Superior, Omaha, Missouri Valley, Sioux City, St. Paul, Duluth and points north.

and the lumber regions in Wisconsin.

New York and all points in the west. Palace sleeping cars on all

Last week some parties made a trip through Cottonwood and White River precincts in the interest of the state fair exhibit. They report the farmers in excellent spirits and desirous that an exhibit from Sioux county be sent to the state fair. They brought in a sample of wheat from the farm of Robert Ferguson which is 54 inches high. That gentlemen also has cherry trees, of the Early Richmond variety which are bearing fruit. Some Egyptian rye from the field of Andrew Procumier is the finest we ever saw. Commissioner Grove and G. A. Dove have fields of wheat which are estimated will yield not less than 20 bushels per acre, and all the crops that were put in in a workmanlike manner promise good returns. Hurrah for Sioux county!

W. O. Patterson has the addition to Turner's store building ready.

G. W. Henry has the contract for Prairie native lumber mill on 12th Street, 10 miles west of Harrison. J. L. Kress.

The residence of Tim Jones family has been enlarged and improved recently. Messrs. Hart and Padden did the work.

Rev. McMillan came up here Thursday and held a special service yesterday Rev. Bates did not arrive until Friday afternoon, the train being late.

The annual meeting of the northwestern Baptist association will be held at Gordon, Neb., August 11th and 12th.
An interesting program has been prepared.

H. L. Simcock has recently placed a new striped pole in front of his shop to let the wayfarer know where to go when in need of anything in his line.

S. H. Jones is having the interior of his residence neatly painted and papered.
Dr. Bartlett is the artist.

A telegraph to the Omaha "E" a few days ago stated that John Johnson had been captured at Hyannis while advertising a dance. He will likely be taken to Sioux City by answer to the claim of homesteading as it will be remembered that he jumped his bond a short time ago.

During the past few days we have taken a number of short drives into the country in different directions and among a residue of eighteen years in Nebraska we never saw finer looking crops of all kinds of small grain and vegetables.
Sioux county is forcing to the front in good style.

J. F. Yanders, the tailor, will be in Harrison within the next ten days to present a line of samples of fall and winter goods, including overcoats, suits, pantings, etc., of the latest style and those in need of anything in his line will do well to see his samples.
He guarantees his work.

A good many of the farmers are preparing to sow wheat this fall. They believe it will bring them better returns than spring sowing and also enables them to do the work at a season of the year when they are not so badly crowded with work as they are in the spring.
Fall wheat, as a rule, is of better quality than spring wheat and will command a better price in market.

A number of packages of sugar-beet seed were distributed last spring from the department at Washington. Uncle Jude Ross has an account of stewardship and has sent a supply of beet-sugar seed, large, etc., to the committee asking that samples be sent for analysis. All who received packages of seed are requested to call at Tim Jones' store and get the supplies for sending in samples and reports. It costs nothing. Uncle Sam carries it free.

B. E. Pratt, state lecturer of the alliance, addressed the people at the court house this afternoon. He stated that the alliance was not a political organization, but was intended to educate the people. Taking that as true, no reasonable man can object to the alliance, in fact, the more of them the better, for in the intelligence of the masses lies the strength of the nation. The arguments of the speaker for the most part were fair and were listened to with attention.
Owing to the heavy session the attendance was not as large as was expected. After the close of the speaking the county library held a social session and after-that closed the people's independent party was organized, the names of which appear in another column.

A question of a good deal of interest comes up before school districts today by reason of the law passed last winter which compels school districts to purchase books. The point now to be decided is "What books shall be purchased?" It is desirable to secure as much uniformity throughout the county as possible. The reports show that Harper's readers, Swinton's spellers, Barnes' geography and history; Robinson's arithmetic; Reed & Kellogg's grammars; Spencerian copy books and Townsend's civil government are used more than any others in Sioux county, and as they are all good books it may be to the advantage of all districts to adopt such books. The publishing houses will contract with districts at a certain price, but unless a contract is made a rate 25 per cent higher is charged on all orders. It is therefore to the interest of the taxpayers that contracts be made. It might be well to add that school district officers should beware of school book agents, who come around and talk "cheap" and try to induce them to contract for books which are not in general use in the county. If the officials of all districts will confer with the county superintendent in the matter a great deal of confusion and trouble can be avoided.
