

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL

L. J. Simmons, Editor and Proprietor.

P. M. & H. V. E. H. Time table. Going West. Going East.

HARRISON MARKET.

Table listing market prices for various goods like wheat, oats, corn, hay, etc.

-To-morrow is ground-hog day. -Hides wanted at the hardest shop.

-Paper napkins for sale at THE JOURNAL office.

-Another blowy snowy Sunday, but it was not cold.

-Remember that THE JOURNAL office is headquarters for job printing.

-Messrs. Rohwer and Riehstein are having their supply of ice put up.

-Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 5 cents per dozen.

-J. W. Langdon killed a large eagle a few miles from town on Tuesday.

-If you want to sell your land, list it with Simmons & Smiley, real estate agents.

-All kinds of wood work done at Fridy's blacksmith shop, opposite THE JOURNAL office.

-The bachelors club was entertained at dinner on last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pontius.

-160 acres adjoining Harrison for sale at a bargain, if taken soon.

SIMMONS & SMILEY.

-B. L. Smuck has moved his family from the claim into the building formerly occupied by Misses Montgomery and Zeigler.

-Take out a policy in the Preferred Mutual Accident Association. It is cheap and reliable.

L. J. SIMMONS, Agent.

-The party who took our log chain will confer a favor by returning the same at once as we need it.

HESTER & SON.

-Samuel Jenkins, practical boot and shoe maker. Cowboy boots a specialty.

Repairing promptly and neatly done. Satisfaction guaranteed. Shop second door south court house.

-Rev. and Mrs. Kendall rejoice over the arrival of a ten pound boy at the parsonage on last Saturday morning.

All concerned are as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

-Remember that THE JOURNAL clubs with almost any publication in the United States and can save you money on your reading matter for the ensuing year.

-G. W. Hester has his left eye in mourning because it came in contact with a scuffling when he was dodging the heels of a kicking bronco.

-Miss Anna M. Saunders, grand chief Templar of the Good Templars, will address the people of Harrison on Friday evening Feb. 24. Admission free. All are invited.

-The Ladies Aid society will meet with Mrs. J. E. Phinney on next Wednesday afternoon. All members are urged to attend and to bring their thimbles and needles with them.

-We are informed that quite a number contemplate attending the irrigation convention at Crawford next week.

Matters of importance to this county will be discussed.

-A boy of regulation weight is reported to have arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zumbunnen, at Pleasant Ridge, Wyo., on the 17th of January.

-The editor acknowledges the receipt of an invitation and complimentary to a grand banquet and ball to be held at Alliance on next Monday evening to celebrate the consolidation of the Chadron land office with that of Alliance.

The change will be a great benefit to Alliance and her citizens have just cause to feel good. A fine program has been arranged and those who attend will, no doubt, have an enjoyable time.

-It is hoped that at the next meeting of the county commissioners some action will be taken to have the pulp-like arrangement taken out of the court room so that it will be somewhat pleasant for the judge at the next term of court. As it is now the court sits perched high above those with whom he is doing business and if an attorney desires to point anything out to him or get his signature he must stretch himself as high as possible and stand on tip-toe in order to attain the necessary altitude.

The present arrangement also shuts out the heat and air which makes it still more unpleasant for the judge. The thing as it now is useless for little use, and is no more of a success as an ornament and to remove it and a plain platform put in its place about ten inches high, and a common office table placed thereon, would be a great improvement.

PERSONAL.

T. B. Snyder was up from Sheep creek on Friday.

Mrs. G. W. Hester was on the sick list the first of the week.

Bert Earnest has given up school and returned to the ranch.

E. J. Wilcox and J. F. Schulz were up from Warbonnet Tuesday.

Jacob Henry was in town Saturday and called at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Williams spent Sunday at Pleasant Ridge.

A. McGinley returned from his trip to Omaha with cattle Monday.

Miss Garnet Kendall went to Rushville last evening to visit relatives.

C. B. Hollingsworth was in town yesterday and called at this office.

J. E. Turner, of Bancroft, was in Harrison the first of the week on business.

L. Gerlach went to Van Tassel Monday to attend the Knoble-Hilderbrand nuptials.

G. W. Cobb and C. L. Brooks were doing business at the county seat the first of the week.

H. H. Russell was up from Andrews Saturday and called and gave us some cash on subscription.

J. W. Earnest returned Friday from his extended visit east. He looks as if he had enjoyed himself.

Mrs. Tom Earnest was called to Kansas last week by a telegram announcing the serious illness of her mother.

-County Superintendent Davis has moved into the Haas property.

-The oyster supper at the hall on last Friday evening was a success and was well attended and was enjoyed by both old and young.

The ladies contemplate giving entertainments quite frequently, and all who enjoy good times should be on hand.

-Fine spring suits and overcoats made to order from $25.00 to $40.00. PERFECT FITS GUARANTEED. Also cleaning and repairing done in first-class order.

J. CERNY, Merchant Tailor, Crawford, Neb.

-The hearing of the contest in the first commissioner district will come up next Monday in the county court.

Judge Wilson will act as referee in the first round. Mr. Enkham will be seconded by Attorney A. G. Fisher, of Chadron, and County Attorney Conhoff will do the sponge act for Mr. Prieshoff.

-The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

On Tuesday evening Presiding Elder Julian preached to a good audience, after which the sacrament was administered. The organization, under the care of Rev. Kendall, is in a flourishing condition.

-The pump is out of "whack" again and the village treasury is reported to be in the same fix so that it has got to be worked on the gratuitous plan from now on until a new levy can be made.

With an over-lap of the last four months of this municipal year the board will have to do some pretty close figuring to make matters come out even next year.

-A number of the young people went to Commissioner Johnson's last Saturday to skate. The storm came up and they got lost on their way home and had to turn back and stay with Mr. Johnson until morning.

While wandering over the prairie some of the party favored camping where they were but that would have been decidedly unpleasant. It is not likely that evening skating parties will meet with much favor for a while.

-The creamery matter is being looked up and it will not be long until something definite will be known as to how much money will be needed and then the work of raising it will be commenced.

There is no question of what the necessary machinery and building can be obtained for a great deal less than such institutions cost in the east, and if it can be built by the local mechanics it will be a great benefit to all. Let all talk the matter up among themselves and neighbors and get in shape to get some benefit from a creamery when it is ready for business.

-Superintendent O'Brien has an article in this issue of THE JOURNAL which will be of interest to our people who have streams on their land which can be used in fish culture.

He says his crop of trout will be ready for delivery about the first of March and all who want to get a supply should send in their applications at once. Any who desire can leave applications at this office and they will be forwarded by us. There is no form to fill out and no agreement to sign. All that is needed is to send in your name, post office address and the stream in which you wish to plant the trout and when the time comes you will be notified when the car will bring the fish up and you can be on hand and take them out and put them in the water and the transaction will be at an end. The fish are certainly worth the trouble they cost.

Married.

KNOBLE-HILDERBRAND-At the residence of the bride's parents, at Van Tassel, Wyo., by Rev. J. W. Kendall, pastor of the M. E. church of Harrison, Neb., on Monday, January 20, 1894, Mr. Henry Knoble, of Glenrock, Wyo., and Miss Caroline Hilderbrand, of Douglas, Wyo.

A Refuge From The World.

Society, which protects its members and makes it possible for them to live together in unity, is the oppressor of individual life. It exacts of every man and woman the performance of certain "social duties," which phrase, taken in its larger sense, means everything which has for its expressed intention the good of others, even though the ulterior object be the individual's own pleasure or profit, few persons are so lacking in policy as to confess to being self-seekers; every one is obliged to practise altruism to a certain extent, whether he really feels an interest in the welfare of others, or only works because he cannot live without it. Society thus makes drafts upon us which we must respond to, and in return it affords us the comforts and amenities of civilized life.

Yet there is an instinctive feeling in the heart of man that society is not friendly to the development of those impulses and emotions upon which his happiness as an individual depends. He is perpetually called upon to spend his energies, no suggestion is made that he should conserve them. And so, looking about for some place in which to recuperate his exhausted forces, he conceived the idea of erecting a little bulwark against the outside world, in which those matters personal to himself should be carried on privately and in quiet.

This is the origin of the Home. It was, first of all, a refuge, a defence against hostile powers, whether they came as armed foes to assail life and property, or as thievish guests to carry off what was dearer still to the owner, wife and children. Protection against the elements, and against the rapacity of his kind, is an instinctive precaution man exercises in his lowest condition. When he can only think of things as valuable, he guards things, building as the Saxons did, his mud huts, with thatch of reeds and straw, surrounded by the great outer wall of fortification, and thinking himself happy if no seizure is made of his rude furniture, his armor, and his metal drinking vessels. As he becomes more refined, he has more property to guard, silver and gold, tapestries, jewels; after a while, books, statuary and paintings. His defense now becomes more complex, he employs other men to watch his possessions, and constructs banks to hold what is most precious, and contrives cunning locks, of which no one knows the secret but himself.—Florence Hull in Godey's.

Roll of Honor.

The following is the roll of honor of the Grammar department of Harrison School, for week ending January 26.

Harry Churchill, Louise Hester Minnie Lunsford and Will Pontius.

MINNIE E. SMITH, Teacher.

A Card.

TO THE PUBLIC:—As the volume of business in the office of county superintendent is not sufficient to warrant my presence at the court house at all times, I therefore set aside Wednesday of each week for the transaction of public business, and those having business before the superintendent should, as far as possible, make it convenient to present it on those days. The third Saturday in each month, as provided by statutes, will also be devoted to such business.

W. H. DAVIS, Co. Supt.

Final Proof Notices.

All persons having final proof notices in this paper will receive a marked copy of the paper and are requested to examine their notice and if any errors exist report the same to this office at once.

PATENTS FOR INVENTIONS

PRODUCED BY THE Press Claims Company.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the Government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuations because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With a view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY has retained counsel expert in patent practice and is therefore prepared to OBTAIN PATENTS, CONDUCT INTERFERENCES, MAKE SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS, PRESECUTE REJECTED CASES, REGISTER TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS, RENDER OPINIONS AS TO SCOPE AND VALIDITY OF PATENTS, PROSECUTE AND DEFEND INFRINGEMENT SUITS, ETC., ETC.

If you have an invention on hand send THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are not necessary unless the invention is of a complicated nature. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
