A daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hollingsworth on Wednesday of last week. The mother and daughter are doing well and with careful nursing it is thought Clarence will survive.

A sort of cankerous sore throat seems to be quite prevalent in this part of the country. It was reported from west of here first and a number of cases have been reported in this locality. So far no one has been very ill with it. It is confined to the children. The worst case in town has been that of J. W. Scott's eldest daughter.

On last Thursday Peter Schaefer and his eldest son arrived from Seward with a car load of stock and goods and they are busy preparing land on which to sow fall wheat. Mr. Schaefer will remain but a few weeks now but expects to move his family here before the end of the year. He says there are many who want to come here from his locality but owing to the poor crops they cannot get away.

J. G. Morris has disposed of nearly all of his stock and will start for Bakersfield, California, where he has agreed to work for a large stock and farming company operating there. Mr. Morris knew some of the managers of the company when he was in that country some years ago and they offered him a position as superintendent which he accepted. Mr. Morris has lived here for a long time and has many friends who regret to have him leave this place but all wish him prosperity. Mrs. Morris and the children will remain here for some months at least.

Last Thursday evening the editor and his wife took the evening train to Glen and on arrival there they were met by W. S. Johnson, of the firm of W. S. Johnson & Sons, the cheese makers, and taken to their place. They have quite an industry, the milk of between thirty and forty cows having been used this season. They have a fine location for their business and do all the work themselves so that the expense is light and thus the business is made profitable. On the place are numerous fine springs and a tank has been built and a pond of about half an acre made, fed by springs it is pure water and will be a valuable feature of the farm when the fall gets large enough for use. It is the intention to clear out the grove and make a nice place for parking to go for an outing.

Important Notice.

THE JOURNAL has entered upon its sixth year. In the five years it has been published a great many accounts have accumulated on its books, each one small in itself but amounting to hundreds of dollars in the aggregate. It is desired to call the attention of all who are indebted to us to the fact that we need money. A few dollars from each one who is indebted to us would enable us to meet our bills and make improvements as occasion demands and we trust that all who know themselves indebted to us will respond promptly to our request. Respectfully,
THE PUBLISHER.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon Bishop Graves preached a very interesting sermon at the church and at 5 o'clock the holy communion service was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Guthrie, after which their infant son, Basil, was baptized, Bishop Graves and Miss Minnie E. Smith being sponsors.

On Tuesday W. L. Baldwin and family arrived from Seward county and have gone into Fred Bettschen's house near Mr. Baldwin's homestead south of town. Mrs. Baldwin wanted to see the country so they drove through with two teams. W. T. Jones will come in a few days with a car load of stock and goods and then they will build houses. All are glad to welcome those who come here to get homes of their own and stop paying rent.

The sore throat prevailing has developed into diphtheria in some instances and parents should watch their children and give them prompt treatment as soon as any symptoms appear.

At residences where there is sickness signs will be put up so that none need come in contact with the disease unknowingly. So far it is not a malignant type and with proper care it may be stamped out without spreading any further.

A band of Indians were camped at the edge of town on Sunday night. They were from Pine Ridge and going to one of the western reservations.

It would be a good plan for the parents of some children to warn them to keep off the cars. Agent Pontius has repeatedly ordered them to keep off but they do not heed him and some of them will get killed or crippled for life.

Last week the Independent shrank one half and came out as a two-page paper, one page old patent and the other home print. The supply of ready prints came with a C. O. D. of $25 on it and it has not been taken out of the express office yet.

Last week W. B. Wright's mother and sister came up from Whitney for a visit. Early Monday morning the former was taken very sick and some fears were entertained of her recovery. Dr. Phinney was called and had her on the way to recovery as soon as a person at the age of seventy-three could be expected to improve. She expects to return home on Friday evening.

Peculiarities of the Siamese.

The wealthy Siamese, including the king, practically turn night into day. All important political meetings are held in the night and four o'clock in the morning is the hour at which fashionables retire until four o'clock the succeeding afternoon. There is a semi-European theater in Bangkok, which was erected by one of the present king's predecessors, and there are plenty of out door theatrical performances by natives, the Siamese being a pleasure-loving people and fond of all sorts of entertainments.

The worst thing that can happen to a man in Siam is to get into debt, from which there is never any escape, owing to the exorbitant interest charged. Once in debt, there is no appeal; the debtor being stripped of his clothes and compelled to work in fetters, generally for the rest of his life, to pay the interest. Drunkards are not permitted to give evidence in the law courts of Siam.

The Buddhist priests, clad in yellow robes, are to be seen everywhere in Bangkok; and it is quite common for young men to enter the priesthood which affords them an easy and luxurious existence, owing to the liberality of the populace toward anyone sanctified to the service of Buddha.—From "Siam's Capital," in Demorest's Family Magazine for October.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS

PROCURED BY THE Press Claims Company.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the Government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuations because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With a view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY has retained counsel expert in patent practice and is therefore prepared to OBTAIN PATENTS, CONDUCT INTERFERENCES, MAKE SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS, PRESECUTE REJECTED CASES, REGISTER TRADE-MARKS and COPYRIGHTS, RENDER OPINIONS as to SCOPE and VALIDITY of PATENTS, PROSECUTE and DEFEND INFRINGEMENT SUITS, ETC., ETC.

If you have an invention on hand send THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Details are not necessary unless the invention is of a complicated nature. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
