Don't forget that the barber shop is one door east of the postoffice, when you want a shave, haircut or shampoo.

I sell the McCormick binders and mowers, the best on earth. Come if you examine them before buying elsewhere.

G. H. Tietzen

Mrs. W. E. Moore injures one of her eyes a few days by the breaking of a boiler handle. It will not injure the eye permanently.

—Lumber—First-class native lumber and shingles constantly on hand at no mill off East Boggy, 13 miles east of Harrison. J. E. Ainsze

E. J. Wilcox has our banks for some nice string beans, and J. M. Daniels for some turnips. Such things are always appreciated.

A shipment of twenty car loads of cattle was made from Van Tussell yesterday bailed for New York, from whence they will be transported to Europe.

If you have friends in the east who want to know something of this country and us their name and address and we will send them a sample copy of this JOURNAL.

The late showers keep things growing and have come so gently that no damage has been done crops. Showers of hail have visited some portions of the country but did no damage.

Parties growing sugar beets for competition at the state fair should have their samples here, packed and ready to go in the car with the county exhibit, on the day set by the committee for loading the car. If you do not do this you will have to pay some freight.

The Farmers report that they are increasing the best crop ever raised in Sioux County.

W. H. Smith has had a hydraulic tank put in at his place which takes water from a spring into his house. It will prove a great convenience.

WANTED.—A 10% a compensated and to be general housewife at the Agassiz Stock Farm. Good wages and steady employment. J. H. Cook.

We understand that quite a number of young people from this county are preparing to enter the Western Normal College, Shenandoah, Iowa, August 20th, 1891.

Don't forget to get something ready for the state fair exhibit. Don't be afraid that what you have is not good enough. Send the best you have and deliver it to the committee room of your president or bring it to Harrison.

We have had many inquiries of late about the Western Normal College. Address: Prof. Wm. M. Cram, Shenandoah, Iowa; and he will gladly send you all the information desired, free.

Last Saturday the little seven-year-old son of J. P. Scholtz strayed from his parents while in town, and as soon as it was discovered a search was instituted, and he was finally found lying in the road in the north part of town asleep.

H. T. Conley brought us some information Saturday, and also some news between the small towns, progress and material facts of interest for this year. Next year he will have much more to tell us.

Soon make up your mind where you will attend school next year, and you have seen an announcement from the Western Normal College, Shenandoah, Iowa. Address: Wm. M. Cram, and you will receive a catalog free.

The price of wheat is going up and dealers are on the lookout for grain to buy. It is predicted that wheat will bring $4.25 per bushel in Harrison before long. With the good crop, such prices will make the farmers happy.

Tell your friends to come out on the harvest excursions. Let them look the country over, and think what to think of it. Men especially wanted in Sioux County. There are hundreds of thousands of acres of land waiting to be settled on and tilled.

John Peterson left his team standing in front of his house, one day last week and the team ran away and went into a gulch, and after upsetting the wagon got in such shape that they had to stay there. A search was instituted but the team was not found for three days, during which time they had neither food or water. But little damage was done.

There will be a basket meeting in Blimpson's grove, Aug. 23, at 11 a.m., after preceding dinner will be served. This will be the last service held at the Redick appointment this conference year. Sept. 6th will be the last service held at the Synthesis school before this conference year, at which time the probationers will be taken into full membership.

E. E. E. Remick, Pastor.

For the State Fair.

On last Saturday the committee on auto fair exhibited to arrange for getting the matter in shape. Eli Smith was elected chairman and David Bartlett, secretary. A. R. Knousky resigned as member of the committee for Wards, not present and B. F. Thomas vice appointed to fill the vacancy.

A finance committee consisting of C. H. Weller, G. C. Jameson and S. H. Jones was appointed. It was decided to build an addition to the big house on the south side of the fair ground 14 by 20 feet, and to build the same of native pine lumber. The committee will have another meeting on Thursday, Aug. 27, to complete arrangements. The committee men are urged to gather material for the exhibit from their respective products and come to the meeting on the 27th prepared to report what they have in sight. The farmers are also urged to give the committee all the assistance possible in the work. There is a good deal of work to be done and not much time in which to do it. Tags will be furnished to the committee in the near future so that each article can be marked by whom it was raised so that each contributor will receive proper credit. It is expected to fill two cars with the exhibit, and some good solid work must be done to make it success. For any information address, David Bartlett, Harrison, Neb.

The Black-Bellied Circus.

Yesterday Harrison witnessed two performances of circuses. Early in the day dealers and others from the country arrived and camped soon began. One of the most notable of these occurred last night.

At the appointed time the independent people met at the court house and held a temporary organization. The convention adjourned the chairman of the alliance, commanding of 1890 met at Andrews' Hall. An alliance conference was called by H. G. Stewart, president of the county alliance, and that lasted only two hours but resulted in Mr. Stewart being sent to the convention at 4:30 p.m. to make a proposition, and permission was given Mr. Stewart to address the convention by the members.

In his remarks he took the position that the organization of the new party was good and anything that was accomplished must be through the alliance organization of 1890. This was answered by Delegates Knott, Anderson and Goeschel and a spirited discussion followed. The only proposition made by Mr. Stewart was that the members of this convention simply throw up their organization and abide by the action of the other convention.

The convention adjourned the regular order of business was preceded with the minutes of which no record was made. The convention at the court house passed no motion except to adjourn until 10 o'clock. At 10 o'clock Mr. Stewart, while in the hall, when he stated that his delegation from Andrews' Hall would be with the convention at the court house and work with them, provided the hall would not be nominal any of the present county officials fit to speak.

At the close of the discussion a vote was taken on the proposition of Mr. Stewart, and unanimously rejected. This was done in the Andrew's Hall convention and the regular order of business was preceded with the minutes of which no record was made.
