PERSONAL.

Sam Teblet was in town Monday.

J. F. Cook went to Crawford last evening.

Don Smith was in town Saturday and called at this office.

C. J. Grable orders THE JOURNAL sent to him at Crawford.

Mrs. J. E. Arner went to Crawford Wednesday evening.

Miss Wanda Pontius returned last Friday from Sturgis, S. D.

Miss Steen left Friday evening for Waboo to spend the holidays.

Henry Wertz came up from Agate Springs to spend the holidays.

C. F. Coffey went to Claxson Thursday evening, returning Monday.

J. A. Hanson came down from the state line Friday and called at this office and gave us some cash on subscription.

F. M. Smith was up from Bodars the last of the week and informed us that a man from near Lincoln arrived there a few days ago to locate.

Don't forget the ball New Year's eve.

Highest market prices paid for wheat.

H. A. Priddy is harvesting the crop of jack rabbits to be found between his place and town.

Attend the masquerade ball New Year's eve and go to Scott's for your refreshments. Oysters served in any style.

While bringing horses to town to the sale last Saturday Earnest Bunge was severely kicked on the left leg below the knee. He will be apt to limp for some time, although no bones were broken.

The attendance at the horse sale last Saturday was not so large as was expected, owing to the uncertain state of weather, but fair prices were realized on most of the animals offered. This is not a very good time of year to sell any kind of stock.

The New Year's masquerade ball is a sure go and those in charge are taking steps to make it one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Everybody who enjoys dancing should attend and the more maskers there are the more fun can be had. Everybody mask.

Our old-time friend, Rev. W. O. Glasner, now stationed at Harrison, was a pleasant social chatter at the Tribune sanctuary Tuesday. The reverend gentleman is one who does much good for humanity by his broad and liberal ideas upon all subjects, and it is a pleasure to chat with him. —Crawford Tribune.

Rev. Glasner reports the ministerial meeting held at Crawford last week as having been a great success. The people of Crawford took good care of the visitors and an effort will be made to have the first annual meeting of the north-west Nebraska conference held at that place.

A couple of gamblers got into a row at Crawford last Thursday and one shot the other, inflicting wounds from which he died in a few hours. The murderer is in jail and our sister county of Dawes will have a heavy bill of costs to pay. It is reported that there was a lot of "gun play" in this town Saturday night, but no funerals have yet been reported, but if such work goes on some one will make a shot which will get him into trouble. There is no more need of men coming to town with guns on them than there is for them to wear a coat of mail.

Obituary.

PLEASANT RIDGE, WYO., Dec. 20, 1892.

Died Dec. 18th at one a. m., of a lingering illness, Mrs. Kate Christian, wife of Andrew Christian, aged thirty-three years, at Pleasant Ridge, Converse Co., Wyo.

Mrs. Christian leaves a family of six children. The oldest, thirteen and the youngest one year old. Her death casts a gloom over our little community. She will be greatly missed. She expressed to the writer a firm trust in the Saviour. Today we lay her away in a sunny spot on the lonely prairie; but we are glad to know that God watches over the dust of all His children and that on the morning of the resurrection, when He calls, they will rise, not only from the marble city of the great metropolis; but from caves of the ocean and the lonely prairie.

Her funeral sermon was preached from Romans 3:2, at one p. m., by Rev. Glasner, of Harrison. Miss M. E. STEERS.

Metzger, the ablest political writer in Nebraska, will represent the World-Herald at Lincoln during the coming session of the legislature. This means that the World-Herald's reports of legislative doing and legislative struggle will be highly interesting and readable. People of Nebraska are already familiar with the peculiar style which makes those articles in the World-Herald which are signed "Metz" so eagerly sought for. For the convenience of our readers we will take subscriptions for the World-Herald at $1.00 a year or to the daily World-Herald during the session of the legislature at $1.50.

A GREAT COMBINATION.

THE OMAHA WEEKLY BEE,

WITH The American Farmer OR WOMANKIND FOR ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

THE OMAHA WEEKLY BEE is acknowledged to be the best and largest newspaper in the west, publishing more western and general news than any other paper in the country. The usual price is one dollar per year.

THE AMERICAN FARMER is published at Springfield, Ohio, is a 16 page monthly paper devoted to agriculture, horticulture, the dairy, poultry and general interesting stories and other matter for the home. The usual price is one dollar per year.

WOMANKIND is also published at Springfield, Ohio. It is a 16 page monthly publication, devoted to everything that interests the wife, mother and maiden. It is full of useful information and interesting talks and stories that are instructive as well as entertaining both to young and old.

One dollar pays for a year's subscription to The Bee and either one of these journals. Address all orders to THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., Omaha, Neb.

A Remarkable Prospectus.

We have received from the publishers of The Youth's Companion its announcements for 1893. They promise an unusually brilliant volume. Among other notable features is a series of articles entitled, "Your Work in Life," written by persons experienced in the different trades and professions and designed to help young men and women in choosing what to do.

Another series, entitled, "The Bravest Deed I ever saw," narrates deeds of personal heroism seen by United States generals and war correspondents. There is also a series of articles entitled, "Old Housekeeping," which will be of much interest to ladies. Some new sea stories are contributed by William Clark Russell, the famous novelist, and several articles on India by Sir Edwin Arnold. Special Correspondents will write of the World's Fair, how to go and what to see in a given time.

Gen. Lew Wallace narrates the origin and growth of his famous novel, "Ben Hur," while Frank R. Stockton tells the history of "Rudyard Grange." There will be eleven serial stories this year, besides more than one hundred stories by the most successful short story writers, besides many stirring tales of adventure.
