

F. E. & M. V. E. Time Table. Going West. No. 1, mixed. (11:30) No. 6, mixed. (6:45)

For reliable, first-class dental work of any kind, go to T. J. Gibson, Crawford, Nebraska.

Fred Deuel has moved out to Pleasant Ridge and H. A. Priddy has moved out on his farm.

Horsehead compound cough syrup the great remedy for coughs and colds of the Pioneer Pharmacy.

A. E. Brown arrived last week from eastern Iowa with a car load of stock and goods. His family will be here in the near future.

Richardstein has moved his bar into the second room of his building and will put in a restaurant in the front room. He has not yet decided to make application for license for the coming year.

The young people were given a party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hester on last Friday evening. It is needless to say that they had a good time, for young folks always do that.

The fact that the snow of last week lay where it fell until it melted has been a cause of satisfaction to all. The moisture will do a vast amount of good and every one will be benefited thereby.

STRAYED—One dark brown or black filly, coming three year old, branded 7 cross bar on left cheek. A liberal reward will be paid for information leading to her recovery.

W. S. JOHNSON, Glen, Neb.

Truly astonishing, Miss Annette N. Meen, Fountain, Minn., says: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has had a wonderful effect in curing my brother's children of severe and dangerous coughs. It was truly astonishing how speedily they found relief after taking this preparation."

Last year a man in Holt county raised 325 bushels of potatoes on a piece of ground 70 by 200 feet. They were planted the first of June and were irrigated twice. That is at the rate of about four hundred dollars an acre in irrigation pays.

The JOURNAL once more desires to call the attention of the farmers to the sub-soil plow. It has been so thoroughly demonstrated that its use assists crops in withstanding dry weather that there is no question that can be raised on the point. The plow cost but $15 and by two or three neighbors going in together the cost will be but trifling to each.

The assessors' meeting on Tuesday was attended by all the assessors of the county but two, those for Warbonnet and Montrose. The complete proceedings will be published next week, so that all may know the basis on which they will be assessed.

The whist party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pontius on Tuesday evening was a pleasant one. Four tables were filled. The royal prize was won by Miss Minnie Smith, while the sooty prize was carried off by J. W. Smith.

Blacksmith Priddy informs us that he has already put on more new plows this spring than he did all last season. Straws show which way the wind is blowing, and that indicates that people are going to work in earnest this season.

On Monday evening Sheriff Lew started for Norfolk with J. E. Wallace. The old man has never recovered from the attack last summer which was thought to have been sunstroke and it may be that the treatment which he will receive there will benefit him. He is quite well advanced in years it is not likely that he will last a very great while.

Correspondence.

BELL, NEBRASKA, March 16, 1895. O. J. Goway visited his son at Mars-land last week.

Sam Knapp spent Sunday at Crawford. Miss Lulu McLeay returned home Saturday after a visit with friends on the creek.

Miss Eva Prosser returned to her home at Belmont on Tuesday.

W. S. Nicholson was at Crawford and Ft. Robinson last week.

Joe Bush has gone to the northern ranges.

A. W. Nicholson delivered a fat cow at Crawford a few days ago.

What might have been a serious runaway was prevented at W. L. Ashbrook a few days ago by the promptness and agility of Mr. Ashbrook and O. J. Goway.

Pet Prosser got snowbound last week with a load of saw-dust, but he had W. S. Nicholson for company. Both concluded that there is no fun in freighting in the winter.

John Sutton is in this locality who his father is practicing horse dentistry at Ft. Robinson.

Messrs. Goodwin and Wright of Alliance, purchased 26 yearling steers of Octave Harris at $11.75 per head.

Miss Flora Goway is improving quite rapidly.

W. S. Nicholson has recovered from his attack of influenza.

A. M. Green has gone to Red Oak, Iowa, to join his brother, John.

Harper Goway a few days ago found a part of the shoulder blade of some moose, as the bone complete must have been at least five feet in length. It was a surprise that Alvin went so far to see the eclipse, but Harper is excusable for going some distance to find a Lily for they are rare at this season of the year.

Robert Nece has moved to his lower ranch until spring.

Call for Commissioners' Meeting. The board of county commissioners of Sioux county, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet at the office of the county clerk at Harrison, Nebraska, on Friday, April 5, 1895, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the transaction of ordinary county business.

M. J. BLEWETT, County Clerk.

Little Miss Katie Bourrette who has been quite sick for some time is reported to be considerably better and it is hoped that she will soon be out again.

John Falley, brother-in-law of P. N. Kirkpatrick, and Mr. Rhodes arrived from Seward county the first of the week to look over the country.

To Lift the Mortgage.

Some philosopher or statesman made the problem of lifting the mortgage from the farm to be solved by many farmers as a benefactor of his race. The discussion of the question of immigration which is now going on in the press of the state, many interesting suggestions are made as to the good results that would follow an increase in the number of farmers. There is no truth more patent to the practical observer than that Nebraska farms as a whole are too large. Wherever a farmer holds a larger amount of land than he can till, he is encumbered, for one-third or one-half its value, it is apparent that he should divide his land with some other farmer and each of them hold his share free of encumbrance.

If in the next few years every mortgaged farm in this state could be cut in two and the number of farmers doubled and the mortgages removed a condition of general prosperity and easy circumstances would be produced.

If within the next few years there could be brought into this state as many new farmers as there are mortgaged farms could be divided into two the problem of lifting the mortgage from the farm would be solved. Thirty arm immigrants is what we need. The legislature owes it to the state to make use of this immigration idea, and not to allow it to be lost in the shuffle.—State Journal.

American Stock in European Markets.

Having but just returned from another visit to these lands, if the truth must be told, I found that respect for American and Americans has sadly waned within the last half dozen years. Not only is this true among the manufacturers of Bradford and the tin plate capitalists of Wales, who might be expected to harbor a grudge against America and whose slighting remarks could be easily accounted for, but the same spirit is observable in almost all circles.

The reason for this change of attitude is not far to seek. Our financial difficulties and business failures and railway complications of the last few months have touched many Englishmen and Germans in their tenderest spot,—their pocket books.

Millions of dollars' worth of the stocks of the Atchison road, the Union Pacific System and the Northern Pacific are owned in Great Britain and Germany. The juggling with the accounts, the misrepresentation which have been sent forth concerning the value of the properties, and the appalling bankruptcies of these great systems of communication have given to thousands of people who have lost their little all, the impression that American railways are managed by swindlers and sharpers for the benefit of an interested ring.—From "American Stock in European Markets," March Review of Reviews.
