Republican State Convention.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties, to meet in the city of Omaha, Wednesday, August 22, 1894, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney-General, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, and to transact such other business as may be presented to the convention.

THE APPOINTMENT.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based on the vote cast for Hon. J. M. Raymond for presidential elector in 1892, giving one delegate at large to each county and one for each 100 votes and the major fraction thereof:

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

It is further recommended that the state central committee select the temporary organization of the convention.

The rains of late should not lessen the interest in the irrigation projects and developments. "In the time of peace prepare for war" applies very aptly in that case.

The pops of Kansas have re-nominated Lowellling and all his associates in office. Mary Ellen Lease was not present. There is no doubt of republican success in Kansas this year.

The rains that have fallen all over the state during this month will increase the crops of grain and vegetables and decrease the crop of calamity. Another indication of republican success.

According to the pops the newspapers that speak its convictions is "subsidized," and the one that does not is "brainless." Altogether the pops are having a hard time with the newspapers.—Denver Sun.

Today the administration democrats and anti-administration democrats meet in battle array in Omaha in the convention of free silver members of the party. It is hard to tell whether Cleveland or Bryan will be on top when the dust of battle clears away.

It is reported that Attorney General Olney will begin the foreclosure of the mortgages on the Pacific railroads. The chances are that the report is all there will be to it. People have lost about all hope of anything ever being done by the government in the matter of those mortgages.

At a meeting of the supreme lodge of the A. O. U. W. at San Francisco last week, J. G. Tate, Grand Master of the order in Nebraska, was elected supreme foreman. The rapid growth of the order in Nebraska is due more to the work of Mr. Tate than that of any one individual and his recognition in the supreme lodge is gratifying to every workman in this state.

The fight for the position of register of the land office at Alliance was settled a few days ago by the appointment of John W. Wehn, of Wilbur to the place. J. G. Maher, of Chadron, was his competitor for the position but Mr. Wehn had the endorsement of Tobe Castor and as a result plucked the plum. The new official is not known in this part of the state but it is safe to presume that he is free from any taint of populism. The change will likely be made about the first of July, as that is the date of the expiration of F. M. Dorriington's term.

Met Daugherty might have stood a chance of being the nominee of the republicans of the sixth district for congress, but in an evil moment he allowed an Omaha paper to publish an alleged picture of him and that will certainly prove fatal to his aspirations.

It is reported that a plot has been under the eye of the authorities at Washington for some time, the object of which was to blow up the capitol and other government buildings at that city. The plotters have been closely watched but no act has been committed which would warrant arrests. A man by the name of Homer Jaxon is said to be the prime mover and he is an anarchist with a record in Chicago, having narrowly escaped arrest for his part in the Haymarket riot. The commonwealth movement was to have been used as a cover for the carrying out of their plot.

The most outrageous provision of the tariff bill now being considered by congress is the one placing a tax on life insurance. A man who has to work hard for his living and to provide for the wants of those dependent upon him, with dangers every day of being called hence by sickness or accident, makes some provision whereby his loved ones should be saved from the poor house, and now comes the Wilson bill and attempts to put a tax upon it. Every man who supports such a measure should be branded as an enemy of the homes of his country.

"It is said that 90 per cent of the men who engage in mercantile business ultimately fail. This is due in almost every instance to the fact they do not advertise. The merchant whose name is kept constantly before the people; whose name becomes familiar to all as associated with what he has to sell; who defies competition in daily or weekly bulletin to that effect, will find upon taking an inventory at the end of each year that he is $2,800 richer than at the beginning, besides his outstanding accounts which are worth, say 50 cents on the dollar. It is noted the world over that those who advertise do not fail. They are bound to succeed financially, and when they die a marble shaft is erected over their remains, measuring thirty-seven feet from the ground up."—Bixby.

The executive committee of the pop state organization has changed the date of the state convention of that party from August 15th to August 24th. It is given out that the change was made on account of the G. A. R. re-union of the southeast district of Nebraska. That looks all very nice, but there is little question that the true reason was that the leaders of the pops wanted the republicans to name their ticket first so that the reformers might know who they had to face. It was regretted by many republicans at the time that the date was not selected for the state convention prior to that of the pops, for the republican party is the party of progress and is the party which should lead, not follow. The executive committee of the pops are entitled to the thanks of the republicans for their action.

If any one will take the trouble to investigate they will find that the people of northwest Nebraska have as little to complain of as those in most places throughout the land, the condition of the people to begin with considered. In Pennsylvania the floods and frosts have suffered from drouth and frosts, in Iowa the frost has cut down the corn three times and the drouth has been unprecedented, in Colorado the floods have destroyed much property and many lives, in Oregon the floods did more than five million of dollars of damage and killed a number of people and even in our own state the people are worse off on account of lack of moisture than they are in this locality. When it is considered that in addition to all that the people of the class of which the residents of Sioux county are composed have to pay high rent and buy all the fuel used it is quite easy to decide in favor of this locality. The main cause for dissatisfaction is that our settlers left the east in good times and when there was good crops and they cannot realize that there has been great changes in all localities within the past few years. Of course the people who have means are getting along all right, as "money makes the mare go," but the poor are seeing as hard or harder times than have ever been experienced here.

Food For Brain-Workers.

The changes of tissue in the brain that take place during study and thought are very important and very rapid; it has been estimated that three hours of brain-work cause as great an exhaustion of the forces of the body as an entire day of manual labor. This waste must be replaced by abundant food; but its selection requires careful consideration, and often self-denial, for many things which the physical-worker can eat with perfect impunity are slow poison to the brain-worker, who exercises the brain at the expense of the body, and rarely gives the latter sufficient exercise to counteract the mental strain and keep it in a condition to resist disease. Bear in mind that while the waste of the body is much more rapid, its deprivation of physical exercise encourages torpidity of the voluntary functions and renders them sluggish in eliminating these wastes; therefore it is of the utmost importance that the tasks imposed upon them should be light.

Brain-workers require the most concentrated and easily digested foods; they should eat fresh beef and mutton, fish, eggs—cooked in many forms, but never hard-boiled or fried,—oysters, and all fresh, green vegetables, especially cool, crisp salads, lettuce, chicory, tomatoes, watercress, etc.—with mayonnaise dressing. They should begin the day with fruit and make it form the principal part of luncheon; and be very in their use of cereals, eschewing entirely white bread and oatmeal. Their ideal luncheon, which must be light if they continue work in the afternoon, is a glass of milk or a cup of hot chocolate,—or better still, a glass of fresh buttermilk—with two or three Graham wafers or a bit of toast and some fruit, an apple, figs or an orange.—From "Sanitarian," Demorest's Magazine for July.

The Time for Action.

It is well understood that there is a time for all things. Considering this the people of Sioux county should take up the work of getting up an exhibit for the state fair and never let up until it is loaded on the cars and a good set of people sent with it to Lincoln. There are five premiums offered for county collective exhibits ranging from $200 to $500 and everything indicates that this is going to be Sioux county's year. The reports from all over the state are that the crop prospects average much worse than at any time for many years past. Here, with the exception of a few localities, the prospects are good. Under such conditions there is no reason why a good-sized premium cannot be won. The benefits to be derived are numerous. It would afford the means of the county agricultural society getting established so that in future better exhibits could be made. It would make the county show up favorably and help renew the confidence of men of capital in this part of the state so that cheaper money could be obtained, and there are very few in the county who would not like to see that state of affairs brought about. These and many other things are to be gained and hence a large number should be on hand next Saturday to participate in the deliberations of the agricultural society. It is every body's meeting and every body should attend.

Sugar and Starch Factory.

The following letter taken from the last issue of the Chadron Signal may be of interest to the readers of THE JOURNAL:

Editor Signal:—The sugar factory committee with Vice-President Newman of the railroad looked up the standing of the parties who offer to put a beet sugar factory in here. We found them in every way reliable and the railroad gave over one fourth of bonus asked in land and lots. The parties agreed before the railroad officials to put the factory in as soon as we raise the bonus and they give a good and sufficient bond of $100,000 to run the factory for five years. They have all the machinery bought and will put the factory in some where. We will get it if we raise our bonus in time. They also say they will put in machinery to manufacture starch and run it with the same power when the sugar factory is idle, if they find sufficient wheat at Chicago prices and potatoes at about 35 cents per bushel. They have a starch factory in Chicago. The committee wants all the good people of Chadron and Dawes county to help them raise the bonus.

Respectfully,
J. S. ROMINE.

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There never was a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of mankind in the factory and work shop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual additions to the apparatuses and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not effect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. The great care can not be exercised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in official life, require continual additions to the apparatuses and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense.
