Judge Kinkaid in the case of Coffee vs. Bixby, better known as the ditch case, was received by the clerk of the district court. Judge Kinkaid decided in favor of the plaintiff, Coffee. The decision was a surprise to many for they believed that it would be in favor of Bixby. It appears from the decision that a person can acquire rights on government land atter crop this year and by virtue of having erected and

Just What the People Want.

TWICE IN A WEEK.

The publishers of The State Journal struck the public want when the commenced print ing The Journal twice a week. The circulation has been more than doubled. Everyone As I see there is no one writing from can see the advantage of receiving two complete papers each week, with markets and telegraphic news while it is fresh. What this part of the county 1 will endeavor to pick up a few items as we do not wish makes The Semi-Weekly Journal so popular is, that it is only $1.00 per year, which is the Owing to the backward spring it has same price other papers charge for their made most every one late with small weeklies.

A year's subscription to the Twice a Week Journal will carry its readers through the national conventions, the presidential campaign, and through the next session of the Nebraska legislature. Everyone will want a reliable newspaper during such stirring times, and the events will afford The Semi-Weekly Journal ample opportunity of proving its superiority over any weekly paper. It is almost as good as a daily, giving lot pa-pers a year at less than one cent per copy. Others give about fifty two papers a year. We are still offering the paper a year, and our great Stanley book, for $1.40, or we will send the book free for two new subscribers. Write for sample copy and we are sure you will subscribe. The Semi-Weekly Journal is the newspaper success of the west. Join the of small grain this year, farmers will not crowd and receive twice as much for your money as the old weeklies give you. Address
