The WORLD-HERALD is the only weekly paper in the west that gives all the news. This it does by condensing and boiling down the news of each day, except important matters, which are given in full.

The WHERLY WORLD-HERALD contains a splendid agricultural department and is the only weekly newspaper in the west having an agricultural editor. This makes it of special value to farmers, be-cause it takes the place of a special agri-cultural paper and saves that supense.

In the publication of interesting stories the World-Herald has always been ahead of all rivals in the west. It will, during the present winter and spring, publish at least one short story each week, as it always does, and in addition it will spread before its readers some of the best sorial stories ever written. Hecantly Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's latest story, "Giovanni and the Other," has appeared in the World-Herald from week to week. After it came an exciting and mysterious story by "Luke Sharp," which ran several weeks, and that will be followed by a new story by "Mark Twain," the famous humorist and story writer. Others will follow that.

POLITICS

The WORLD-HERALD is great on political news. Being independent of party organizations it is fair. In the presidential fight so close at hand it will give in its news columns all sides. Editorially it will continue to struggle for tariff reform, an increase of the money supply on a sound basis, the regulation of railroads, the reduction of freight rates and the development of the west. At Washington it now has Mr. R. L. Metcalfe, so well known in Nebraska, and he will give well known in Nebraska, and he will give in the best and most resdable form the Washington flews of greatest interest to Webraska, Iowa, Dakota, Wyoming and Wher parts of the west.

Something New Which it Will pay to Investigate.

Hereafter The Nebraska State Journal will publish a scori-weekly instead of a weekly, giving two papers each week for the price of one. Four pages Tuesdays and eight pages Fridays. This will give readers the latest telegraphic news and markets while it is fresh. In these days of progressiveness the people have outgrown the weekly paper, except to supply local news. The State Journal is at the head of the procession as always. For those who gannot afford a daily pachallenges comparison with any weekly per The Semi-Weekly Journal will be almost as good as a daily-104 papers per year. Although the cost of production has been nearly doubled the price will remain the same, $1 per year. This is less than I cent per copy. No other paper offers so much reading matter for $1. A special correspondent will furnish points of interest to Nebruskaus from the national capital in addition to the regular telegraphic reports from congress, which are received over our own wires. During the year 1892 you should be a reader of The Smi-Weekly Journal. Send for a sample copy and see just what we give you for your money.

Our great premium book, "Stanley's Adventures in the Wilds of Africa," and The Semi-Weekly Journal, one year will be sent for $1.40, postpaid. The book is handsomely bound in cloth, 540 pages profusely illustrated, and is sold by deal ers at about $1.50. If you will send in your own subscription and another new subscriber with $2, we will make you: present of the book, mailing it to you postpaid. Lon't forget to send for a sample copy. Address:
