Going West. Going East.
No. 1, mixed. No. 2, mixed.

—Dance Thanksgiving.

—Hides bought at the harness shop.

—Toys and christmas goods at the Drug Store.

—Boys overcoats for one dollar at Forbes Bros.

—Swedish Rheumatic cure, guaranteed at Pioneer Pharmacy.

—Don't forget that the season of the year for wood on subscription is here.

—Holiday goods in great variety at the Pioneer Drug Store.

—Good, heavy, boys pants for winter for 25 cents at Forbes Bros.

—Dolls, doll carriages, toy ranges, and toy dishes at Pioneer Drug Store.

—Old papers for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 5 cents per dozen.

—Forbes Bros. is the place to buy clothing for fifty cents on the dollar.

—Don't forget that the printer needs what you owe him and needs it fast.

—Toilet cases, photograph albums, smoking sets, etc., etc., at Phinney's Drug Store.

—For reliable, first class dental work of any kind, go to T. J. Gibson, Crawford, Nebraska.

—A large invoice of clothing just received at Forbes Bros., for 50 cents on the dollar.

—Horsehound compound cough syrup, the great remedy for coughs and colds at the Pioneer Pharmacy.

—W. S. Johnson came up from Glen Thursday and remained until Friday night on account of the storm.

—We can save you 50 cents on every dollar you spend for clothing at Forbes Bros.

—L. C. Lewis, of Andrews, has a small bunch of sheep to sell cheap, or to trade for cattle.

—Presiding Elder Julian came up on Tuesday and went to Bodarc and held quarterly meeting.

—Get Forbes Bros. prices on clothing before buying and save 50 cents on every dollar worth you buy.

—A man with a magic lantern outfit gave an entertainment at the court house Saturday evening.

—Mrs J. W. Robinson returned last Friday from Kansas, where she was called by the death of her father.

—Go to Pioneer Pharmacy for christmas presents, toilet cases, perfume extracts, smoking sets, necktie cases etc., etc., etc.

—G. Guthrie shipped a car of flax the last of the week. Sioux county flax won first premium at the state fair, so its quality is established.

—Lewis Gerlach shipped a car of buckwheat last Friday. But little of that kind of grain was raised in the state last season.

—J. J. Rodgers was town yesterday, and informed us that on a little less than three acres of land he raised 525 bushels of potatoes and they were not irrigated at all.

—A Thanksgiving ball will be given at the court house on Thursday evening, Nov. 29th. Tickets fifty cents. A good chance for a good time. Everybody invited.

—George Walker, after spending a few days with his family here, returned to Casper. He was elected county attorney of Natrona county, Wyo., at the recent election.

—Beds were at a premium last week during court. Some had to skimpish considerable for a place to sleep but all were successful. The storm of Thursday made many who were here as jurors or witnesses very anxious to get home.

—For a time last Thursday afternoon the storm was very severe, although not very cold, but before morning after the storm had abated it grew pretty cold. It was of short duration so that nothing suffered.

—By an oversight we failed last week to mention the surprise party given to Miss Effie Wright on the evening of Nov. 10th, in honor of her ninth birthday. A number of her girl friends gathered at the family residence on invitation of her mother and a merry evening spent.

—A railing along the sides of the steps at the school house might be the means of preventing broken bones. At such times as last Thursday it is almost impossible to get in or out of the building.

—How many have made any preparation to utilize the water which has been allowed to go to waste in the past? Dam the ravines and run the water over your plow land, garden or meadow and you will find that it will amply repay you for the work.

—Clothing at 50 cents on the dollar at Forbes Bros. We bought our fall stock some time ago. Last week we re-bought as we had an opportunity to buy for 50 cents on the dollar. A $10 suit for $5, $5 for $2.50, these goods are from one of the best houses in Chicago.

—Strayed—From the residence of the undersigned four miles south of Glen, 1 old black mare, weight about 1,400 pounds, branded 2K on left hip, with brown coat six months old at her side. A reward of ten dollars will be paid for her return.

—Joe OLBRIGHT.

—The oyster supper last evening was a success.

—Rev. E. D. Irvine was in Harrison yesterday on ministerial business.

—C. F. Coffey requests us to announce that he was in town last week and bought a whole cheese.

—The commissioners were in session Tuesday and Wednesday. Their proceedings will appear in the next issue.

—Lewis Gerlach has planted a Christmas advertisement in THE JOURNAL. It will bear fruit in a short time which will gladden the heart of the planter.

—The burning out of one of the chimneys of the court house last Wednesday evening during the high wind was the cause of considerable uneasiness in that part of town for a while.

—Parents will do well to instruct their children that in case of a storm they should obey the teacher strictly in regard to leaving the school house. Teachers can guard them from danger a great deal better if they have the cooperation of the parents.

—Harry L. Markell, of Fremont, was in Harrison on Tuesday in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. convention which is to be held at Chadron, Nov. 23d, 24th and 25th. All who are interested in such work, especially young men, are invited to attend the convention.

—In the dried out counties east and south of here loud calls are being made by the settlers for aid in the form of fuel to keep them from suffering during the winter. The settlers of Sioux county have reason to rejoice that they can get all the fuel they want simply for hauling it. Sioux county will not have to have any assistance from outsiders this year.

—Philip Unitt was here during the past week visiting his son and looking after his interests. He said that he had Sioux county potatoes at home to eat and that times are very hard there. Tenants cannot pay their rent or store bills; cattle feeders have empty yards and cribs and as a result everything is depressed. He has fed from one hundred to five hundred head of cattle a year in the past but this year he is feeding none.

—The verdict of not guilty as brought in by the jury in the case against Cobb was a surprise to a majority of the people, but if the result is to stop the kind of work Cobb was charged with doing, the object sought will have been attained. In the prosecution of the case the state was handicapped by the faulty information drawn up by the former county attorney and also by the fact that the present county attorney had been retained by the defendant so that attorneys from outside the county had to be retained to prosecute the case. The opinion of disinterested parties who listened to the case was that conviction was sure, but the jury decided otherwise. There was no bitterness against the defendant and to this fact he doubtless owes his acquittal. The opinion as expressed by a large number is that the unlawful killing of cattle must be stopped by some means and that all honest people should unite in the effort to accomplish that object. The man with a few head of cattle does not want to be compelled to sell his beef in competition with that which has been rustled and the owners of larger herds want rustling stopped for the protection of their stock. No one, therefore, is benefitted by such methods except those directly engaged in it and the outcries to whom the beef is sold and the only thing left for others to do is to denounce rustling and use all honorable means to stop it. By such a course much trouble and expense may be avoided.

—District Court Proceedings.

The jury in the case of the State against George W. Cobb, which was out when we went to press last week, after twenty-six hours, brought in a verdict of acquittal, and the defendant was discharged.

The case against James Farnam was continued and his bond fixed at $500.

The hearing of the case of Tinnin against the C. B. & Q. railroad, in which the plaintiff sought to recover $5,200 for loss and damage to stock shipped over the road of the defendant, lasted all day Friday and the jury did not agree until Saturday morning, when they brought in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,000.

The following is the disposition made in other civil cases, those not mentioned having been passed or continued by agreement or on pleadings:

Charles Bean vs. Frederick Zerbet, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Francis R. Hanour vs. Stephen A. Beers, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Aggie Mies vs. Fred Betschen, dismissed for want of prosecution.

William Deering & Co. vs. James W. Arnsberger, sale confirmed and deed ordered.

Isaac C. Jackson vs. Peter Bretey, judgment of justice of the peace affirmed.

Commercial Investment Co. vs. Isador Richstein, decree of foreclosure granted.

C. O. Tatts vs. Robert Cruise, sale confirmed and deed ordered.

Charles S. Brown vs. Sanford H. Thompson, decree of foreclosure granted.

F. C. Grable vs. George W. Vroman, sale confirmed and deed ordered.

Kate L. Southworth vs. Emmanuel Betschen, decree of foreclosure granted.

George W. Mitchell vs. William L. Parson, decree of foreclosure granted.

The teachers of Sioux county are earnestly urged to attend this meeting and help make this association one of the foremost of the kind in the state. The organization is young and needs the earnest efforts and encouragement of all our teachers. An examination of the program shows that the subjects to be discussed are of the greatest importance to us as teachers, and the fact that they are to be handled by the most able of the educators of our section makes it a greater inducement for us to attend.

Again earnestly urging the attendance of all Sioux county teachers, I remain,

Very truly,

W. H. LAVIS, Co. Supt.

A burning gas jet is unhealthy in a bed room because one gas jet gives out as much carbonic acid gas as two sleepers.

"I escaped being a confirmed dyspeptic by taking Ayer's pills in time. This is the experience of many. Ayer's pills, whether as an after-dinner pill or as a remedy for liver complaint, indigestion, flatulency, water brash and nausea, are invaluable.

The flesh under the nails looks red because the nails are almost transparent and thus the color of the tissue beneath is visible.

A cup of muddy coffee is not wholesome, neither is a bottle of muddy medicine. One way to know a reliable and skillfully-prepared blood-purifier is by its freedom from sediment. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is always bright and sparkling, because it is an extract not a decoction.

A MARTYR TO INDIGESTION
Cured by Using
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Words of Comfort to All who Suffer from Dyspepsia.

"For years, I was a martyr to indigestion, and had about given up all hope of ever finding relief, as the complaint only seemed to grow worse instead of better, under ordinary treatment. At last, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I hereby testify that after using only three bottles, I was cured. I can, therefore, confidently recommend this medicine to all similarly afflicted."—FRANKLIN BECK, Avoca, Ia.

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. Beck and believe any statement he may make to be true."—W. J. MAXWELL, Druggist and Pharmacist, Avoca, Ia.

"I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for general debility and, as a blood-purifier, find it does exactly as is claimed for it."—S. J. ADAMS, Ezzell, Texas.
