A double surprise party was gotten up for last Saturday evening by the patrons of the schools and friends of the teachers. The victims were H. L. Fisher and Miss Cora Wurts. The party was held at the court house so that none could object to participating for personal reasons. The plan was amusing from the fact that each was informed that it was to be a surprise on the other and each therefore entered heartily into the scheme. It worked like a charm and when a goodly number had assembled each was presented with a number of useful and ornamental articles as tokens of esteem and respect. The surprise depicted on the faces of the teachers was interesting to behold. The evening was spent in pleasant social amusement and all were well pleased that the affair had been a success.

Largest Circulation in Nebraska.

It isn't much wonder that the State Journal now has the largest circulation in Nebraska. It has reduced its price to 65 cents a month with Sunday, or 50 cents without Sunday; it has been spending more money for Nebraska than any other paper; it has on its staff such men as Bixby, Walt Mason and Amin. The Journal is being pushed at every point and is climbing steadily and surely away ahead of the other state dailies. People like a Lincoln paper. Especially when it is as good as the Journal.

At a Hundred Junction Points

in Nebraska, connections are made with Burlington Route trains for Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, Lincoln, Denver, Cheyenne and beyond. Our maps and timetables showing where, when and how our trains run and wherein they excel the trains of other lines in many important respects, are sent on request—free.

Always glad to quote rates and give information.

50 Cents to January 1, 1896.

That is an awful little bit of money for a twice-a-week paper like the Semi-Weekly Journal, but if you will send 50 cents you will receive that paper until January 1, 1896. You will find it the farmer's daily. Markets alone are worth more money than that. If you take it the rest of this year for 50 cents you will want to keep it always. If you get up a club of five 50-cent subscribers you can have a copy free for your trouble. Address, Nebraska State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.
