—Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 5 cents per dozen.

—D. M. Sutton has moved out on his homestead, southeast of town.

—C. H. Unitt has the lumber bought for a large barn on his homestead south of town.

—Hester & Son shipped two carloads of posts to Scott Jenks the first of the week.

—The Independent has been moved into the south room of the Bank of Harrison building.

—It has been suggested that if the public cistern was thoroughly cleaned it might help the sanitary conditions.

—C. S. Scott has opened a restaurant and oyster parlor in the Sutton building, just north of THE JOURNAL office. J. W. Scott has discontinued serving meals.

—Eli Smith informed us that a man from his former home in Cuming county, arrived at Bodarc a few days ago with a view to making his home there.

—WANTED—One hundred head of cattle to winter. For terms call on me at my place northwest of town or address me at Harrison, Nebr.

NEO. OLINGER.
—Mrs. E. G. Hough has been suffering for some time with a sore eye and expects to go to Omaha to have it treated by a specialist.

—Samuel Jenkins, practical boot and shoe maker. Cowboy boots a specialty. Repairing promptly and neatly done. Satisfaction guaranteed. Shop second floor south court house.

—The Underhill boys are busy building sheds for their cattle. The report that they are going to leave does not seem to have been true.

—Jerry Will brought us a load of wood on subscription on Saturday. He knows that the time of year is at hand when such things are appreciated by the prairie.

—The people of this locality have got their hay up and are now mostly engaged in getting up a supply of wood for the winter. The fact that fuel costs nothing is a great advantage to the settlers of Sioux county.

—The diphtheria does not seem to be spreading any. Several are still quite sick in the families of G. E. Lunsford, J. H. Bartell, A. L. Lawler and Dr. Phinney, but all are doing well. The children of J. W. Scott and THE JOURNAL family are all about well.

—While John Herman was attempting to mount a wild horse on Monday the animal kicked him on the right leg, between the knee and ankle, breaking the bones. Dr. Phinney went out and reduced the fracture and at last accounts he was resting as comfortably as could be expected.

—At the republican primary for Bowen precinct on Thursday afternoon M. E. Smiley, P. B. Bigelow, W. H. Davy and J. H. Bartell were elected as delegates to the republican county convention which is to meet on Saturday, September 30th.

—The statement of the Commercial Bank which appears in another column is the best of proof that the people of Sioux county are not paupers. That bank has no county or village funds on deposit and its statement shows simply what belongs to individuals.

—On Thursday J. M. Smiley and family returned from the east part of the state. He says that the exhibits at the state fair were good but the attendance was light. The exhibit from Sioux county showed up in good shape and will undoubtedly be the means of attracting new settlers to Sioux county. He further says that the crops are so poor that had any of those who came here last spring remained where they were and rented land they would have got nothing for their work and come out in debt. There are many who are anxious to come here but the short crops have put them in such a condition that they cannot get away. Quite a number who are in somewhat better circumstances are expected here during the next few months.

—S. L. Smuck has moved his barber shop into the first room east of the post office, where he was located when he first opened his shop in Harrison.

—Some Wyoming officers were here the first of the week looking for some men with a bunch of about twenty horses which had been stolen somewhere west of Casper. It was reported later that the outfit had been overhauled but it not definite.

—On Thursday W. T. Jones arrived from Utica with a carload of stock, household goods, farm implements and grain and will proceed to improve his homestead a few miles south of town. His wife and children arrived on Friday, so that he is now a full-fledged citizen of Sioux county. There is room for all and all are welcome.

—Parents and those who are members of families where there are children cannot be too careful to keep away from houses where diphtheria exists. There are enough of those who do not need to endanger any little ones to render all the assistance needed where there are cases of this disease. No pains should be spared to check the spread of the malady.

—THE JOURNAL desires to once more call attention to the need of some action being taken in regard to procuring a suitable piece of ground and laying it off in proper shape for cemetery purposes. It is known to be simply a question of time when the remains of those buried on the ground now being used for that purpose will have to be removed and the longer it is delayed the more there will be to move.

—The editor of THE JOURNAL went to Crawford Wednesday evening and returned Thursday morning. This notice is given for the reason that he did not ask the permission of the commander-in-chief of the little ring of cute people and this office remained locked so that that individual could not sneak in and question a child should one have been left alone for a few minutes.

—On last Saturday Wm. Melosh and Sol Wilson arrived from Seward with a car load of stock and goods. Their families arrived on Monday. The former is occupying the Sievers property and the latter is stopping with Eli Smiley until he can build on his claim south of town. Some fine cattle and horses were in the car which are great helps in developing the country.

—Jacob Klein, of Freeport, Illinois, was here the last of the week looking after a piece of land which his son owns in the vicinity of Bodarc. He was well pleased with it and says it is not for sale as he is satisfied that there is good profit in holding western lands. He has land in Dawes, Buffalo and other counties in this state and also in Iowa and Illinois, and knows that real estate is the best property a man can have. He said that there were many renters where he lived who would do better to come west and get land of their own, and he will likely be the means of getting new settlers for Sioux county.

—After spending some weeks here Peter Schaefer left Friday evening for Seward to complete his arrangement to move here and he expects to return with his family in about sixty days. He is well pleased with his investment here and took some potatoes and a water melon which grew on his farm with him to show people how things grow here. He says there are lots of young people in his locality who ought come west and he will do all he can to get them to come to Sioux county.

—LATER.—Mr. Schaefer writes us that he has arranged to put the samples he took on exhibition at the Seward county fair so that all who visit it may see what is raised in Sioux county.

Died.

LUNSFORD.—At the family residence near Harrison, Nebraska, on Monday, September 20, 1893, of diphtheria, Hugh, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lunsford, aged 6 years and 10 months.

—The first victim that was carried away by diphtheria. After being quite sick he appeared to get better, but the disease had got such a firm hold on his system that it could not be shaken off and he breathed his last about two o'clock Monday morning. The remains were buried Monday evening. All sympathize with the parents in their loss.

BARTELL.—At the family residence northeast of Harrison, Nebraska, of diphtheria, on Wednesday, September 27, 1893, George Albert, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartell, aged 10 years, 11 months and 3 days.

—Thus did the dread disease mark the eldest son of another family for its second victim. He had been sick but a few days and it required hard work to keep him alive until his father could get here from Iowa, where he had gone on business, and in less than two hours after Mr. Bartell reached home the young life went out. The funeral occurred on Thursday from the residence. The stricken family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. E. Phinney arrived this morning.

Fred Blomberg was up from Glen on Monday.

A. T. Hughson, of Andrews, called on Monday.

H. H. Russell was in to see us on Saturday.

J. A. Green was up from Royville yesterday.

Treasurer Gayhart was over from Montrose Friday.

William Rickard was down the road the first of the week.

E. J. Wilcox went to Chadron last evening on business.

Miss Alice Thomas returned yesterday from a visit to Hot Springs.

C. Christensen called on Monday and gave us some cash on subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hough and Katie Bourrette were at Omaha last week.

C. F. Coffee, Henry Warneke and J. E. Hollingsworth returned a few days ago from Omaha.

Morris Underhill and Phil. Unitt arrived from Seward on Monday to visit their sons and look after their interests. They say that the boys are much better off here than they would have been had they stayed there and rented land.

Ten State Premiums.

On Monday Leo. DeBock and Eli Smith were in town for the first time since their return from the state fair. They are both well pleased with the result of having made the exhibit, even if no county premium was won for it was owing to a lack of some samples which could have been obtained had it been known to have been important, and not for a deficiency in quality, as the fact that ten premiums were won on the products in the collection proves.

The premiums won were as follows:

Potatoes, first and second premiums, L. DeBock.

Cabbage, second premium, L. DeBock.

Cucumbers, first premium, L. DeBock.

Hops, first and second premiums, L. DeBock.

Alfalfa clover, second premium, Eli Smith.

Cauliflower, first premium, L. DeBock.

Brick cheese, second premium, A. Knorr.

Greatest variety of native grasses, second premium, Eli Smith.

That is certainly a good showing for what Sioux county can do.

Those who were in charge of the exhibit recommend that a meeting of the society be held in the near future for the perfection of the organization and to lay plans for next year. They are satisfied that with the proper effort a gold premium can be won next year, but the work has got to be commenced in time.

—On Saturday Mrs. M. E. Knight was here looking over the country and learning of the advantages it offered for stock farming. She left her home in southwestern Missouri on the date of the harvest excursion and had stopped off at a number of points on her way here. She was well pleased with what she learned of this locality and it is expected that Mr. Knight, his son and son-in-law will come in the near future to look over the country with a view to locating. The young men do not own land and at the prices at which land is held in that country it would be a hard struggle for a poor man to pay for much land, while here they can get land for nothing, and while improving it they can have some stock living on the government land around them and thus they can do much better than they can in the east.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS

PROCURED BY THE Press Claims Company.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the Government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuations because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With a view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY has retained counsel expert in patent practice and is therefore prepared to OBTAIN PATENTS, CONDUCT INTERFERENCES, MAKE SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS, PRESECUTE REJECTED CASES, REGISTER TRADE-MARKS and COPYRIGHTS, RENDER OPINIONS as to SCOPE and VALIDITY of PATENTS, PROSECUTE and DEFEND INFRINGEMENT SUITS, ETC., ETC.

If you have an invention on hand send THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are not necessary unless the invention is of a complicated nature. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
