t him slumber if becan, by the cell its han 25 mms. Where he died, th his pipe and with his dreams t his side.

and sing no into e of Verms, for of 1 acchos or Silentia. Where the Boman rivers flow Let them rest for a thousand year's Cr so; It is the best Sing no longer of Apolio.

And the goddenses that f flow
Up Olympus ione and dim.
In his train—
We have had emough of him.
And his reign.

Come away and let th m go.
They have nothing left to show
That is worting of the hands
Of to-day
In the mythologic lands
Let them stay.

if you be a poet true.
Sing as comes hing that is new,
Something on a higher plan
That will thrill

And enthrall the heart of man Sing a song that will awake Whispered praises for the sake Of the minstrel that can so Gladden us. As he freth to and fro, Singing thus.

There's a world of grander themes Than the dead old days and dreams Trempied in the dust of Greece, Or of Rome -Or of Rome -You can find it, if you please, Neuter house.

Then turn your even away
From the roins dim and grey
Of the past and for a time.
Let them west
On a region hore sublime Lying west.

WIDOW'S ACRES. THE

known to give a farthing to any one, he decently dressed, but she is not voyage, and he was placed in chargmeans a single benevolent enterprise. neighbors in and around Smithport in his pockets and walked away. that John Bent was too penurious to be honest; but he was so siv in all his was on her way to the village.

His family were objects of sympathy in the reighborhood because of his am-the place will be our very own, the carrying out of which required close dealings with them. His wife and we will have a home." managed in various ways, by selling milk, butter, chickens and eggs, to clothe herself and her children decently.

They tried to hide his faults from the public, but that was impossible, everything." as there were too many tokens on every side to reveal the true condition of affairs. ing farms, which he designated as No. in company with a stone mason, and of for money. His bank account was new, and at very little cost. large, but he seldom drew out a dol-

His wife, in character, was just once. again "not to allow the neighbors chuckled, "If that silly woman has Hamilton fient, a generous, nobit the yield is often greater. The pro-fell off, while the half-grown plums water; put in a steamer picking up things."

there came a woman leading a little girl toward the house, John Bent mended, and the stones pointed with that the families were thus united.— membered that this revenue is demecher on the porch. Not recognized mental and short time. nizing her, he demanded roughly:

here on my premises?"

treatment, so she calmly replied:

stands?"

"Well, now, that's a question, I selling an acre-don't want to sell

The words sent the blood to her face and a feeling of disappointment matter at last that he went to see to her heart, and she turned away as Mrs. Wayland, hoping to frighten her though she was about to leave him, into selling it back to him. which alarmed him, for he really did land.

is there'"

There are two acres." "Two acres of stone and rubbish."

sell at all."

away all that stone and rubbish do you suppose?"

Not much, and there is not an acre around here that is not worth acres, for $200."

Her heart leaped high as he said that—only $200 for the old homestead expect to live in that house myself." --- but she stood still as though she was about to say no.

"As there will be some cost in clearyou pay all cash down?" Yes, if I take it.

After some hesitation on her part she agreed to take the place, and it was arranged that he should meet her at Lawyer Bryant's the next day at so happy. She would have paid $500 rather than have failed to secure the

As Mrs. Wayland and her little daughter walked away John Bent chuckled with delight, and rubbed his hands together with great satis-faction as he walked back into the kitchen where his wife and daughters were preparing supper, "Mother," he said, with unusual "I have just made $175. have sold that pile of stone and rubhish over the gully to some allly woman, who no doubt thinks she has made a good bargain. She will find it will cost more than the land is worth to get all that stone away."

The wife leoked up with Indigna-in a store? Havee't you got enough?" to look up the title.

That shows what you know about business," he answered, petulantly, body out of it; he is a mean old "If you had the management of af- skunk," was the lawyer's rough comfairs you would soon land us all in the ment.

poor-house." The wife's cheeks burned with righteous indignation. She had often employed and hurriedly questioned: remonstrated with him over his little mean ways in the early years of their grandfather?" married life, but years had passed since she had ventured a word of re-

The picture of that sad-faced woman dressed in black, holding the She died when I was 12 years oldhand of her beautiful little child, was a strong appeal to her generous sympathles, and her indignation had expression in words. Her heart was again and moved from this place; he standed differently from other pen new fruit of grain, broken through all bounds and found very sore. Only that day a letter had used to lived at the stone house. come to her from her oldest boy, who had run away from home when he was to her through one of her neighbors, late you, Mrs. Wayland; you are the the dwellers in cities. It is tone that the strews. Make handle any length puncture, and the secret of news from her legal beir, not only to the two acres, the farmer's success depends largely precious boy was locked up in her own heart.

father lives. He is too stingy to live It soon became known in the or any means impossible to arrange less (not) knife. all, but I'll never come home while Bent knew it." her children had given her courage to perty. speak, and for the first time in her

John Bent was said to be the stins farms and have my children driven ner, for he was on the verge of he farmer's life if you give him the reins. Cattle are much like humans in their glest man in Adams County, if not in from me. Sarah is going to go out to sanity, the whole State. He was never work to earn clothing-she wants to | The physicians recommended a sea hand at drawing or to patronize by his presence or his strong and she will soon break down." it was the common talk among the Mr. Bent thrust his hands down deep of a vessel about to sail to South dishonest transactions that he had road to the town passed the old home. his grip on the farms and had been managed somehow to escape panish- stead that Mr. Bent called a pile of thrown out of the old ruts. During old rubbish.

> Her little girl 6 years old lifted her mother's hand to her lips and kissing it passionately, said:

will be roses and pinks and pears and tried to grasp the reins.

"Yes, darling, everything."

Tears of joy were in the mother's and had deeded to Mrs. Margaret Bent eyes, for only a short time before that the two acres of land on which stood John Bent had three large adjoin- she had carefully examined the place the house and barn, garden and or 1. No. 2 and No. 3, but nothing went he had assured her that the walls own house when her husband came into his house that could be disposed could be mended and made as good as home. And although the house ha next day and the need recorded at with the money from the products of the reverse. She was generous to a Mr. Bent was astonished a few days ment. fault, and social and frank: the neigh- afterwards to see carpenters and stone bors loved and pitied her, but they masons at work, putting in new seldom came to the house lest they beams and repairing the walls, and should meet the stern master, who workmen clearing the cellar and had charged his wife over and over cleaning the walks. At first he neighborhood, to be loading around the premises no more sense than to waste money son of John Pent's, afterward married ducer tealizes from two to four delivers and the tree, but never inon those old ruins, no one is to blame Ethel Wayland, and everybody said lars per pound for his crop, which is cleased in size, and when bitten into during this time.

on, and the new windows and doors Country. What do you want? Why are you put in, and the grounds put in order, he knew that Mrs. Wayland had the She was prepared for just such best of the bargain. The house now was not a pile of stones and rubbish, "I wish to know if you will sell but a stately and elegant mansion. the lot where the old stone house His wrath knew no bounds. He said openly and boldly that she had gotten the property under false pretences. might sell if I could get enough for She-had not told him that she was Land is very dear here; I am not going to repair the building or he never would have sold it to her at

He became so unhappy over the

"Mrs. Wayland," he said, with want to sell that bit of worthless great severity, "you deceived and cheated me when you bought the old Perhaps," he said, with some show place. You did not tell me that you of friendliness, "you would think it had visited the place, and had it examined by a stone mason, and an es-"There is not much of value there, timate of the cost of repairs made by tion and thus spread information conbusiness on my grounds-you were trespassing on my premises, for If it was good land I would not which I will make you pay well, unless you are willing to sell the "How much would it cost to clear place to me on the same terms on to pay the money back and to settle may chance to hear or see. with the workmen."

Wrs. Wayland was startied, but $100. I'll sell that place, about two she soon recovered her self-composure furniture or associate other inconand answered him with some spirit: gruous matters that the advertise "I do not wish to sell the place: I

"I warn you that the title is not ployed in these tasks is "Business good, and you had better get your writers." Very likely, as in every money back while you can. The title ing out the rubbish I'll say $175. Do is not worth a cent. If the proper heirs come you will lose all you put however, the pay is generally liberal.

Mrs. Wayland turned pale. What if that was the truth and she should lose the property and the money she was putting into it. But in a monoon. She walked away scarcely ment or two she recalled the words able to conceal her feelings, she was of her grandfather, that the title so happy. She would have paid $500 went back to the old colonial times without a break and could never be

"Mr. Bent," she answered, "I will risk the title. I was born in that house. I've heard my grandfather say that the title could never be questioned."

"Who are you? What was your grandfather's name? "I am Mary Wayland; my mother was a Wardell; my grandfather's name was John Wardell."

"Are you the daughter of Eli Moore by his first wife?"

"Great heavens!" Then recollect-ing himself, he added, "it's all right; you can keep the property, I will not disturb you," and he hastened away.

poor woman who is earning her bread she went to her lawyer and asked him

"He has no doubt cheated some

A few days afterwards the lawyer rushed into the store where she was

"How many children had you

Only one child-my mother." "How many children had your mother? "Only one-I am her only child. soon after the death of my grandfather

"Who was Eli Moore:" "He was my father; he married change.

"You are about 30 years old?"

but to the Bent farm No. 1, the best upon the daily personal care of his farm he has. Your father sold it to stock and his crops, and that it is "Oh, mother, your poor Dan is Bent when you were a minor, as your rather more difficult for him to leave homesick. How I want to see you guardian, without legal right, and his cares in charge of others than for desired, and screw on, then grind as he ought to. I'm sorry for you all." neighborhood that farm No. 1, be-The tears had blinded her eyes longed by right to Mrs. Wayland, and home for a few days occasionally while she read, and the sense of the steps were taken by her lawyer to Perhans neighbor Jones would be will injustice of his treatment of her and place her in possession of the pro- ling to change work with you for a why cattle should show an instinctive of a young physician who enticed hin The last words ended in a sob, and to New York, and got him on board America. They were absent one year. In the meantime Mrs. Wayland when he returned a changed man-The He was still stingy, but he had lost his absence he had entered into ex-SOh, Ethel, darling, how glad I tensive enterprises in South America. ats whole time, and took him from The hatching room may be used to behave herself. . home a large part of the year.

Dannie came home to his mother. and Mrs. Bent managed the farms -Oh, mamma, I am glad, and there well that her husband never again

In the meantime Mrs. Wayland had taken possession of her heritage chards, so that she was living in he been well furnished during his a The bargain was consumated the sence, and the family well clother the two farms left, he made no com-

> The old Wardelf place, with itspacious rooms and wide walls and larm. beautiful grounds, had become one of the most desirable places in thu

But when the walls were nicely two mothers were greatly pleased would yield, and it must also be re-to-that natural to green plums.

For Literary Aspirants.

gain a livelihood by telling the love pound and made the nice total of the cave we boarded up about sixstory of Jack and Jill; there are so many of these tales that some must There are thousands upon thousands to n and banked up to carry off the go to the wall. Take a practical of acres of such land in the Southern water, leaving open above to admit what you can do in another field. claimed, only waiting for intelligent from the storm should remain open Among the most lucrative employ- and industrious cultivators of the soil, all winter unless to severe freezing. ments for writers, nowadays, is that who have a little capital to be laid Put a layer of straw in the bottom of found in the service of manufactur out in drainage when they will yield the cave and put the apples in as soon ers of soap, patent medicines or other abundant harvests of this and other as picked from the trees. Anolos kept is large profit or which must be kept the main one to be met, and this is flavor better than when kept in a celcause of the competition which similar articles offer. There are men and women of fine attainments who have free swing to write what they please and how they please provided matter and style are such as to attract atten- inch auger. Get young hickory of gaged in plum growing say that it is oven. masons and carpenters. You had no cerning this baking powder or that half, bend it around the upright of grown. The fact that carculio desewing machine. For such services gate, then pass the ends through the stroys the crop of those who do not well-red writers are in demand: but the tree as shown, drive a wedge begive it care makes it all the more knowledge of literature they must also have the faculty of turning to which you bought it. I am willing account anything they may know or awaits those who can so adroitly combine an eclipse and a new freak in ment is not at once apparent. The generic name for those who are em- secure. It will last as long as an iron every year if the curculio did not but few are chosen. For the chosen, Origin of Chess Terms. Few chess players could guess the origin of one of the most important and l'armer, "shows that the soil terms in their game. The word responds readily to the daily heat of "chess" is said to be a corruption of the sun to the depth of three inches, the Arabic word "sheikh," meaning chief or king. The game came west- in a moderate degree only to the ward by way of Persia, where the word sheikh becomes shah. It was below twelve inches. To the depth the game of the king. The term of three luches the range between "check" is merely to give notice that the morning and the midday observathe king is attacked, and 'checkmate" means "the king is dead, the grees verb "mata" being from the same root as the Spanish matador, the slayer of the bull. The word check, whether verb or noun, may be traced through several curious ramifications eack to the Persian and Arabic.

New York Sun. AFFER a woman passes a certain age, the word "love," when used in any other connection than with her affection for her children, becomes

A DEPARTMENT MADE UP FOR OUR RUBAL FRIENDS.

Farmers Should Indulge in Periods of Observation A Bank Wall House for Poultry-Keeping Apples-General Hints on Horticulture.

Keep Out of the Buts.

that it might be a good thing to district to know of the arrival of a They are not, however, con- new went than of the advent of a pic, and there is no good reason why the farmer, and specially his wife "It is all clear, now: I congratus by an occasional outing as much as saw, and take off old handle, saving will instantly spread a and daughters, should not be help if most men of leasiness. Still it is not back of saw sharp and you have the from shrinking out of the few days and see that to a work is At first Mr. Bent was furious, then well done, or perhaps you have a son store feed when not used for hatching. The hatching nests will be used for laying until a hen wishes to sit.

Peppermint Oil as a Crop.

ago were considered a wilderness and ty's (Mjebigan) last year's crop of apples; "We made a board cave and You have found that you cannot peppermint oil sold at ten dollars a covered it with earth. The ends of view of the situation, then, and see part of the same State that lie unre- air until cold weather. The end crops. The expense of drainage is in this way retain their firmness and constantly in the public mind, be not great when results are considered. -Western Rural.

Hanging a Gate to a free.

Bore a hole through the tree above the top rail of the gate with a 11 or 2 tween ends.

buried there.

writers." Very likely, as in every until wanted out. It can be renewed other occupation, many are called, without making new holes, as in the case of iron rings. - Practical Farmer.

"Experiments made at the Maine productive, keep them cut back. Agricultural Station," says the Mirror depth of nine inches, and very slightly tions aas been as high as lifteen de-

Concerning Weeds.

The following excellent suggestion is from the Baltimore American: "There are a large number of farmers' clubs throughout the country, and Even the word exchequer is curiously ing a weed chart upon the walls of these hals, where farmers gather from time to time for mutual improvement and a better understanding of the ways and means of a more profits de agriculture. Weeds have toon neglected in more ways it so thick on rich ground that it than one, and just so far as they are shades and bleaches itself much beteverlooked and left to themselves the | ter than throwing soil eron

HOME AND THE FARM, greater will be the curse. As we look over the premium lists of our thou- not necessary to growing sands of county and State fairs, we Since then it has been for seidom see a prize offered for the best plant ever grew that did be cullection of weeds. It seems incom- it. patible with our fitness of things to have a good collection of anything of fruit trees, sharp-knife that is had, and yet the fact remains that there is no class of plants about which an increase of knowledge is more imperative than these same ugiv weeds. A few dollars expended in awards by each fair association Farmers, as a class, are very ant to would bring together fists of plant get into ruls and tokeep in them, save pests, the exhibition of which would exchange. They get into the get only surprise, but greatly instruct habit of doing certain things every these who see them. It is not less day, and it seldem occurs to these important for the farmers of any

A Good Corn Knife,

Take the big end of an old hand- a pin, and if they are g

tions frances and Breace Cattliny.

It is to many a matter of wonder if we consider that the next field alwho would be made in feet more mainly ways has a crop of very inviting corn, "I would rather live in a poor-house "All is gone!" he if you left him in charge of things or small grain, or splendid grass to with my children than to own great would mean in the most pitible mano in a while and set him try, his behavior; we all want to trespass on torbidden ground, and the greater the difference between that and our own A Bank Wall Cooker House, quarters, the stronger our will cto. This building is 19x20 ft with 7 If get there. " If grazing stock is put osts in front, a 37f will and 4 ft on first rate pasture, as it should be, osts in the rear. The doors at the there is no desire to break out. Pasads should be loarded up and one ture must be cuttivated as well as trance made to the two rooms from plow land. All bare spots must be the hallway, which may be used as a scratched up with a barrow and hatching-room. Still better abolish seeded to grass, and the whole field all doors in front and enter through kept as nice and clean as a lawn. an end door. The following engrave Prevention is better than cure, and it ing shows the interior arrangement, is no great trick to teach a cow to

Variation in Quality of Fruit. Fruits of the same nominal kind,

often differ much in quality. It has been supposed by some within a few years that as most fruits are now grafted or budded, thus variation in quality may depend on the original s.ock. But it is certain that so much depends on soil, access to sunshine and other conditions that little room remains for other factors. Manuring when they may be closed to the roost- heavily with stable manures in jures ing room and opened at the other fruit quality. These are mainly niend. These nests may be raised three trogenous, and they cause an excess inches from the ground. The extent of sap that the leaves cannot wholly nests are raised to inches. Coops may assimilate. Excessive manuring with be built under them to shut up sit- some mineral that injures the roots ters -- Edward A. Atwater, in Home may also cause injury to or entire destruction of the leaf, in which case the fruit is worthless. A barrel of brine carelessly couplied near a plum of oatmeal and one tea-Twenty pounds of peppermint oil tree in midsummer carried such ex- sait; put in a two-quart per acre is considered a fair yield, but less of sub-to-the leaves that they all pour over it one quart grain crop gave a distinct salty taste in addition

A correspond at of the National welling h worthless. St. Joseph com- Sto kman gives his plan of keeping $40,000 for the growers of the herb teen or eighteen inches from the botar. We have apples up to date, June 10, that were put in the cave early the previous fall."

Plums for Profit.

the size of auger, split it, take one the most certainly profitable fruit The profitable. If there were curculio lower end of apright every year, the careful plum grower acts as a pivot in would ask nothing better. The glutthe not-h of spur in the plum market occurs usually 77 root, or in impress when the currollo fails to put in his sion made in stone appearance, and plums are grown by the cateless and thorough cultiva-The tree is not in- tor atike. jured, and soon heals ing very little to the grower, show Low prices, payup, holding it more what the plum business might be hinge and cannot pull off or come out. make plum growing a business requiring skill rather than dependent on chance.

Hartlenharal Hints.

Ir you want your berry bushes to be Low growing vegetables may be ultivated between raspberry rows. Cur off and burn all the black knots on your cherry and plum frees, ALWAYS set out a few of the best varieties of early and late sweet ap-

Figure trees along the roadside are an invitation to all to help them-Stel Ven

In starting an orchard, it is better to trust to old varieties than to experiment with new.

regetables are not usually as fine flavored as the later ones. ONE of the best of garden fruits in the current, and it is easy to raise with the use of a little helebore.

A GARDEN once taid out and planted, it comes easy and natural to keep it up year after year, and it pays. CELERY Is now grown by planting Ir was once thought the

CAREFULLY Saw off broke smooth as possible, then # starting at that point.

with any common paint serves the wood, and Never butter your pie dredge them lightly with 6 To scour knives easily m quantity of baking will brick dust.

To STONE raisins casile boiling water and let them a short time.

To TEST nutuoegs, prick)

Per sait on the clinker stove or range while the after raking down the for will remove them. WET boots and show a drying, if, as soon as take are tightly stuffed with These form a sort of ruds ought not to be remor boots are thoroughly dry. Some good housekeeper ing lemons wash and dr oughly, and then put the not needed soon into burying the fruit in the s say that lemons will thus for a long time.

VEAL "goes farther" the especially the fillet, being ment. The remainder at will make a pic, with a sli ham or bit of bolled salt p the cutlets enough will main for a small minee of breakfast, to be perhapsy by eggs or broiled been

Fish that is to be fried laid in a cloth to los moisture, then rolled in fi or corn meal. Those kin liable to break must be beaten egg, then in crimis in which it is friesh when lard, butter, or oil, must be All fried fish should be with parsley.

TO MAKE Discreet flaky, crust when rolled out for the pie with a thin layer Dredge with fear, and on with the crust as usual. for the oven, top the holding it in the left hand over the pie a glass of c rinse off the flour Enga latter will stack to the! into the crust write baking melted butter; pour it out quantity of sugar, strict cold. Grate the find of all and add to it eight eggs w and the juice of two lems together and bake with around the edges of dish Buns -Break one egg and fill with sweet milk half a cup of yeast, built ter, one cup of sugar, ex make soft dough: faut mon and nutmeg: let is light, then mold into his few currants; let rise a st and bake. GRAMAN GENS. - One C ful of sweet milit one or flour, one cupful of grabat teaspoonfuls of luking p tablespoonful of meited b tablespoonful of sugar i salt. Beat well together grease the front, and hale

STEAMED ONTHEAL.-Ha

HOMENY GRIDDLE C cups cold boiled hom smooth, one quart of mil teaspoonful of salt: stirth add one cup of flour, into been well mixed a teaspo ing powder; lastis, add that have been well b immediately after miss Lice Culture The best rice is that ! Carolina, where the trenches, which are apart, and flooded to a inches. The water is and later, the fields are to kill the weeds. The to stand nearly to stand is not again seried in and is not again seried. until the grain is almost places are not so good as land. Most of the rice is imported from fully also in China, the lands in the planes. rather than the plans irrigated that often i weeded on account a weeded on account of the hillsides. Unlanding the hillsides. Unlanding cultivated in Ceylon Find which requires of figure placed under water of North America could for market at The earlier varieties of fruits and Georgia. Rice will not getables are not usually as fine avored as the later ones.

The earlier varieties of fruits and Georgia. Rice will not have morth as Minacaolia use there is Canadianty which grows abundantis west, in mire places, and margin of the lakes, it height of seven or eight long and narrow seed as ing meal of which the is

-Inter Ocean.

Cure. by Dr dest ! imper

-Cour Saish

windo m se ams w

nd bu AG urers hand its no

Siles A Chica Well, I