Conrad Lindeman was up from Crawford the first of the week arranging to move his family to that town. He is employed at Wilson's clothing store and wants his family with him. His friends wish him success in his new location.

A. M. Gable was up from Running Water the first of the week. He estimates his loss by rustling at from fifteen to twenty head this winter. That cuts the profits down on a good many cattle.

He has recently completed a pasture the size of which is about thirty-five miles long and expects to save some cattle by long and expects to save some cattle by long and expects to save some cattle by long.

County Judge Wilson performed a ceremony on Wednesday which united Frank Fleming and Mary J. Trexler in the holy bonds of matrimony. The groom was but fifty years of age, while the blushing bride acknowledged to having witnessed the roses bloom for sixty consecutive summers. Both of the contracting parties are residents of Dawes county.

Joe Stasoy came up last Saturday to attend the meeting of the Woodmen Camp. J. W. Smith and Will Evans intended to drive to Andrews on Sunday so the latter went down on the train Saturday evening and Joe was to go with June in the morning and thus have a chance to get home on Sunday. The storm on Sunday was such that June did not care to go but offered Joe a horse so that Will could return that day. The horse seems to have been the better man of the two, and the result was that the saddle was somewhat damaged and Joe walked home.

A difficulty occurred on Tuesday between Dr. Snider and H. J. Smiley and blows were resorted to. Smiley came to town and went before the county judge and pleaded guilty and was assessed a fine, which he paid. A little later a complaint was filed against him before Justice Smuck. A warrant was issued and he was arrested and brought in for trial. He got Grant Guthrie to defend him and the county attorney prosecuted. The defense objected to having to stand a second trial for the same offense and the court dismissed the case at the cost of the complaining witness, notwithstanding the efforts of the prosecutor to bring a trial.

There is no denying the fact that the good effects of the location of factories at Chadron can already be felt here. The people realize that now they can advise friends and relatives in the east to come out here and help build up the country and at the same time help themselves. The factories make a market for the products for which the soil and climate are best adapted at a cash price and then what ever else is raised will have a more ready sale than ever before. There is a strip of land within reasonable distance of the railroad where good homesteads may be secured and beets grown, then comes a large territory near enough to admit of potatoes and chicory being raised and delivered at shipping points at a profitable figure, and outside of that limit are thousands of acres for stock-farming. All that it needs is to call the attention of the fellows who have been paying cash rent in the east to the opportunities offered here and they will not be slow in taking advantage of them.

J. W. GOOD.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral SAVED HIS LIFE

So says Mr. T. M. Reed, a highly-respected Merchant of Middletown, Ill., of a Young Man who was supposed to be in Consumption.

"One of my customers, some years ago, had a son who had all the symptoms of consumption. The usual medicines afforded him no relief, and he steadily failed until he was unable to leave his bed. His mother applied to me for some remedy and I recommended Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The young man took it according to directions, and soon began to improve until he became well and strong."—T. M. REED, Middletown, Ill.

"Some time ago, I caught a severe cold, my throat and lungs were badly inflamed, and I had a terrible cough. It was supposed that I was a victim of consumption, and my friends had little hope of recovery. But I bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, took it, and was entirely cured. No doubt, it saved my life."—L. JONES, Emma's Cove, Tenn.
