A number of Harrison people congregate going to Bodare next Sunday to attend the dedication of the new Presbyterian church.

H. A. Priddy moved his family into the one day last week in order to have more convenient for the children to attend school this winter.

It has been decided by Majors that a contest will be made on the election of Colborn as governor, and in that decision he shows his good sense.

Sept. Davis and his mother started on the northern part of the county on today. The former to visit schools, and the latter to visit some of her many friends.

A Thanksgiving ball will be given at the court house on Thursday evening, Nov. 29th. Tickets fifty cents. A good time for a good time. Everybody entitled.

Prof. Woolworth, the magician, gave an amusing entertainment at the court house on Monday evening. The audience was as large as could be expected.

The work of putting in the new wall at the church was commenced the first of the week. When completed the building will be much more comfortable than ever before.

The high wind during court week made a good many believe that it would be a good plan to do some bracing to the court house. A small investment soon may save a larger sum to the county.

County Judge Wilson started on Tuesday evening for Illinois and the county is now running without a judge.

He will not be absent long and it is hard to believe that anything will come up for which his services will be absolutely necessary.

Sept. Davis and W. B. Marsteller attended the district convention of the I. M. C. A. at Chadron during the past week. They report the gathering a success and that much interest is shown in the work. That organization is doing a great amount of good among the young men of the country and is encouraged by all good people.

Clothing at 50 cents on the dollar at Forbes Bros. We bought our fall stock some time ago. Last week we re-bought as we had an opportunity to buy for 50 cents on the dollar. A $10 suit for $5, $10 for $8.50, these goods are from one of the best houses in Chicago.

THE JOURNAL is issued a little early this week on account of Thanksgiving.

The editor and family, the assistant editor and family, the literary editor and family, the horse editor and family, the make editor and family, the proof-reader and family, the compositor and family, the job printer and family and the develop and family were invited out to dinner and the opportunity was too great to be missed.

PERSONAL.

H. F. Nance is up to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

J. W. Christian was up from Bodare on Saturday and called at this office.

D. R. Cox was up from Robinson Monday and called to see us.

J. C. Parsons was in town Monday and made an agreeable call at this office.

J. M. Robinson arrived from Omaha the first of the week to look after his interests for a few days.

Moses Alice Thomas and Fanny Southworth, students at the academy at Chadron, came up Friday to spend the Thanksgiving vacation at home.

H. L. Foster and Miss Cora Wurtz went to Chadron last evening to spend Thanksgiving and will attend the teachers' association at Crawford on Friday.

T. B. Snyder came up from Sheep Creek Tuesday wearing a very benign smile on account of the arrival of a little girl at the home of his daughter over the line in Wyoming.

W. H. Davis, of Harrison, superintendent of schools of Sioux county, was in town Thursday. Mr. Davis is making a tour of the eastern portion of Sioux county on official business.—Crawford Herald.

—That is the day on which to give thanks.

From the stocks of holiday goods being received by the dealers it is evident that they look for a good trade.

—Senator Stewart wrote to County Clerk Blewett a few days ago asking the number of constituents in the county that he might have the state do something for them. Mr. Blewett very properly informed him that Sioux county had no poor that could not be cared for by the county authorities. Sioux county is not in the list of those who will have to seek aid outside their own borders and few, if any, cases of deserving need can be found within her limits.

—It seems that the rustling is not confined to one locality. Fat calves and yearlings are said to be missed frequently by their owners in the east part of the county, and from small herds, at that.

One nice fat calf came home a few days ago with the rope of the would-be rustler about its neck. It is not the large stock owners alone which suffer but the poor man's calf is equally welcome to him who has acquired the habit of rustling.

—A Texas editor whose soul was full of overflowing with pathetic sentiment is responsible for following soul stirring quotation: "An humble boy with a shining pail, went gaily singing down the dale, where a cow with a bumble tail, on the clover pasture did regale. An idle bee did gaily sail over the soft and shady vale, to where the boy with the shining pail, was milking the cow with the bumble tail. The bee lit on the cow's left ear, her heels flew threw the atmosphere and through the leaves of the chestnut tree, the boy soared into eternity."

—A "ghost party" was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright on Friday evening. It was not composed of young people alone and as a result a good number were out and a good time had. There are none too many when all are included and all people who are married do not consider themselves "old folks." The following were present: Messrs. J. E. Marsteller, D. H. Griswold, Geo. Olinger, W. B. Wright, E. G. Hough, W. H. Hough, H. L. Fisher, Harry Churchill, M. J. Blewett, J. W. Smith, W. B. Marsteller, W. E. Pontius, Roy Maine and Guy Hough, Misses Marsteller, Griswold, Gauthier, Wright, Maine, W. H. Hough, Pontius, Warren, Olinger and Simmons, and Misses Louise and Landa Hester, Lizzie Gerlach, Maude Lindeman, Clara Wurtz, Mabel Lowry, Jennie Pontius and Elsie Wright.

—The judge and attorneys who were up to Harrison holding court returned Saturday night. It seems that Capt. A.
G. Fisher added some new laurels to his brow by winning a couple of very important cases while they were there.

One was a damage suit against the B. & M. road in which Fisher secured a verdict of $2,000 for his client, John Timm.
But where Fisher shines is in a case that is so affecting as to make him weep, and then he does such a good job of it that everybody joins in out of pure sympathy. The second case was one of that kind, and a poor cuss by the name of Cobb, with a sick wife and seven small children, was cleared of the charge of killing one of Bartlett Richards' cows by Fisher's all powerful tears before the jury. They say that Fisher actually uses an onion to induce his paroxysms of grief, but he swears it's a lie to make a grave charge like that, because he happens to be the only tender-hearted member of the bar.—Chadron Citizen.

Mr. Paul LeBeck has three carpenters at work on his house which he expects to have completed soon.

Mr. Geo. Grimm took his wife to Fort Robinson for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tietze and Sanford Hill and wife were Bodare visitors last Sunday.

June Smith passed through Bodare last Saturday night.

The Companion's Calendar.

The Youth's Companion has just published a calendar for 1895 which is a work of art—indeed, three works of art in one.

Scenes typical of three seasons of the year, winter, summer, autumn, are shown. The first picture represents a mother and son pausing in their walk in a snowy field, across which a rabbit is running, much to the amusement of the boy.

The artist in the summer scene has pictured three children rowing down a winding river; and were it not for the apple which ill the pan in her arms, one would scarcely imagine that the graceful girl in the third picture was typical of autumn. Around the pictures are grouped the monthly calendars tied together by ribbons.

This attractive calendar and a full prospectus for 1895 will be sent free upon application, to any one considering a subscription to the Companion. From no other paper can so much entertainment and instruction be obtained for so little money (only $1.75 a year). If you subscribe now you will receive the paper until January 1, 1895, and for a full year from that date, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers.

The numerous cures of rheumatism by the use of the old standard blood-purifier Ayer's Sarsaparilla, show conclusively that it is an effective remedy, if not indeed the specific, for this most painful and persistent of maladies. What has cured others will also cure you.

The day after a heavy snowfall is usually very clear because the snow in fall-brings down with it most of the dust and impurities of the air and leaves the atmosphere exceedingly pure.

That soft, rich, glossy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. All the assistance that nature requires to make the hair strong, beautiful, and abundant is supplied by this excellent preparation.
