Population.
 We have the impression that the place for wealth and ease of life are easier there than in any city where the population is so small.
 To remove this very impression. When a farmer goes to a city he is impressed with the stores and public buildings. What he does not see is a correct view of city life. The back-alley streets, the tenement houses, the noise and confusion. He will not be long before he concludes that at least the population of our county is a thousand people and smaller per cent, of the population of the city.
 The man who has a farm, a good house, a few acres of land, and a few hundred dollars in the bank, is a man who has a better chance of success than the man who has a city job and a city home. The man who has a farm can grow his own food, and he can sell his surplus at a profit. The man who has a city job must depend on other people for his food, and he must pay for his shelter. The man who has a farm can live in a comfortable house, and he can have a garden and a few acres of land.

Steam Navigation on the Nile.
 A new Egyptian association has been formed, styled the "Thebanic" Company, who are the owners of a number of steamers which have been specially fitted for a regular service of passengers desiring to ascend the river from Cairo to the first cataract, visiting the antiquities on the banks. The formation of this company has been sanctioned by a decree of the Khedive, who has just inaugurated the operations by a personal visit on board the steamer El Khedive. The saloon, ladies' boudoir, smoking room and all parts of the steamer are illuminated by 80 electric lights of a total power of 2,500 candles, and the decorations of the apartments are of the most elegant and luxurious character.—Scientific American.

25 Cents Until After Election.
 The coming presidential and state campaign will be one of the most exciting ever known. During this time you will want a newspaper that is thoroughly in touch with public sentiment, and one that prints the news before it becomes stale. The Semi-Weekly State Journal prints the news several days earlier than the old-fashioned weeklies, and costs the same, $1.00 per year. A complete paper twice each week—Tuesdays and Fridays.
 Giving 104 papers a year, it is almost as good as a daily. The old-time weekly is not in it when it comes to printing news.
 A year's subscription will carry readers all through the campaign and the next session of the legislature. A big dollar's worth.

A few of our offers:—The Journal a year and "Stanley in Africa," $1.40; Journal and Weekly N. Y. Tribune, both one year, $1.25; Journal and Oxford Bible, $2.75; Journal and Neely's political map, $1.80.

As a trial subscription we will send the semi-weekly until after election for a quarter. Address,
 NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL,
 Lincoln, Neb.

For the Campaign.
 In order to bring The Weekly Bee into the hands of every English reading man and woman in the west its publishers have decided to offer the paper for six months, covering the campaign, for 30 cents.

In order to fully understand the questions of vital importance to the producer and laboring man that will come up during this campaign, every voter should hear both sides. The Bee proposes to discuss all these questions thoroughly and intelligently.

You cannot afford to allow this opportunity to pass.

A Piano SENT on trial

WE PAY FREIGHT
 If you do not keep it.
 We think you will keep it.
 It pleases everybody.
 It is an honest piano.
 It is the WING Piano.

You may have a preference for some other make. Still you are a reasoning creature, and open to conviction, no doubt.

The question is too important to be settled without due thought.
 Years of satisfaction or of regret come with a piano. Does it wear well? The WING Piano does.
 "Look before you leap."

Whatever piano you buy, there are piano secrets you ought to know.
 Our free book tells them. Send a postal card for it. It may help you to buy a different piano. We take that risk. We also tell you the nearest dealer where you can see a WING Piano. It is worth looking at. So is the price. WING & SON, 245 Broadway, New York.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader.

The majority regret their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity. Narrowing down to the few of many, as you look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing! Seize it now! Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace, it was said by a philosopher, that "the goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some point of life; but she does not stay, and she goes out her riches: fail to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even boys and girls can increase their incomes as you gain. You can get up as soon as you wish, and you can go to work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how. Free. Failure unknown among our work-ers. No money to start with. Write and learn all free. By return mail. Enclaves to day. Address at once, H. Hallett & Co., Box 860, Portland, Maine.
