There are nearly one hundred million acres of land in the territories of Arizona and New Mexico whose ownership is in dispute owing to the confusion growing out of the Mexican grants and the forgeries of Spanish deeds that have been prevalent.

The greatest meat eaters in the world are the people of America, whose average consumption is one hundred and seventy-five pounds per annum. The English come next, with an average of a little over one hundred and ten pounds.

WOMAN can only be a friend to a woman where her interests are not concerned. Many men make their servants a present of their old clothes. Most women, all theirs to struggling, ragged, maid servants.

MR. GLADSTONE'S idea of business is thus set forth: "What is worth a man in by the grip of death is worth in no sense to be said to give."

It is a recent address at a club at St. Paul, Minn., that the ambition of a man has been to mind any own business. A royal present from royal lips.

The true aesthetic culture will be reliable as a new form of the contemporary. It is founded its elements in the intrinsic beauty of things, the calm of perfect men and things, whatever they be.

WHEN a young man's former sweetheart tells him she is going to marry somebody else he holds out his hand to her and says: "I hope you will be very happy, but be knows all the time that in his secret heart he hopes she won't."

SOME THINGS FOR A BOY TO LEARN TO MAKE A FIRE. To be punctual. To keep up his list. To help his mother on his sister. To wipe his boots on the mat. To close a door quietly. To get the girls so well that they will all want to be his brother.

A goose eats corn and grows feathers. A horse eats corn and grows hair. A cow eats corn and grows fat. A pig eats corn and grows fat. A sheep eats corn and grows wool. A man eats corn and grows tired of it, and that's all he does grow.
