly arrested and bound over. He could not give bonds and so went to jail.

Dastardly Attempt to Assassinate.

St. Joseph, April 29.—Emmet Wells, a prominent merchant of Rushville, in the southern part of Buchanan county, was the victim of a willful attempt at murder and is now hovering between life and death, with but little chance for his recovery. Wells closed his store and started home. As he was passing a small frame barn near his dwelling house some person emptied the contents of a heavily loaded shotgun into his head, neck, right shoulder and right arm. As he fell to the ground he caught a glimpse of the would-be-murderer disappearing down an alley, carrying the shotgun over his shoulder. Mrs. Wells ran to the door of her residence and also saw the running man. She described him as being of short stature, heavily built and attired in dark clothing. As it was early in the evening when the shooting occurred a crowd soon gathered. Wells was found unconscious and bleeding profusely. He was carried to his home a few yards distant and physicians called. His wounds were found to be very serious. This morning Sheriff Spratt and Prosecuting Attorney Vorles went to Rushville to investigate the matter. Upon their arrival two young men, named Orran Elliott and Maurice Jones, were arrested on suspicion. Elliott is a nephew of Wells and Jones is from Hiawatha, Kan. Both are eighteen years of age and have been attending a business college in St. Joseph. Jones claims to know nothing of the affair and says that he went to Rushville with Elliott to spend Sunday. He says that he can prove his whereabouts at the time of the shooting. The description given by Mrs. Wells fits him exactly. Elliott is not only a nephew of Wells but a ward, the latter having in his possession some $3,000 of the boy's money. Mr. Wells was able to make a statement this afternoon and said:

"Young Elliott has frequently quarrelled with me and has on more than one occasion threatened my life. He is wild and reckless and because he could not have his way in everything he tried to stir up strife with me. Some three years ago he was working in my store and during the time he was with me he stole about $300. I discharged him and at the time threatened me. I afterward persuaded him to go to school. He may or may not be guilty of shooting me, although I must say that in the least he acted suspiciously when he came to Rushville on Friday evening."

The Murderous Italians. NEWARK, N. J., April 29.—While Thomas Bulger, with three male and two female companions, were sitting on a stoop, four Italians passed. One of the girls made a remark about the nationality of the passers-by, whereupon one of the Italians returned and stabbed Bulger in the abdomen, nearly disemboweling him. The offending girl fled down the street, pursued by the infuriated Italian, who was fast overtaking her, when John Powers intercepted him. The Italian turned upon Powers and plunged the knife into his side. Both the wounded men were taken to the hospital, where Bulger died. Powers has a slight chance of recovery. The murderer was arrested.

Cattle Which May Be Moved. WASHINGTON, April 29.—The department of agriculture issues a notice that cattle which have been at least ninety days in the described area in northern Texas may be moved by mail into Colorado, Wyoming and Montana for grazing and slaughter only in accordance with the regulations of said states, provided they are not shipped into any other state or territory or be allowed in pens or on trails or ranges to be occupied or crossed by cattle going to eastern markets before December 1. All cars used must be disinfected upon loading.

Taken the Bath-Tub Route. BALTIMORE, Md., April 29.—Albert B. Bessell, a baker aged about 45 years, was drowned in a bath tub yesterday evening at his home, 630 Gold street, in Northwest Baltimore. Dr. Silas Baldwin, coroner, who was notified by the police of the occurrence, stated in his report that Bessell had committed suicide, and inquest was unnecessary. The tub was not long but was deep. When found Bessell's head and body were in the water, which was pouring over the tub. He was out of work and in bad health. It is said Bessell had for some time been despondent. He had no children.

A Lunatic Does Fatal Work. GREENSBURG, O., April 29.—Lorenzo Coleman, the insane son of a well-to-do farmer, fired a shotgun from an upstairs window at his mother and sister, who were in the garden. Both women were stricken down, and when George Coleman, a farm hand, came to their assistance, young Coleman fired at him. The maniac's sister is likely to die, but his mother and Coleman will recover. Coleman said he thought the shooting would reduce the price of coffee.

Postponed the Behring Sea Case. WASHINGTON, April 29.—The supreme court today formally postponed the Behring Sea case until the second Monday in the next October term. The lottery advertisement cases were also postponed despite the vigorous efforts on the part of the attorneys for the New Orleans and Mobile papers, who argued that postponement would leave their papers with lottery advertisements excluded from the mail.

JACK THE RIPPER CAPTURED

His Room Covered With Blood, and His Clothes Found Dripping in Blood.

HE WAS JEALOUS OF HER. New York, May 1.—Inspector Byrne has at last fastened the crime for the murder of Carrie Brown. The murderer is Frenchy No. 1, who was arrested on Friday night less than twenty-four hours after committing the crime, and who has been under lock and key ever since. On the night of the murder Frenchy No. 1 occupied room 33 in the East River hotel with a woman by the name of Mary Ann Lopez.

This room was across the hall from that occupied by the Brown woman and her unknown companion. From information in the possession of the police it appears that the murdered woman's companion left her some time before 1 o'clock on Friday morning. George Francois (Frenchy No. 1) had been at one time the lover of the old woman, but for sometime had been insanely jealous of her. He heard her companion leave the room, and shortly afterwards he got up leaving his room mate, Mary Ann Lopez, asleep, and crossing the hall, he deliberately strangled and disembowled his victim. This is the story of the police and is substantiated by the following facts:

When Frenchy No. 1 had completed his murderous work, he recrossed the hall and entered the room No. 33. In the room he left the evidence of his guilt. When the police made their investigation traces of blood were to be found on every side. The only chair in the room was covered with blood and smeared on the clothes of the murderer he having sat down upon it when he entered the room.

The bed clothes were found to be covered with blood, the murderer, some time during the night, having thrown himself upon the bed. His stockings, he having removed his shoes to do the bloody work, were soaked with blood and his clothing was also covered with blood. On the walls and ceiling of the little room, many small spots of blood were found the man having evidently entered the room with his hands reeking with blood and snapped his fingers to get rid of it. Scrapings from under the man's nails are said by chemists to contain blood.

He Does Not Care. CHICAGO, May 1.—The minister to China, Blair, was questioned regarding the report that the Chinese government protested against his being sent. He said he knew nothing of it beyond the newspaper reports and could take no cognizance until officially notified. He will continue his journey to the west unless recalled by the state department, which knows his whereabouts. Mr. Blair does not think there is any good reason why China should object to him. What he did in congress he did from conviction. What he did in the matter of Chinese immigration received the endorsement of the government, and the government is responsible, not him personally.

Later—Mr. Blair received a telegram from Secretary of State Blaine requesting him to return to Washington. The message contained no other information and Mr. Blair went back. He said he had no official notification of any change and knew nothing of the rumors that he is to be sent to Japan or Persia. Until the receipt of the message that he was not aware that he was not to continue his journey to China. So far as official knowledge goes he is still the accredited minister to that country. Personally he does not care whether he goes or stays.

Another Big Blaze. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., May 1.—A fire which started in Campbell & Co.'s furniture factory on King street early Tuesday morning was gotten under control at 7 o'clock, after destroying property covering twenty acres, with a loss of $250,000, on which there was an insurance of over $150,000. The heaviest losers are as follows: Campbell & Co., furniture factory, loss $75,000, insurance $50,000. East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia railroad company, freight depot and contents and seventy-five car loads of freight, loss $12,500, insurance not known. A large quantity of lumber in the vicinity and a number of buildings were burned, bringing the loss up to the total given. While this fire was in progress a second broke out in another part of town, doing damage to the amount of $20,000.

LONDON, May 1.—The lumber yard of Duffy & Sons, at Bernardsey, and a number of tenements near by burned.

Gold Coins. NEW YORK, May 1.—Gold coin to the amount of $250,000 has been ordered for export.

Gold coin to the amount of $200,000 was taken at the sub-treasury Tuesday for shipment to Cuba.

School Land Decision. WASHINGTON, May 1.—The secretary of the interior has decided that the recent act amending the statutes as to school idemnty lands applies to North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington and takes the place of provisions relating to this matter in the enabling act. These states are entitled to idemnty for sections 10 and 30 when those sections were settled upon prior to survey or are fractional or are wanting in townships for any cause.

The Carpenters Will Strike

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—The carpenters in this city will strike for eight hours and an increase in the rate of pay. The stone masons who are not out now also strike. The contractors have agreed to lock out all the other branches of the building trades as well as the strikers because they are all under a sort of confederation. There are about 9,000 workers in the various trades here.

Later—The master builders concluded not to lock out the other trades, and the result will be that all will be at work on the present contracts until they have gone as far as they can without the carpenters, when they will find themselves simply unable to proceed, not locked out. The master builders determined on this move to protect the builders in other cities and so the trades outside the carpenters could not have a pretext for striking for eight hours and thus causing the movement to spread. Reports from many towns in this section say the carpenters are generally striking for eight hours, and the indications point to the strike spreading rapidly.

Big Forest Fire. NEW YORK, May 2.—The most destructive fire of many years is raging in South Jersey. The great pine region and cranberry district from Pleasant Point and Bay Head on the north, down to Egg harbor, sixty miles south, and from the Atlantic to points from thirty to forty miles inland is swept by fire. Thousands of acres of pine and cedar timber have been burned, many towns have been threatened, dozens of houses have been destroyed and fears are entertained for the safety of the people in the devastated country. So dense is the smoke that hangs over the burning forest that farmers going from town to town have to grope their way along the roads. Rain has not fallen in weeks, and the inhabitants are unable to check the spread of the flames. At many places residents have been forced to flee to the open country to save their lives, leaving their household goods behind to burn. At one place a sick woman, covered by water soaked blankets was carried out of her burning home in bed. A rough estimate places the loss at over $1,000,000 and many farmers will be impoverished.

Nine Hours for one Year. COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—The determination of the executive board of the United mine workers and the presidents of the state organization to defer the strike in the interest of the eight hour labor day does not seem to be definitely settled even among the miners of Ohio. The executive board made a proposition to the Ohio operators to continue at the old rate of mining and accept a nine hour day for a year, beginning Monday. The operators refuse to accept unless they can have the assurance that the agreement will not embarrass them to such an extent that competing fields like Illinois and Pennsylvania will beat them in the market.

The Ohio miners also contended and considered the matter. Some of the miner delegates, representing strong districts, are disappointed over the action of the executive board in postponing the strike for the eight hour day.

A Wonderful Oil Well. PITTSBURGH, May 2.—At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the drillers on a wild cat gas well on the Best farm, near Leeburg, Armstrong county, had reached a depth of 200 feet, the tools were drawn for the purpose of changing bits when, without previous indication of any kind an immense volume of oil gushed from the casing head high into the air. The alarmed drillers quickly extinguished the fire and stood gazing in astonishment at the unprecedented phenomenon. There was no preparation of any kind for saving the oil and it is going to waste. The well flowed over 100 barrels yesterday and it is in an entirely new district and several miles from any producing territory. The heavy production at the depth of 200 feet is a new wrinkle in oil production.

The Structure Collapsed. LONDON, May 2.—While the Brighton express, crowded with passengers on her way to business in the city, was crossing the bridge at Norwood, about 7 miles south of London, the structure collapsed. Six of the rear carriages fell into the stream beneath. The carriages were smashed to atoms and very many passengers sustained more or less injuries, but not a person on board was killed.

150 Barrels of Oil. BRADFORD, PA., May 2.—A spark from a locomotive ignited a wooden tank containing 150 barrels of oil, a short distance west of here. The fire communicated to the woods and soon spread over ten acres. The fire departments of Bradford and Kennell labored all the afternoon to subdue the flames. Few oil derricks and engine houses were burned.

Final Test of a Big Gun. WASHINGTON, April 28.—Ordinance officers completed at the proving ground at Indian Head, the final test of the third ten-inch, steel rifled gun for the double turreted monitor Miantonomah. With 230 pounds of Dupont Brown powder and with fifteen tons pressure the projectile obtained a muzzle velocity of 2,110 feet per second, probably the best result on record for this kind of a gun using Brown powder.

Work of Jack the Ripper. NEW YORK, April 27.—The other has concluded an autopsy remains of the woman known as "Jack the Ripper." The only importance was the discovery mutilations were evidently made the woman still lived, and it was that the struggles of the wretch prevented the butchering the mutilation he intended. Inspector Byrne made a statement to the effect that while the police arrested the murderer they he is and hope to have him before long. The murderer of Frenchy, or Francis, is known that Frenchy spent night with the murdered woman stayed at the hotel on the cousin perpetrated the murder.
