Best Line to the East.

The Burlington Route B. & M. R. R. is running elegantly equipped passenger traines without change from Newcastle, Wyoming and Crawford, Nebraska, direct to Lincoln, Nebraska, making connection at that point with their own through trains for Denver, Cheyenne, and all points west, and for Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Omaha, Peoria, Chicago, and all points east.

Remember this is the only line by which you can take sleeping car from Crawford in the evening arriving in Lincoln and Omaha the next afternoon, and in Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis the following morning.

We're After You.

The greatest of western papers, the Weekly State Journal, is determined to double its circulation this fall. To do this the paper has been enlarged to twelve pages every week; new departments added, and every column freshened and brightened by crisp and original ideas. The Journal is the true and able exponent of western enterprise and thought. It has grown apace with the progress of of our commonwealth and stands to-day at the head of western newspapers, equalled by few and excelled by none.

This will be an exceptional fall and winter for reading. Every man who thinks for himself and wants his boys and girls to do the same, should have the Weekly Journal in his family. Write for a sample. You need only to see the paper to appreciate it. Send twenty-five cents for a three months' trial subscription. You will then become a regular reader. Eighty-five per cent of trial subscribers stick. That's a good record. Published at the state capitol the Journal is more in touch with the great masses of the people, and the questions that agitate the hour, than any of its competitors. Don't forget to send for a sample paper. We want you to see one. The paper itself will do the rest. One dollar per year. Address, Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

A Liberal Proposition.

Who has not heard of that paragon of of family papers, the enterprising and popular Weekly Detroit Free Press? For a generation its name has become a household word and it has become a synonym for all that is excellent, pure and elevating in journalism. It is delightfully entertaining without resort to cheap sensationalism, instructive without being prosy or pedantic. Combining the literary qualities of the expensive magizine with the bright, breezy characteristics of the newspaper, it leaves nothing to be desired by the average reader. It is looked upon as a welcome visitor by every family who reads it, while thousands regard it as indispensable and would on no account go without it. An enormous circulation of 125,000 copies per week attests its wonderful popularity. Recognizing the fact that there are those who are unfamiliar with its unsurpassing merits as home paper, the publishers offer to send The Free Press to them for the balance of the year (over five months) for only 30 cents—a club of four for $1.00 or a club of ten for $2.00. All our readers should subscribe at once. Send for sample copy.

The Shah of Persia

Though advanced in years, has hair of raven hue. Gray hairs are strictly prohibited in his dominions, and hence the large shipments to that country of Ayer's Hair Vigor, by the use of which the Shah's subjects save not only their hair but their heads. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores the natural color of the hair. It should be on every toilet-table.

"Some time ago my hair began to fade and to fall out so badly that I thought I should be bald; but the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has restored the original color and made my hair strong, abundant, and healthy. It does not fall out any more."—Addie Shaffer, 540 Race st., Cincinnati, Ohio.

"My hair (which had partly turned gray) was restored to its youthful color and beauty by the use of a few bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor. I shall continue to use it, as there is no better dressing for the hair."—Caldo Gapp, Georgeana, Ala.
