It was thought for a time that he was dead. Dr. Bridgman was called and helped restore him and he was able to be out next morning. It was a pretty close call.

V. has made a rate of one fare for the round trip for the Council Bluffs and Omaha Chautauqua, at Council Bluffs, July 2 to 16; Central Chautauqua, at Fremont, July 1 to 15; Long Pine Chautauqua, at Long Pine, July 31 to August 1; Hot Springs Chautauqua, at Hot Springs July 27 to August 8. The National Convention.

The republican national convention met at Minneapolis on Tuesday. The anti-Harrison element using Blaine as a candidate were making every effort to bring about the defeat of Harrison. All that was done on the first day was a temporary organization, with J. Sloat Fassett as chairman. On Wednesday the convention re-convened and elected Gov. McKinley as permanent chairman and after the appointment of committees an adjournment was taken until Thursday at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at that hour a further adjournment was taken until 8:30 p. m., to allow the committee on credentials time to complete its work. There were several contests and it took a good deal of time to hear them.

The general feeling appears to be that Harrison will be the nominee. The action of Blaine in resigning just on the eve of the convention has lost him hosts of friends all over the nation and many who would gladly have supported him had he not stated in February that he would not be a candidate, would not support him at all should he be nominated, for they do not like such double-dealing. The belief in general is that it is simply an attempt to down the present incumbent, and that the longer the matter is delayed the more clearly that fact becomes apparent and the result will be that a grand rally will be made to Harrison and he will be the victor.

It is a fact that cannot be controverted that whoever is the nominee of that convention will have to stand on the platform built by the administration of President Harrison, and looking at it in that light it would seem like folly to put up any other man.

An Assured Thing.

The new road from the valley is as near assured as it can be. The work of surveying is completed and a meeting was held and a committee composed of J. E. Marsteller, C. E. Verity and Conrad Lindeman was appointed to take subscriptions for getting the work done. The whole work will be under the supervision of Judge Barker who has done a great deal of work in getting the matter in shape. The condition of the finances of the county is such that no funds can be appropriated for such purposes and hence the business men have got to go down into their pockets and foot the bills in order to get the road so people can come here to do business. The road once got in shape will be an easy grade and will do away with sixteen bridges which are now used to cross the stream as it winds through the canyon. Work will be commenced as soon as possible and it will not be long before people can have a good road over which to come to town from the valley.

Legion Exercises.

Not being able to carry out the Children's Day program, the church management will have a short program by the Loyal Temperance Legion, conducted by Mrs. Smedes, June 12, 7 p. m. Followed by an Anthem by the choir.
