Harrison and Sioux county never had better prospects. The next year will see very material improvements all over the county:

Miss Anna Price will close her school in the Bodarc district one week from tomorrow, on which day the school will picnic in Plimpton's grove:

The school picnic at Wallace's grove yesterday was a success as picnics go. The children had a lot of fun and all got caught in a rain before they reached home.

A car of wheat was shipped by Guthrie on Saturday and another will be shipped this week. There are several car loads in this vicinity yet to be marketed.
