DOUBLE YOUR

Something New Which It Will pay to Investigate.
Hereafter The Nebraska State Journal will publish a semi-weekly instead of a weekly, giving two papers each week for the price of one. Four pages Tuesdays and eight pages Fridays. This will give readers the latest telegraphic news and markets while it is fresh. In these days of progressiveness the people have outgrown the weekly paper, except to supply local news. The State Journal is at the head of the procession as always. For those who cannot afford a daily paper The Semi-Weekly Journal will be almost as good as a daily—104 papers per year. Although the cost of production has been nearly doubled the price will remain the same, $1 per year. This is less than 1 cent per copy. No other paper offers so much reading matter for $1. A special correspondent will furnish points of interest to Nebraskans from the national capital in addition to the regular telegraphic reports from congress, which are received over our own wires. During the year 1892 you should be a reader of The Semi-Weekly Journal. Send for a sample copy and see just what we give you for your money.
Our great premium book, "Stanley's Adventures in the Wilds of Africa," and The Semi-Weekly Journal, one year will be sent for $1.40, postpaid. The book is handsomely bound in cloth, 540 pages, profusely illustrated, and is sold by dealers at about $1.50. If you will send in your own subscription and another new subscriber with $2, we will make you a present of the book, mailing it to you postpaid. Don't forget to send for a sample copy. Address
